GERMANY'S GUILT IN CAUSING WAR EXPOSED

Had Approved Ultimatum Sent To Serbia In 1914 By Austria-Hungary.

Washington, Nov. 25.—Germany's hatched-up plot against the peace of the world is being unfolded by the new Bavarian government.

Wearied of the domination of Prussia over German affairs, the Bavarian authorities are now officially revealing documents detailing reports of the former Bavarian minister to Berlin and showing how Germany conspired with Austria-Hungary to bring on the war.

The first summary of these to reach this country shows that Germany approved Austria's ultimatum to Serbia—which started the war—apparently believing that war would be a good thing for the dual monarchy. The action against Serbia, the report shows, was carefully deliberated upon by Germany.

Deliberately Cited War
The Bavarian government, revolting against the domination of Prussia, and charging the Kaiser's group with deliberately inciting the war, published officially a summary of a report from Lerchenfeld the Bavarian minister to Berlin.

"Lerchenfeld informed his government on July 18, 1914, of the plot hatched against peace," the summary of the expose received in diplomatic quarters here stated. "On July 18, he announced the Austrian ultimatum to Serbia, saying that its deliverance has been postponed to July 25 until Mr. Poincare and Mr. Viviani were on their way back from St. Petersburg." The diplomatic dispatches stated. "He gave a summary of the note and added that it is plain that Serbia cannot accept these exigencies which are irreconcilable with her dignity as an independent state. Berlin fully approved of Austria making use of the opportunity even at the risk of ulterior complications. Mr. Von Jagow, like Mr. Zimmermann, still doubts that Vienna will maintain her exigencies to the last. The under secretary of state tells me that Austria-Hungary, owing to her irresolution and her records had really become the sick man of Europe as Turkey was before. The Russians, Italians, Rumanians, Serbians and Montenegrins are waiting for this country to be divided, thanks to the victorious intervention."

HOSPITAL FOR INJURED DOUGHBOYS RECEIVES FIRST CONTINGENT

Debarcation Hospital Number 3 In New York. Has Accommodation For 4000.

New York, Nov. 25.—Debarcation hospital number 3—the largest institution of its kind in the United States—is today taking care of its first contingent of wounded American doughboys.

The hospital in which some of the nation's greatest medical and surgical talents had been mobilized, is located in a six-story business block at 18th and Sixth avenues.

Thousands of persons literally scoured the institution, gathering in the streets about it trying to get a glimpse of the wounded veterans. The soldiers were enthusiastic and joyful over the ovation and waved their hands to the crowds below.

Every Comfort Provided.
Every comfort and convenience is provided for the wounded. There are accommodations for 4000 beds. Already 426 of these are occupied. Within ten days it is expected that the hospital will be filled to its capacity.

The institution boasts of a number of recreation features, such as no other hospital of its kind has.

There is a roof garden and an observatory. The Red Cross has provided a recreation auditorium for movies and theatricals. There are billiard and pool tables, bowling alleys and smoking rooms.

Two floors of the great building are devoted to surgical cases. In connection with these all of the latest and most improved surgical appliances and apparatus are provided. Captain R. B. McLeelin, of Cleveland, who is in charge of this department, has a large staff of surgeons.

Efficiency Great.
The efficiency of the hospital's equipment is indicated by the fact that 2000 persons may be served a meal within ten minutes. One hundred men are employed in the kitchen.

Major W. J. Monaghan of the medical corps is in command of the hospital.

It was announced at the hospital today that arrangements were being made for receiving relatives and friends of the wounded soldiers. The Red Cross is planning to furnish accommodations for the relatives.

Friends and relatives will be allowed to visit the wounded, at all times, if so stated. No restrictions are contemplated.
