'Gets-It,' A Liberty Bottle For Corns

There's Only One Genuine 'Corn-Peel-er'—That's 'Gets-It'

Ever peel a banana? That's the way 'Gets-It' peels off corns. It's the only corn treatment that will 'Get-It' is a guarantee that you won't finally have to gouge, pick, jerk or cut out your corns. If you want the pleasure of getting rid of a corn, be sure to get 'Gets-It.' It is its wonderful formula that has made 'Gets-It' the corn marvel that it is, used by more millions than any other corn treatment on earth. A few drops on any corn or callus, that's all. It can't stick. It is painless, causes pain. You can kick your 'corny' feet around, even in tight shoes, and your corns won't creepily you. You can go ahead and work, dance, live, love and laugh as though without corns.

No More Excuse for Corns or Corn-Pains Now!

CITY NEWS

Fred E. Mangis, for so many years prominent in the holiday giving, the Cherrians, will arrive home within a few days. His brother, received a wire from him at Camp Pike, near Little Rock, Ark., stating that he expected to leave for Oregon in a few days. Mr. about six weeks ago for officer's training.

A rotogravure supplement of the Detroit, Mich., Free Press in a recent issue shows pictures of Ralph Mason, in the engineers corps and Leonard Mason, in the navy. They are sons of Charles Mason of 330 Bush street.

Tuxton H. Beck of Salem is reported in today's casualty list as missing in action in France. His former home address in Salem was 1010 Oak street, but it seems that his relatives have moved to Portland.

Business is rather slowing up for the women who are catering for the mailing department of the Red Cross. But few cartons and labels were called for yesterday and the office will close Saturday evening of this week at 5 o'clock.

At one time there was some hesitation in regard to sending Christmas presents as it was thought the boys would be home by Christmas or New Year's. Now it seems that the 91st division is in Flanders in northern France and will be there indefinitely. The 91st is not mentioned as one of the divisions slated for an early return.

Once again a most interesting story has disappeared in this air and this time it is the one about the airplane mail service along the Pacific coast in which Salem was to be a stopping station. Now it appears that some one down in California anticipated an airplane ride from Seattle to San Diego and was just inquiring as to proper landing places should the aviator find

As Young As Your Kidneys

The secret of youth is ELIMINATION OF POISONS from your body. This does not mean you should live on a diet of meat and fat, but that you should enjoy the good things of life with as much 'pep' as you did when in the springtime of youth. Keep the body in good condition, that's the secret. Watch the kidneys. The kidneys and digestive organs are the main causes. The kidneys filter and purify the blood. All the blood passes through your kidneys once every three minutes. They strain or filter out the impurities. That is their work. Keep them clean and in proper working condition and you have nothing to fear. Drive the poisonous wastes and deadly acid accumulations from your system. Take GOLD MEDAL HARLEN Oil Capsules at intervals and you will always be in perfect working order. You will feel strong and vigorous. Nerves and muscles will be elastic and your face will radiate youth and health. GOLD MEDAL HARLEN Oil Capsules are imported direct from the laboratories at Harlen, Holland. a guaranteed remedy which has been used by the Dutch for over 200 years and which has helped them to develop into one of the strongest and healthiest races in the world. Get them from your druggist. Do not take a substitute. In sealed packages—three sizes.

SUPREME COURT HANDS DOWN SOME OPINIONS

Supreme court today handed down an opinion affirming the conviction of Chin Ping for second degree murder for the killing of William Eag in La Gracie on March 13, 1917. The killing occurred in the street in front of the post office and was witnessed by several persons. Many shots were fired. The shooting was a part of the long war which raged up and down the Pacific coast at that time. Officers surrounded the building into which the fleeing Chin ran and later in the day found Chin Ping and five other Chinese crowded into a put dog beneath a bedroom floor adjoining the Jess house.

Other Opinions were as follows: Jones Land & Livestock company vs Lester C. Scawell, appellant; appealed from Malheur; action to recover damages for trespass of sheep upon unfenced lands of plaintiff; opinion by Justice Benson; Circuit Judge Biggs affirmed.

W. H. Johnson, appellant vs P. E. Stillwell; appealed from Union; action for damages for breach of contract; opinion by Justice Benson; judgment of Circuit Judge Knowles reversed and case remanded.

Everading & Farrell, appellants vs Gebhardt Lumber Co., appellant; from Yamhill; petition for rehearing denied; opinion by Chief Justice McBride.

Elsie E. Wade vs Walter E. Wade, appellant; appealed from Multnomah; motion to dismiss appeal in divorce suit, overruled; opinion by Chief Justice McBride.

J. A. Hoskins vs. Powder Land & Irrigation company, et al, appellants; appealed from Baker; suit to foreclose lien for labor and materials furnished in repair of dam and reservoir; opinion by Justice Barnett; Circuit Judge Anderson reversed.

