DEATH OF EDWARD H. DUNNING

Edward H. Dunning died at his home at Woodburn November 27 and was laid to rest in Belle Pass cemetery Saturday. Services were held at the Methodist Episcopal church at 1:30 in the afternoon, Rev. C. L. Dark officiating and music being by a quartette. The following obituary was read by Rev. Dark:

Edward Harmon Dunning was born at Aakabula, Ohio, May 23, 1845, and died at his home at Woodburn, Oregon, November 27, 1918, aged 73 years, 6 months and 4 days.

In early childhood he came with his parents to Allamakee county, Iowa, where he spent forty-seven years of his life. In 1866 he was married to Isabel Jamison. Four children were born to this union, two daughters surviving the father, Mrs. T. E. Fair and Mrs. Susan Brown.

In 1883 he was married to Alice A. Outsh of Linn, Iowa, who survives her husband. To this union was born one son, Edwy H. Dunning, who was with his father for more than a week during his last illness. Mr. Dunning is survived also by one sister, Mrs. G. H. Atwood of Iowa, and two brothers, Marion of Iowa and George of Missouri. Besides these he is survived by nine grandchildren, the eldest of whom is in the service of his country overseas. He is survived also by two great-grand children, and many friends who sorrow with his bereaved family.

He was engaged in the stock business for more than 20 years, until health compelled him to cease such strenuous labors. In the late nineties he moved to Lyman county, South Dakota, where he lived for eight years, moving thence to Linn county, South Dakota where he lived until he came to Oregon in 1913. After a brief stay in Portland the deceased came to Woodburn, where he lived until his death.—Woodburn Independent.

GEORGE WHITNEY PASSED

One of the old pioneers of this section, George W. Whitney, died at his home near this city at 1 o'clock Tuesday morning in the 66th year of his age. Heart trouble was the cause of death, which came suddenly, although he had been ailing for two or three days prior to his demise.

Mr. Whitney was the son of the pioneer, the late Jon Whitney, and was born December 28, 1852, on the place where he had always made his home. He leaves a widow, three sons, Jonathan Whitney of Sacramento, California; Charles Whitney and Henry Whitney of this vicinity, and a daughter, Mrs. Mabel Colman, of Seattle. Also surviving him are a brother, Charles Whitney of Lebanon, and a sister, Mrs. Mary Ann Dodge, of Woodburn. Word was sent to the son Jonathan and the daughter Mabel and they arrived in time for the funeral which will take place at Hubbard tomorrow (Friday) afternoon at 2 o'clock under the auspices of the Hubbard Lodge I. O. O. F. Interment will be at Hubbard cemetery.—Woodburn Independent.

SILVERTON CLOSED AGAIN

Silverton, apparently, is facing another spread of influenza. Wednesday nineteen new cases were reported to the health officer, Dr. P. A. Loar. The course of this disease in other cities has shown that the second attack has proven the most fatal. It is urged upon everyone at this time to take every precaution to prevent an increase in this epidemic.—Appeal.

SOCIETY

By CAROL S. DEERLE

ONE of the prettiest of the juvenile parties given this season was attended by a bevy of young folk Saturday evening when Sherman Plimpson celebrated his twelfth birthday anniversary at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Plimpson, 254 North Church street. A brilliant company of future belles and beaux frolicked through an evening of dancing, music and a merry diversion of games. A novel little contest arranged by Mrs. Plimpson, formed an entertaining feature of the jollification, Helen Roberts and Henry Wesley Thielson winning the forthcoming prizes.

The rooms presented an exceedingly festive and attractive attire, a gain red and green color scheme being carried out in every artistic detail. A profusion of green laurel accentuated by the glowing note of myrtle red candles throughout the house made an alluring background for the dainty frocks of the small maids, who participated so joyously in the general good time.

The beautifully decked table was crowned with an enticing snow white birthday cake illuminated by the glow of sparkling red candles placed in delicate silver candelabra. Exquisite favors found their way to each guest in the shape of cunning miniature flower pots, each surmounted by a tiny, crimson taper.

The ices were served by little Miss Helen Roberts, and a trio of maidens, numbering Dorothy Livesley, Mildred Roberts and Janet Plimpson, assisted in serving the array of small guests, who were bidden to the number of twenty-two.

Betty and James Terry accompanied by their parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Terry of Portland were out of town guests for the evening.

A most entertaining program has been arranged by the Parent Teachers association of the Lincoln school to be given Wednesday night in connection with the regular monthly meeting of the association. The program will develop a Christmas and patriotic theme, the numbers being given for the most part by the pupils of the junior high, under the direction of the school principal, Mrs. Florian Von Eichen. Two attractive features of the entertainment will be the solo dances by Marcel Shipp and Nancy Thielson. The program will be given at the Lincoln school and will commence at 7:30. Mrs. J. W. Harrison is the president of the Parent Teachers association.

Several Salem girls participated in the installation of the Theta Mu chapter of the Delta Delta Delta sorority at the Oregon Agricultural college Saturday night. Miss Doris Sawyer well known among the college set in Salem is among the members initiated. And the pledges include Miss Helen King and Miss Esther Busch of Salem. Several visiting members from the Eugene chapter also attended the ceremonies, among them being Miss Doris Churchhill, daughter of J. A. Churchhill of Salem, and a popular University of Oregon student.

The installation ceremony took place Friday evening. Miss Louise Fitch, national president of Delta Delta Delta officiating. Miss Ethel Mowatt, from Washington university, acted as assistant installing officer. The initiation banquet was held at the Julian hotel on Saturday evening.

