It is the story of the hero's waiting wife and of "The Flag of All Mothers."

COMMISSION WIRES BURLESON ULTIMATUM

Rates Declared Not To Be Effective For They Have Not Been Authorized.

In a formal order issued last night and wired to Postmaster General Burleson, the public service commission declared that the increase in telephone rates promulgated by the Pacific Telephone & Telegraph company were of "no force and effect."

This order was issued after the commission had received a telegram from the postmaster general saying:

"Answering your wire, my information is that wage increases were made effective October 15, that increase in rates to meet these wage increases were regularly filed with your commission in accordance with department order 1931 to companies to be effective November 15. The company was advised that the increased rates had my approval."

From the message the commission assumed that Burleson had not initiated the increase in rates himself.

"It is apparent from your wire of even date," says the commission in its telegram sent to Burleson last night, "that increased rates of the Pacific Telephone & Telegraph company were not initiated by you, but were author- proper procedure through the usual state state channels as prescribed by your order 1931 had been followed."

For the information of the postmaster general, the commission then quoted its order which declares that the increased rates are of no force and effect because they hove not been legally obtained or authorized.

"The proposed rates," says the commission in conclusion, "will, according to our best information, increase revenues several hundred thousand dollars more than is necessary to meet proposed increases in wages to operators which go far as we know have not been made effective. Are we correct in assuming that you will advise the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph company that usual course and procedure should be followed in seeking increased rates as per your order one nine three one? If these rates are forced upon the public without proper procedure we are convinced that thousands of patrons will discontinue service, thus defeating the object sought."

ANOTHER FALSE REPORT

Copenhagen, Nov. 20.—Negotiations regarding the food to be supplied to Germany have been completed, a Berlin dispatch announced today.

Germany, it was stated, will receive monthly 75,000 tons of fats, 150,000 tons of meat and 230,000 tons of corn.

Washington, Nov. 20.—The state department said today it knew of no food arrangements with Germany and any rationing agreement would wait upon the arrival of Food Administrator Hoover abroad.

NAVAL ORDNANCE CONTRACTS REVOKED

Washington, Nov. 20.—The congressional pruning knife came back to its own today after a year and a half of war time idleness.

The new naval appropriations bill, the first money measure to come up since the signing of the armistice, is already feeling the congressional temper for peace time economy.

Members of the house naval affairs committee ar scrutinizing departmental estimates in a way which clearly shows that congress is "hearing from home" on the necessity for reduced expenditures.

Secretary Daniels, scheduled to come before the committee today will be asked to outline his naval policy for the next three years.

Daniels will be told that the committee will grant him anything necessary for quick upbuilding and efficient operation of an enlarged personnel, but that the "frills and furbelows" must go.

RUB NEURALGIA PAIN AWAY, DON'T SUFFER

Instant Relief! Rub Nerve Torture, Pain And Misery Right Out With "St. Jacobs' Liniment."

Conquers pain—never fails.

Rub soothing, penetrating "St. Jacobs Liniment" right on the ache or pain, and out comes the neuralgia misery.

Here's a joyful experiment! Try it! Get a small trial bottle from your druggist; pour a little in your hand and rub it gently on the sore, aching nerves, and before you realize it—in just a moment—all pain and neuralgia disappear. It's almost magical, but the joy is, that the misery doesn't come back. No! The nerves are soothed and congestion is relieved and your neuralgia is overcome.

Stop suffering! It's needless—neuralgia and pain of all kinds, either in the face, head, limbs or any part of the body, is instantly banished. "St. Jacobs Liniment" is perfectly harmless and doesn't burn or discolor the skin. In use for half a century.

STATE HOUSE NEWS

Eleven deaths have occurred at the state institution for feeble-minded from influenza. The situation there is now considerably improved, according to reports received today.

Fred McClard died at the state penitentiary last night from Spanish influenza, making the eighth victim of that disease at the prison. He was committed from Marion county for burning property to injure the insurer. His mother lives at 320 Crosby street, Portland, while he has other relatives in Marion and Multnomah counties. The body was taken to Portland today for burial.

Labor Commissioner O. P. Hoff says he will ask the next legislature to pass a law providing a penalty for any employer who refuses to pay the wages owing to an employe he discharges. His idea is that the employer should be penalized a certain percentage of the wages due the employe. He had a bill of that nature introduced in the last two sessions of the legislature, but it failed to pass.

Action in the form of quo warranto proceedings has been begun in the supreme court to oust Dan Kellaher from the office of city commissioner in Portland and permit T. L. Perkins, who was elected to serve the unexpired term to which Kellaher was temporarily appointed, to assume the duties of the office. Kellaher refuses to turn over the office to Perkins, contending that his appointment is good for the balance of theterm, which does not end until June 30, 1919.

The proceedings were brought in the name of the state on relation of T. L. Perkins. The complaint was filed by City Attorney LaRoche. Time for argument has been set for 1 o'clock next Friday afternoon, and it is expected that a decision of the court will be handed down at an early date.

Sure!

The cook who uses Kream Krisp is always sure of her cake, for Kream Krisp gives her confidence that she can depend on it for perfect baking results.

Kream Krisp will win your confidence too, and once you have tried this new shortening you will use it continually. Kream Krisp is a pure product of big, rich peanuts—wholesome and perfect. It has been tested and approved by Dr. Wiley's Good Housekeeping Bureau of Foods, Sanitation and Health, and by the Westfield Board of Health.

Kream Krisp is more economical than either butter or lard. Its first cost is low. Then for shortening you use only two-thirds to one-half as much—and you can depend on a measure of Kream Krisp being accurate.

Try Kream Krisp for frying—it forms on the food a crispy brown crust that is delicate enough for the digestion of a child. Kream Krisp does not absorb taste or odor of food fried in it, and you can use it again and again.

Try Kream Krisp today for your cake—and in frying. You will be convinced of its economy and perfect quality.