John Bencke, et al vs G. G. Tucker, appellant; appealed from Multnomah; suit to recover on note for $1750 and foreclosure mortgage; opinion by Justice Harris; judgment of Circuit Judge Gantenben reversed and case remanded.

Petitions for rehearings were denied in Palmer-Hayworth Logging company vs Henderson and Halderman vs Weeks Motion for recall of mandate denied in Smith vs Robinson.

It necessary to make a landing in this section. Anyhow, he found the section people wide awake to the possibilities of establishing an airplane station here. After scouring the country round for the kind of a 40 acre field asked for, none was found within a distance of six miles. However, it was noted that should there be a demand for an airplane station in Salem, that the Bush pasture was about the best, provided about a dozen trees were removed. Some of the critics here couldn't see way a decent sort of an aviator needed 40 acres in which to make a landing.

Word came to the Commercial club this morning that Thanksgiving held no interest for Mrs. Knott, 1247 Perry street, West Side apartments from the reason that she was in need and had no means of buying food to observe the national day. The suggestion was made that possibly those who fell so disposed might do some good by investigating.

Rev. C. H. Powell of La Grande, who was recently elected rector of St. Pauls Episcopal church of Salem will arrive in the city tomorrow and will officiate at the Thanksgiving services of the church Thursday morning at 10 o'clock. Mr. Powell's family, consisting of his wife and five children will make their home in the rectory of the church. The call to the church has been confirmed by Bishop Sumner of Portland.

Wooden Shipbuilding Orders Cancelled

Portland, Or., Nov. 26.—Immediate suspension of all government contracts for wooden ships of the Oregon district, keels for which have not been laid, was ordered by the United States shipping board Monday. Official confirmation of the order was given by J. W. Hall, assistant supervisor of the government's wooden shipbuilding activities of the Oregon district. Twenty-five hulls are affected by the order. The shipbuilders are compensated for the withdrawal of the contracts, however, by being given permission to construct vessels for private account equal to the tonnage withdrawn by the government.

40,000 Workmen Affected

Ultimate results of the sweeping order, which is taken by some to mean the death knell of the government's wooden ship construction program, will be extensive. In the Oregon district today are employed some 40,000 workmen, the payroll of the employes running into millions of dollars a month. That the cancellation of the order will seriously affect some of the yards is obvious, and unless the builders can obtain private contracts at once, the industrial situation will be complicated it is believed.

Some of the builders, it is said, have already secured options on contracts for private account.

While the government's order was not wholly unexpected, its receipt by telegraph yesterday morning came, nevertheless, with suddenness.

NUGENT'S ELECTION SURE

Boise, Idaho, Nov. 26.—Official canvass of the Idaho vote on November 5 confirms the election of Senator John F. Nugent, Democrat. Senator Nugent leads by 970 votes out of a total vote of 95,964.

Frank R. Gooding, his opponent, conceded Nugent's election some days ago.

What kind of pudding will your table bear this Thanksgiving day? HERE will be a big change in the tables of thousands of homes this Thanksgiving. In place of the old familiar home-made plum pudding, there will be a new kind—an improved kind—a plum pudding that has brushed aside time-worn conventions and through sheer merit, won the right to a place on the up-to-date, properly set Thanksgiving table. It will be readily conceded that no ordinary plum pudding could do this; and it is no ordinary pudding that has done it. As just stated, it is an improved pudding—the kind of pudding the unusually skilled and gifted housewife enjoyed the good fortune of being able to offer her family once in a great many seasons—when everything went just right. It is conceded among practically all housewives and professional chefs that one of the most difficult of all cooking and baking accomplishments is the perfect plum pudding. Mrs. Porter discovered the knack of this difficult accomplishment. Then she commercialized her art so all the many families located within a reasonable shipping distance, could enjoy perfect plum pudding always—enjoy them from September to March—get a fill of them. It was very hard to convince folks at first of what she had done for the public. A few, however, tried her puddings—the trial convinced—won their favor and patronage. Then came others—and others; and the demand has grown and grown until the last few seasons, it has been a case of not being able to supply the demand. In this respect, the present season is sure to eclipse all previous ones because more people have learned of the wonderful goodness, absolute uniformity and pronounced economy of Mrs. Porter's Plum Puddings. This advertisement is inserted merely to caution those who have intended to take advantage of the opportunity of being able to have a Mrs. Porter's Plum Pudding on the Thanksgiving Day table instead of putting in a lot of time and hard work making one, to order at once before the present small reserve stock grocers have been able to procure, has been exhausted. There are two sizes—forty cents and seventy-five cents; the Fig and Fruit Pudding sell for twenty cents and thirty-five cents. Make sure of the name Mrs. Porter. Images of Mrs. Porter's Fig, Fruit, and Plum puddings.
