SCHOOL BUDGET WAS DEFEATED, BUT THERE WILL BE NEW ELECTION

Only 374 Voters Took Trouble To Express Opinion. 267 Were Opposed.

At the annual election held last Saturday when the assessed voters of the city were asked to express an opinion as to the school budget for the coming year, only 374 voters took the trouble to express an opinion and of this number 267 were opposed to the present school board and its budget while only 107 were favorable.

This is the first time in the history of the city when a school board has been defeated in its proposed budget for school expenses and the general opinion has been expressed that the defeat this year was due to the negligence of those who were satisfied with the present board while those opposing were most active in getting out votes. However, the fact that the budget was defeated does not mean that schools will close, nor will their efficiency be impaired for lack of money, as contracts for the school year ending next June have already been signed.

It does mean that another election will be held this month when the same budget will be presented to the assessed voters of the city, and also that an effort will be made to explain more definitely to the voters what the board of education has been doing the past year and what is proposed to do with the money asked for in the budget.

Under Section 3665 of the state of Oregon laws relating to assessments and taxation, Ben F. West, county assessor may make a reasonable extension of time for the filing of the notice of the school levy, if the application is made to him in writing. Ordinarily such notice of levy must be made by Dec. 1. Under this ruling Mr. West says he will extend the time 30 days and this will give the citizens of Salem who are interested in the welfare of the schools an opportunity to fully express themselves at another election. The law especially includes school districts wherein the county assessor may extend the time of filing its notice of levy.

Hence as the matter now stands, the school board will probably call an election this month and put it straight up to the assessed voters in Salem as to whether they are satisfied with the way the city schools are being managed or whether they want a new deal. School affairs for the past year have been in the hands of the following directors: E. T. Barnes, H. O. White, Chauncey Bishop, Walter Winslow and H. L. Clark.

A special meeting of the board of directors of school district No. 24 has been called for Thursday evening of this week, to be held at 8 o'clock in the office of the Board of Education for the purpose of discussing and adopting a budget for the school year 1918-1919 and on the further purpose of fixing a date for holding an election thereon, and to instruct the chairman of the board to take the necessary steps for holding the election. Also for the purpose of auditing the monthly payroll and issuing warrants in payment thereof.

ELKS OFFER TRIBUTE TO DEPARTED MEMBERS

Charles A. Galloway Eulogizes Elks Who Offered Lives In U. S. Service.

The great work of the American soldier in France and the patriotism shown by the American people during the past year was voiced in the memorial address delivered Sunday afternoon by Arthur C. Spencer, at the annual services held by Salem Lodge No. 336 B. P. O. E. in honor of its departed dead.

In a most appropriate eulogy Charles G. Galloway, member of the Salem Lodge, spoke feelingly of the nine brothers who had answered the last call during the year, dwelling briefly on the activities and the good that had been accomplished by each.

Scott & Bowse, Bloomfield, N. J. 12-19

were most appropriate. Lula Dahl Miller of Portland, a favorite with Salem audiences, sang "The Prayer Perfect" and "The Promise of Life". Paul Petri was well received in his singing, especially the patriotic song "The Americans Come."

Harry J. Wenderoth as exalted ruler was in charge of the ceremonies of the day, assisted by A. E. Huestein, J. A. Benjamin, A. L. Downing, Harry J. Wiedner, Ralph White and Father Buck.

The decorations of the stage, for which credit is due Wharton L. West, were most appropriate. In the background was the Salem mounted Elk over which were spread the rays of a crimson sunset. Immense bouquets of chrysanthemums decorated each side of the stage with wreaths swinging in the background. The altar was draped with the American flag.

In many respects, the service of yesterday were most solemn and impressive. The opera house was crowded to overflowing with the attendance of 300 Elks and their friends. The program of the services was in charge of Arthur S. Benson, Wharton L. West and Ben H. Ling.

Grand Commandry Is In Session At Masonic Temple

The Grand Commandry of the State of Oregon is today in session at the Masonic Temple. The session is one entirely of business, adjourned from the one held at Bend in October, due to the sudden death of past commander Taylor.

Among the state officers present at this afternoon's session were the following:

- Edward E. Kiddle, Island City, Grand Commander.
- George G. Brown, Salem, deputy grand commander.
- Frank S. Baillie, Baker, grand generalissimo.
- Weston G. Shellenbarger, Portland, grand captain general.
- Charles W. Nims, Ashland, senior grand warden.
- Milton I. Meyers, Salem, grand junior warden.
- John B. Cleland, Portland, grand treasurer.
- James M. Robinson, Portland, grand recorder.
- Norris B. Cox, Portland, grand standard bearer.
- Edmund S. Bargett, Marshfield, grand sword bearer.
- Adna B. Holmes, Roseburg, grand warden.
- Edgar E. McGee, Klamath Falls, grand captain of the guard.
- Ralph D. Robinson of Portland, grand prelate is in the service of his country at Camp Johnson, Florida.

The session of the Grand Commandry will close this afternoon with the election of officers for the coming year.

The S. P. & S. will not reduce its number of trains running between Astoria and Portland and Astoria and East Stevens, as announced, but will maintain its present schedule for the time being. This change was made after Chairman Miller of the public service commission was requested by the Astoria Commercial club to use its efforts to get the company not to reduce its train schedule.

Railroad Shares Boom On Message

New ark, Dec. 2.—The immediate effect of President Wilson's speech upon railroad issues on the stock exchange here was to send the stocks soaring in the closing session. Rails jumped wildly, advances in some cases reaching to about three points.
