

SPANISH INFLUENZA

Resembles Old Fashioned Grip

The symptoms of Spanish influenza are very similar to old fashioned grip—pains throughout the body, extreme dizziness, sleepiness, chills, high fever, headache, disturbed digestion with running at the nose and eyes and excessive spitting, showing an inflammation and congestion of the mucous linings.

Manifested by Catarrhal Condition

With the first symptoms of influenza, it is well to consult your family physician at once. It is not the disease itself that is to be feared so much as it is the complications which may follow. To ward off Spanish influenza or as an aid to returning health after an attack, nothing is any better than Dr. Hartman's World Famous Peruna.

For Catarrh of Every Description Take PE-RU-NA

The well known and direct action of Peruna in restoring and maintaining a healthy condition of the mucous membranes throughout the body makes it the greatest disease preventing and health restoring remedy known to science.

For forty-five years Peruna has retained its title as a reliable safe-guard to the health of the American family.

Mr. and Mrs. George Oiler (Louise Braydon) and baby of Portland were Monday dinner guests at the Edwin Brook home, they also called on others of Mrs. Oiler's old neighbors.

Mrs. Mary Billings had the misfortune to fall and break a rib recently. She was also badly shaken up and bruised but is recovering nicely.

W. W. Bates is having a new roof put on his house. Chas. Swartz is doing the work.

Word has been received from Claud Moore at Camp Lewis that he is ill and in the hospital, presumably with influenza.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Minnich and children, who have a home in Kingwood Park, but have been in Portland for some months, were Friday guests of friends in the neighborhood, going on to Dallas in the evening to visit Mr. Minnich's parents. Mr. Minnich is recovering from a long, severe illness and Mrs. Minnich, who has not been in the best of health, finds it necessary to take treatment at a hospital for a time.

As the ban on public gatherings has been lifted here the school is running as usual. There was a church service Sunday evening when Rev. E. G. Ranton preached. There were two additions to the church, and prayer meeting was announced for Wednesday evening at the Peterson home.

Mrs. J. P. Hunt, who has had a long siege of inflammatory rheumatism, is able to be up and out again.

Don't Let Catarrh Drag You into Consumption

Avoid Its Dangerous Stage.

There is a more serious stage of Catarrh than the annoyance caused by the stopped-up air passages, and the hacking and spitting and other distasteful features.

The real danger comes from the tendency of the disease to continue its course downward until the lungs become affected, and then dreaded consumption is on your path. Your own experience has taught you that the disease cannot be cured by sprays, inhalers, atomizers, jellies and other local applications.

S. S. S. has proven a most satisfactory remedy for Catarrh because it goes direct to its source, and removes the germs of the disease from the blood. Get a bottle from your druggist today, and begin the only logical treatment that gives real results. You can obtain special medical advice without charge by writing to Medical Director, 27 Swift Laboratory, Atlanta, Ga.

"BEST INVESTMENT I HAVE EVER MADE"

Contractor Wouldn't Take $500 For Good Tanlac Did Him.

"I just want to say right now that I wouldn't take five hundred dollars for the good that first bottle of Tanlac did me, for I feel like it has given me a new lease on life," said C. E. Nelson, a contracting carpenter living at 7228 63rd Ave., Southeast, Portland, Ore., recently.

"Following a serious accident four months ago," he continued, "which laid me up for eight or nine weeks, I lost my appetite, and my stomach got all out of order. What little I did manage to eat would sour and form gas, which would cramp and pain me until I could hardly stand it. Then my kidneys went back on me, and my back hurt so bad I couldn't find a comfortable position. They said I had rheumatism or 'lumbago,' then my right leg, below the knee, got to hurting me, and at times I couldn't stand on my feet or get up when down. I was constipated all the time and suffered a great deal with headache. Nobody knows how I really did suffer, because I just can't describe it, and as nothing seemed to do me any good I had become discouraged about my condition.

"I finally sent down and got a bottle of Tanlac, as I had read so much about it, and it was about the best investment I ever made. My appetite came bounding back after my first few doses, and by the time my second bottle was gone, my stomach trouble was almost gone, too. I am now eating any and everything I want and it doesn't hurt me the least bit, and my kidneys and back are greatly improved. At the time I started on Tanlac I had to use crutches in order to get about, but I don't need them now at all, and have thrown them aside. I have gained several pounds in weight, and can just feel myself getting stronger every day. I have gone back to work already, and I never lose an opportunity to speak a good word for Tanlac."

Tanlac is sold in Stubbard by Hubbard Drug Co., in Mt. Angel by Jen Goeh, in Gervais by John Kelly, in Turner by E. P. Cornelius, in Woodburn by Lyman H. Shorey, in Salem by Dr. B. C. Stone, in Silverton by Geo. A. Stuchhammer, in Gates by Mrs. J. P. McGurdy, in Stayton by U. A. Bunnham, in Aurora by Aurora Drug Store.

to prevent an extra session March 4. That session, if called, will be controlled by republicans. They assert that they will make an extra session imperative by delaying action on vital measures if such strong methods become necessary. Without hesitation, republican leaders today said they will do anything in their power at the coming session to make their ideas and not those of President Wilson prevail.

Democrats, holding control, declare this is impossible and that the session will practically clean up the reconstruction program which President Wilson wishes put through.

was about 300 ships. By July, 1920, he estimated, the number would be something over 700 vessels.

Has Many Aircrafts. Admiral Taylor also brought out that the navy had so many aircrafts that it has been forced to store some. This condition, he said, had prevailed the last six months when the naval air program more than came up to requirements.

For this reason, Admiral Taylor said, aviation contracts had been the first one cancelled by the navy department following signing of the armistice.

Cuba and other small governments have asked to buy submarine chasers, he said.

The number of craft now in the navy total about 1,000 but a large number of these are of the most makeshift character, he added, and will not be retained long.

The figures for 1920, however, represent a substantial permanent increase. Admiral Taylor and committee members differed about the strength of England's destroyer force. Taylor said he understood in a vague way that England had between 300 and 400 of these craft. Chairman Padgett said that he had been told in London that England had 500. Several committee members demanded to know why the United States was building so heavily in peace times.

district attorney when the senate judiciary sub-committee investigating the brewers resumed their hearing today.

Humes also submitted statements showing that the financial war chest of the association was well supplied with funds. In 1914, his statement showed $1,404,485 was deposited in three banks. There was a decrease the following year when $1,049,091 was on deposit and 1917 showed bank deposits of $748,895.

Minutes of the association meeting at Atlantic City, October, 1913, which included a speech by Percy Andrae, outlining the proposed fight of the brewers, were introduced by Humes and read into the record.

Humes also declared that, at the same time, the National Association of Commerce and Labor was organized with Andrae at its head. At a previous hearing evidence was submitted that Andrae was to receive a salary of $40,000 a year.

In his speech, as submitted, Andrae spoke of the need of rapid action and the activity of the Anti-Saloon league. He declared that the league had been so successful in its legislative work that probably two men in three in congress could be depended upon to vote for prohibition measures. He also said that the real prohibition sentiment throughout the country was against the movement by about the same ratio.
