

SOCIETY

By CAROL S. DIEBLE

Miss Dora Androsen and Miss Stanis Androsen were delightful hostesses for the girls of the La Arca club last night at their home on Mill street. Miss Marion Miller and Miss Esther Anderson were admitted as new members, a variety of initiation stunts contributing to the merriment of the event. Games, music and dainty refreshments also added to the pleasure of the evening. Miss Bertha Waldorf was elected as club reporter. The newly elected president, Miss Dora Androsen, presided at the business meeting. The club will meet December ninth at the home of Miss Thelma Blessing on North Commercial street.

Those present last night were: Miss Ruby Baker, Miss Mabel Brassfield, Miss Bertha Waldorf, Miss Emma Waldorf, Mrs. Ada Zusel, Mrs. Lenh Watson, Miss Thelma Blessing, Mrs. Clair Vibbert.

A host of friends are welcoming Mrs. Robert Kinney (Althea Moores) who, accompanied by her small son, Robert Jr., arrived from Astoria last evening to spend Thanksgiving week in Salem with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Moores. Mr. Kinney will come up from Astoria to join Mrs. Kinney over Thanksgiving.

Mrs. Henry B. Thielsen and her daughter, Miss Ellen Thielsen, are spending the winter in Portland and are domiciled at 725 Hoyt street. The Thielsen family is a prominent one of Salem. Mrs. Thielsen is already actively engaged in war work in the city and is assisting on charitable committees, which were started by her mother-in-law, Mrs. Julius Thielsen, in Portland's pioneer days.—Oregonian.

Miss Hazel Downing was a week end visitor in Portland.

Mrs. Walter L. Spaulding spent the week end in Oregon City with her mother, Mrs. Nora Guard Miller.

A combined Thanksgiving jollification and victory celebration were enjoyed last evening by the members of the Rebekah lodge, when they held an open meeting following their regular lodge session at the Odd Fellows hall. A variety of games and a short program preceded the serving of simple refreshments. Mrs. Ida McDaniels had

MARRIED AT ASTORIA.

Coming as a decided surprise to her many friends in Salem and vicinity the announcement of the marriage of Miss Olga Holman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. Holman of this city, and Mr. Eugen V. Geer of Cornell, Wis., which took place in Astoria Tuesday, Nov. 19.

They were tendered a reception by Mr. and Mrs. Ed Keene at the Masco Hotel, where a dainty luncheon was served, and presented with a beautiful silver tea set by the manager and employees of the hotel. Mr. and Mrs. Geer expect to remain in Astoria for the winter and leave in the early spring for Cornell, Wis., where Mr. Geer has business interests.

They have the best wishes of their many friends for a long and happy life.

80 YEARS OLD— FIT AS A FIDDLE

"I had a bad case of stomach and bowel trouble that four doctors could not help. Suffered all kinds of pain, was filled with gas and constipated for years. I was advised to use Myr's Wonderful Remedy. Since taking a course of it four years ago my trouble has disappeared and have felt like a young man. Although 80 years old, I feel fit as a fiddle." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the external mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. J. C. Perry.

charge of the program, assisted by Mrs. Vieska.

An outstanding feature on the program were the artistic Indian pantomime numbers, given by Mrs. Oscar Gingrich, who is making a special study of the legends, dances and music of the American Indians. Mrs. Gingrich spent some time on the reservations this summer, observing the native customs and gaining a personal insight into the Indian character and life, thereby acquiring a very realistic atmosphere and background for her pantomime studies.

She revealed with nice delicacy the imagery and poetic feeling abounding in Indian melody, when she gave "The Echo Song," and "Her Lullaby" for the audience last night. Adding considerably to the general artistic effect was Mrs. Gingrich's costume of leather heavily elaborated with beadwork, which she designed herself. She was sympathetically accompanied by Mrs. D. R. Rosa.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Edwards gave a merry birthday party at their home 1124 Walter street Saturday afternoon in honor of the twelfth birthday anniversary.

Marshal Foch, in a speech at a luncheon in Paris, said that the hammer blows dealt by the British were decisive factors in the final crushing of the enemy.

MOTHERS, DO THIS—

When the Children Cough, Rub Musterole on Throats and Chests

No telling how soon the symptoms may develop into croup, or worse. And then when you're glad you have a jar of Musterole at hand to give prompt, sure relief. It does not blister.

As first aid and a certain remedy, Musterole is excellent. Thousands of mothers know it. You should keep a jar in the house, ready for instant use.

It is the remedy for adults, too. Relieves sore throat, bronchitis, tonsillitis, croup, stiff neck, asthma, neuralgia, headache, congestion, pleurisy, rheumatism, lumbago, pains and aches of back or joints, sprains, sore muscles, chilblains, frosted feet and colds of the chest (it often prevents pneumonia).

versary of their son, Cecil Leroy. The afternoon was spent in games and music. A dainty luncheon was served later in the afternoon. Those invited numbered: Charles and Oscar Anderson, Charles and Joseph Nunn, Ercel Munnlinger, Fritz Mansue, Harold Burns, Glenn Drager, Claude Litchfield, Delwin Findley, Chester Heglen, Gordon Barker, Lillian Greene and Marvell Edwards.

Corrine Riley Barker is another Salem girl who is adding laurels to her already bright dramatic career in the east. In "The Remnant," a new play, Miss Barker doing a vampire part, has been warmly received and praised by audiences and critics. An attractive picture of Miss Barker appeared in the Sunday Oregon Journal.

Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Haack of Portland were Salem visitors over the week end, motoring back to Portland Sunday evening. They were accompanied home by Mrs. Pauline Josse, who has been spending the past month in Salem as the guest of her daughter, Mrs. C. E. Farmer.

TURKEY MARKET. The showing was fair. In view of the quick movement of stock to outside points it looked as if supplies were smaller than they really were. General sales of top quality dressed stock were around 41c a pound during the day. Some business in poor No. 1s was around 39@40c and a springling of extra good stuff went as high as 42c along the street, although this could scarcely be considered the general market.