Delta Delta Delta was founded on Thanksgiving evening, 1888, in Boston university, Boston, Mass. The organization now includes 37 active chapters and 4000 members. The organization at U. A. C. has been active and popular in campus affairs. For the last two years they have won the Fawcett cup, which is given by Dean Fawcett for the winning set of the annual girl's stunt show.

Miss Helen Pearce has been appointed head of the employment department of the Portland Y. W. C. A. Miss Pearce has taken the Y. W. C. A. training course at Portland this fall, and by reason of her marked efficiency has been chosen to supervise the employment branch of the Portland Y. W. C. A. work. She began her new duties last week. Miss Pearce visited in Salem over the week end with her mother, Mrs. George J. Pearson.

Mrs. T. J. Needred and daughter, Miss Cecelie Needred, have returned from a ten days visit at Eugene where they were the guests of Mrs. Needred's daughter, Mrs. R. B. Drain.

Miss Frances Beeler of Eugene was the guest of Mrs. and Mrs. J. W. Jones at their home on Chesapeake street over the week end.

Among the first of the Salem soldiers, who is being welcomed home upon his return from service, is John Carson, who arrived last night from Fort Monroe, Virginia. Mr. Carson was in the heavy artillery. He has been away about six months.

Mrs. Albert A. Stewart was hostess at a pretty appointed dinner party Friday evening at her residence, 1249 South Commercial street, in compliment to her brother-in-law, Roy B. Hewitt, who has recently returned from France, where he was a member of the U. M. C. A. service. The table was handsomely covered with yellow chrysanthemums. Covers were laid for Mr. and Mrs. Hewitt, Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Glover, Mrs. E. E. Nelson, Ronald Hewitt and Mr. and Mrs. Stewart.

Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Meyer and little daughter, Elva, left yesterday for Clatsop, Oregon, where they will make their home for the winter.

Coming as a surprise to their Salem friends was the announcement of the marriage of Miss Beatrice Crawford, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John B. Crawford of Salem, and Henry La Verge Newcomb, November 25, at Buffalo, New York. The bride is a former Salem girl and a graduate of the Salem high school with the 1914 class. She is also an attendant of U. A. C.

MRS CHRISTENSEN GAINS 36 POUNDS

Health Was Completely Shattered When She Began Taking Tanlac.

"Just give me Tanlac and you may have all the other medicines," said Mrs. C. W. Christensen, residing at 1916 South 44th street, Tacoma, Washington.

"Those who have not seen me since I began taking Tanlac," continued Mrs. Christensen, "would hardly know me on first sight. I have undergone such a change. Why, do you know I have actually gained thirty six pounds in hardly more than a month, but it is the truth. I had suffered from nervousness and frequent dizzy spells for seven years, and my sleep was so broken, and I was so tired that I hardly felt like getting up in the mornings. My back felt like it would break in two, it hurt me so badly and my kidneys bothered me all the time. Everything I would eat tasted bad and my stomach was so upset that I could not eat more than one meal a day, and that a very light one. Besides all this, about eighteen months ago, I was in an automobile accident, and have been almost a nervous wreck ever since. I thought my condition was bad enough before, but afterwards my health was completely shattered. The pains in my back were almost unbearable, my stomach got worse and I was in a dreadful plight. I lost weight until I got down to only ninety eight pounds—was hardly more than a frame—and was confined to my bed for several weeks.

"Finally a friend of my husband advised him to get me to try Tanlac, and my improvement commenced with the first bottle. I have been gaining in weight and strength ever since until now, my troubles are not only gone, but I feel just as strong and well as I ever did. I eat just anything and enjoy it and nothing hurts me a particle. My nerves are strong and steady and I sleep so well that I'm glad for night to come, and getting up time comes too early for me in the mornings. Tanlac has certainly brought health and happiness to me and I can't say too much in its praise."

Tanlac is sold in Stoddard by Stoddard Drug Co., Mt. Angel by the Goodie, in Gervais by John Kelly, in Turner by H. P. Cornelius, in Woodburn by Lyman H. Shorey, in Salem by Dr. S. C. Stone, in Silverton by Geo. A. Steelhammer, in Gates by Mrs. J. P. McCurdy and in Stayton by U. A. Beauchamp, in Aurora by Aurora Drug Store. (Adv.)

She left for the east a year ago to accept a position connected with the U. S. chemical warfare service at Akron, Ohio. While engaged in this work, she met Mr. Newcomb, who was a member of that branch of the service. The young couple will make their home in the east.

STEVENS IS MISSING

Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Stevens of Mackay have received a telegram containing the sad news that their son, Private Clarence Lawrence Stevens, has been reported as missing in action since October 3. He belonged to Co. H, 10th U. S. Infantry, 28th Division, American Expeditionary Forces, in France.

The last letter that they received from their son was written September 22, saying that he would write again soon, but no further news was received of him until the war department's telegram came, announcing that he had been reported missing in action. It is, of course, not known whether he was taken prisoner, or is among the unidentified killed, or possibly in some hospital and so injured mentally as to be unable to give an account of himself. In fact, it is useless to guess what his fate may have been. Only time will reveal it. In the meantime his parents and friends can only hope for the best.—Aurora Observer.

GIESY VS. MARION COUNTY. The case of A. W. Giesy versus Marion county has been set for hearing to day in the supreme court. This suit covers damages claimed from the county through the opening of a road through the Giesy ranch as a direct outlet from Fargo to the Aurora road. The case came up in the county court before Judge Busley whose award of damages was not satisfactory to Giesy. In the Marion county circuit court Judge Bingham sustained the action of the county court. The hearing today in the supreme court is upon an appeal from Judge Bingham's decision.

The case is the final windup of a long controversy over the opening of a road for the use of Fargo people coming this way. The opening of the road was authorized several months ago by the county court.—Aurora Observer.
