FOOD BLOCKADE WILL CONTINUE TO HOLD

Will Be Guarantee That Germany Will Take Her Place In Food Line.

By John D. Gandi, (United Press Staff Correspondent.)

Paris, Nov. 18.—That Herbert Hoover will go to Berlin within two weeks to study the German food situation first hand, was the belief expressed here today.

The plan of the Germans that continuance of the blockade will cause great hardship owing to the food shortage is expected to be thoroughly investigated by competent allied authorities under Hoover's direction.

Should the blockade be lifted, it is pointed out, the entire food distribution system of the world would be disrupted, as the Germans would be enabled to go into the open market and bid against the allied and neutral countries.

Aside from military considerations, continuance of the blockade is therefore deemed advisable as a guarantee that Germany will take her place in the food line with the rest of the world.

Says Oregon Boys Licked Kaiser Bill's Best Troops

Corporal Glen W. Porter, who formerly lived near Salem, a seeing real life in Italy. In a letter addressed to Mrs. Mabel Poland Walsh, written at Aix-les-Bains, France, where he was sent on a furlough, he writes in part as follows:

"Aix-les-Bains is in the Alps mountains. It has 100 hotels and the second largest gambling house in the world. I have made several hikes into the mountains and to the top of Mt. Revard."

"At Aix-les-Bains, the most popular thing in the baths. There is an American bar here with a real foot ball. Coming here was quite a treat after our experiences in the cafes."

"I have never seen any of the Salem boys for the reason the Oregon troops are split up and sent into other regiments. Most of them were in the big mix up last week at Verdun. They went against old Kaiser Bill's picked troops and put them on the run. I visited an old abbey near here built in the year 1125 and kept by some old monks. It contains the tombs of 27 princes and princesses and is some grand old place. It is the property of Italy and one room is fixed up for the King of Italy. The old chap sure has one nice bed that I would like to have. Say but these French beds are sure the only thing. The mattresses are only three feet thick and can't be beat. I sure am going to own one when I go back."

ROOSEVELTS WILL GO TO FRANCE.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE GARBLED IN DISPATCH

Stockholm, Nov. 19.—President Wilson has informed the German government, through neutrals, that unless the Germans maintain internal order, hostilities will be immediately resumed, it was declared in a Berlin dispatch received here today.

No Threat Involved.

Washington, Nov. 19.—President Wilson has not threatened Germany with a resumption of hostilities if order is not restored there, the state department said today.

Stockholm reports that such a warning had been sent through neutral channels are believed here to have arisen from President Wilson's recent note to Germany promising food if order is restored and maintained.

Whether Germany is purposely garbling the president's message is not known here, but today's report is the second garbled one to come out of Germany.

The first report said that the president had demanded that order be maintained and the bolshevik kept out of Germany.

General Petain Has Been Made Marshal Of France

He was made chief of staff of the French armies April 29, 1917, and became commander in chief on May 14 of the same year. Petaun is 69 years old.

America's Answer--

When the call came to save food, the bakers were selected for the first line of defense in food conservation. It is a matter of history how they came resolutely and patriotically to the front--how they accomplished what they set out to do. Such was their co-operation that this country was able to spare what necessary to supply the deficit of our allies. No one, of course, can predict what changes the future may necessitate; however, the nation does know that the bakers will fully meet whatever conditions may demand of them and supply bread of full food values and of excellent quality. It is impossible for us not to feel pride in supplying
