

LET US GIVE As Our Boys Have Fought! WITH THE SPIRIT TO WIN!!

If we want to go "over the top" in the UNITED WAR WORK DRIVE--if we want to raise Salem's quota, we must give more freely than we have.

Let Us Give ONE-Tenth of Our Month's Salary

Reports to date show that we have subscribed but half our quota, and those qualified to judge state that in order to raise the amount required we must contribute at least one-tenth of our monthly income. If you have not given this much give again. Don't wait to be coaxed or solicited, but do it voluntarily, and do it now.

Show the boys who wear Uncle Sam's uniform that we appreciate their sacrifices and that we want to furnish them with all the comforts and pleasures the seven worthy organizations for whom this fund is being collected are able to provide. Give for your boy's comfort and for mine. Give to the United War Work Fund. Give one tenth of your month's pay.

HOW YANKEES WON GREATEST OF BATTLE

Three Quarters Of Million Were Engaged In Ar- gonne Operations.

Paris, Nov. 18.—Out of the confusion and haze of the crowding military events on the western battle line since late in September, when battle followed battle until from Flanders to Verdun there was ceaseless action, it is now permissible to outline to a certain extent the part played by the American Armies in the final decisive battle of the war, which ended with the armistice of last Monday.

Military reasons heretofore have prevented accentuating the accomplishments of the Americans, except in a most general manner. The dispatches from the field have been necessarily fragmentary and possibly were overshadowed by the accounts of the more dramatic operations over the historic battle fronts to the west.

But it may now be stated that 21 American divisions totalling more than 750,000 American combat troops participated in the action beginning September 26 and lasting 20 days, known variously as the battle of the Argonne and the battle of the Meuse, but which history may call Sedan—the battle that brought Germany to her knees, and as far as human foresight goes, ended the world's bloodiest and costliest war.

In order to understand the military situation which made the Argonne operations the crux of the war, it is necessary to go back to the reduction of the St. Mihiel salient in the middle of September.

This brilliant American accomplishment is still fresh in history. It cut off one stroke a menacing enemy projection toward Verdun and weakened the enemy's defensive by threatening Metz, one of Germany's two greatest advance railway centers for distributing troops and supplies along the Moselle-Metz line.

Metz also was the pivot on which the enemy swung through Belgium into France and, therefore, obviously it was the pivot on which his retirement must hinge. The Argonne, the next step below here, threatened the great railway arteries running westward from Metz.

INFLUENZA TOLL IS HUGE

Washington, Nov. 18.—The recent epidemic of influenza in the United States caused more deaths than occurred among the American expeditionary forces from all causes from the time the first unit landed in France until hostilities ceased. This announcement today by the census bureau was based on unofficial estimates of the total casualties among the overseas forces and reports from 46 cities having a combined population of 23,000,000, which showed 23,300 deaths from influenza and pneumonia from September 9 to November 9.

"Total casualties in the American expeditionary forces," said the announcement, "have recently been unofficially estimated at 100,000."

ALL CABLE SYSTEMS UNDER GOVERNMENT

Burleson Is To Direct Oper- ation Of Lines.—Effec- tive Nov. 2.

Washington, Nov. 18.—Government control of all marine cable systems, organized and existing under United States laws was authorized by proclamation of President Wilson, it was officially announced today.

Postmaster General Burleson is named to direct operation of the lines, effective on and after midnight Nov. 2.

This action places under government control the operation of all means of communication, the express companies going under federal control at noon today and the telegraph, telephone, railroads, wireless and mails being previously under government control.

The president in his proclamation declared:

"I take possession and assume control and supervision of each and every marine cable system and every part thereof owned or controlled and operated by any company or companies organized and existing under the laws of the United States or any state thereof, including all equipment thereof and appurtenances thereto whatsoever and all materials and supplies."

At the postoffice department today it was stated that the present wire control officials will probably direct operations of the cables.

Ships To Be Utilized In Trade Between Americas

Washington, Nov. 18.—Approximately one third of the ships built and building by the United States shipping board will be utilized in trade between the two Americas. It was learned from high official sources today of the 25,000,000 top ship program, those shipping board plans to turn 8,000,000 into Latin-American trade channels.

Knowledge of shipping board plans to take care of traffic between the two continents comes closely on the heels of an announcement by the international advance agents' will be sent to South America as the connecting link for business. It provides also a clear outline of what the government expects to do in bringing the nations of the two continents more closely together commercially.

A friend called my attention to one of your newspaper advertisements and immediately my husband bought three bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for me. After taking two bottles I felt fine and my troubles caused by that weakness a thing of the past. All women who suffer as I did should try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound." Mrs. JAS. The fee for the classes will be $7 for adults, including the Y. W. C. A. membership of $1, and for girls fifteen years of age and under, the fee will be $6.50. Junior membership included.

The classes will meet promptly, and all fees are payable in advance. Health certificates are required, and for those who do not bring certificates from their own physicians, Dr. Mary Rowland will examine for payment of $1. A Bible class for young women is being organized, conducted by Miss Nina McNary. The class consist of 15 lessons, and not more than 30 women can be accommodated. The organization meeting will be held on Thursday evening at 7 o'clock at the Y. W. C. A class in French, under the direction of Mrs. Alice H. Dodd, will meet on Tuesday night at 7:15 for organization. Probably a large number of women and girls will be glad to avail themselves of the opportunity of studying French under Mrs. Dodd.

Another interesting class to be organized will be a class in English literature, which will include study of some of the best modern books. Arrangements are being made to secure a splendid teacher, and further announcement of the class will be made later.

A class in telegraphy is being contemplated, conducted by Arthur Wilson of the Postal Telegraph. Several girls who have taken the course before have become competent telegraphers and have been able to take position in different parts of the country afterward. Must Provide Protection For Our Merchant Marine

Washington, Nov. 18.—America must provide protection for her merchant marine if she is to compete successfully with other nations, Director General Schwab of the Emergency Fleet corporation declared in a statement here today.

"The whole people must pay for the privilege of a merchant marine, not the few who own the ships," Schwab said. "It will be necessary for the nation to provide protection for this merchant marine, which we are now building. Whether it will be a form of subsidy or complete government ownership, I do not know. But protection must be devised to enable our ships to compete with the ships of other countries. They cannot do so under the present law and conditions."

If the teacher feels that the limits in the essential subjects cannot be covered in this way he suggests that the co-operation of the pupils, parents and teachers be secured to hold school each Saturday morning until the work has been made up.

Attention is called to the fact, however, that teachers cannot be compelled to teach on Saturday; neither can pupils be compelled to attend school on Saturday. Therefore, this part of the plan cannot be carried out without the full acquiescence of the pupils, parents and teachers.

Mr. Churchill emphasizes the point that no good can be accomplished by loading the pupils down with more work than they can do because of the closing of the schools.

Some of the teachers feel that they must cover the limits and are giving their pupils much longer lessons than they can possibly recite or prepare," he said. "In an articulated subject, such as algebra or Latin, it will be necessary for the teachers to require more work and the pupils to do more work in order that the years' work be covered. But in all subjects that are not articulated the amount of work required of the pupil should be reduced in the proportion that the term is shortened."
