We wish to thank our friends and the members of the Odd Fellow lodge for their acts of kindness and words of sympathy during our recent bereavement. Also for the many floral offerings.—Mrs. Sophie Keene, Mrs. V. A. Hughes.

CARD OF THANKS
We wish to thank our friends for their kindness during our days of sorrow, during the illness and death of our late daughter and sister.—Mrs. Minnie Potwin Ruk.

Special meeting of Multnomah chapter No. R. A. M., this evening at 7:30 sharp. Work in the Mark Master degree. Visiting Companions welcome.

Now that the Thanksgiving buying is about over, the market on oranges and lemons is weakening. For those who enjoy grape fruit, it may be said that the Florida Black Diamond brand will soon be on the market. This is regarded as one of the finest grape fruits on the market.

Big Thanksgiving dance at armory Nov. 28th. Five piece orchestra. 11-27

Dr. Schenk has now returned from his vacation and he extends a cordial invitation to his patrons and friends to visit his institution. 11-27

For real interesting news, read the "New Today" page of the Capital Journal. For instance there appeared yesterday the following: "Lost: Small purse Sunday. Contains French poodle dog. Reward for return." Mistakes will occur in the best regulated families as well as newspapers and in this instance a correction line just happened to be dropped in the wrong place. But the fact still remains that the "New Today" page is always full of human interest. To a great extent the columns tell an interesting story every day.

Better dentistry without pain. Two post graduate courses, in painless dentistry. Dr. Hartley. Phone 114. 11-27

Yesterday on his 91st birthday, Basil Todd of Sidney died at the home of his son Ernest Todd. For the past three years he had taken no medicine nor called a doctor. He had serenely tot of the time when he would pass away and had given several instructions as to his funeral services. One was that he wanted no automobiles in the procession, but that the hearse should be drawn by the horses that he had seen with the hearse that worked out of Sidney. Another was that a plain black casket would be suitable. In all respects his wishes were complied with at the funeral held this afternoon at Sidney.

Dance with the happy crowd at the armory Thanksgiving day. 11-27

At the fifth annual Marion county corn show to be held the second week in December, the prizes will be the same as last year and all the rules in force for the last December show will prevail for the coming one. This was decided at a meeting held last evening at the Commercial club, L. J. Chapin presiding.

Miss Mary McCann, a demonstrator, will demonstrate "Umeco" and Columbia oleomargarine for several days at the Roth grocery.

The Elks' lodge will hold its usual meeting Thanksgiving evening. It is felt that after taking life easy all day and doing justice to the national bird, that the boys would like to stroll down town to enjoy a short session of the lodge.

Alternating lights from the Bishop clothing store windows reflected across the street and into the rooms of the Oregon hop growers association last night, giving the appearance of a flash light in the office. The police investigated when a report was made of the flash lights in the office.

THANKSGIVING DAY AT THE CATHOLIC CHURCH
According to the request of the president, there will be an observance of Thanksgiving Day at the Catholic church. It will consist of a High Mass with special music and a sermon bearing on the day at 9 o'clock in the morning. Everyone is invited.

The bridge, auditing, engineering and drafting departments of the Highway department at the state house will soon move to rooms on the fifth floor of the Salem bank of Commerce building. These departments now occupy committee rooms in the state capitol building and as there is a prospect of considerable committee work the coming legislature, they have been asked to make way.

A life prisoner, Edward Gosson, died this morning at the state penitentiary. He was sent up from Umatilla county for murder.
