Normal Students Look Forward To Vacation

Monmouth, Or., Dec. 11.—Now that Thanksgiving ceremonies and festivities are over and Christmas is so near at hand, Normal students and teachers who did not get to go home at that time are becoming restless and find it difficult to settle down to serious work. The holiday vacation begins for the Normal and Training school on Friday the 20th and will probably last two weeks. The critic teachers are asking permission of the school board to add one half hour a day to the regular session, in order to make up the time lost during the influenza vacation, and so they may be given the full two weeks at Christmas time. The Normal did not close, so lost no time. The high school will probably have only Christmas day off as it opened two weeks later than the Training school.

A French club has been organized at the normal under the leadership of Mrs. G. McGregor of Dallas. The first meeting will be held Wednesday evening at 7:30. Anyone who is interested in the study of French is invited to join.

The Vesperian and Delphinian literary societies of the Normal held their regular joint session Friday evening in the auditorium and gave a very interesting short program in which both societies were represented. At the conclusion of the joint session each society adjourned to their respective meeting place where they proceeded with their own interesting programs.

The Faculty club held its first regular meeting on Wednesday in the normal library. Prof. Thomas Gentle, president of the club, called the meeting to order after which he stated briefly the purpose of the meetings. President Ackerman, the speaker of the evening, chose for his subject the "Bolshevik Movement." Beginning with its first inception in 1903 he gave its history down to the present time. A general discussion followed. Other important issues that are expected to figure in the readjustment of society will be taken up at future meetings by other members of the club.

Monmouth is planning to have a community Christmas tree again this year according to the custom established last year. Mayor Wolverson has called a meeting of the representatives of the different schools, churches and societies to discuss plans for same. The various organizations to be represented are the Evangelical, Baptist and Christian churches, the Grange, Red Cross, Commercial and Social Hours clubs, the Odd Fellows, Rebekahs, Woodman and the Circle lodges.

A number of representative farmers from this vicinity, among them being Wm. Riddell Jr., P. O. Powell, E. R. Ostrom and F. W. Ball, called on the county court during the budget session Wednesday for the purpose of inducing the court to include funds for the maintenance of the office of county agent. Previous to the meeting it had been given out that the court would not allow any further salary to continue the office; hence the protest from farmers all over the county. Many good reasons were given why the agent should be retained but as far as Judge Kirkpatrick is concerned, they fell on deaf ears, this gentleman appearing much disgruntled, probably on account of his defeat in the recent election. Anyway, he refused to include the necessary amount in the budget, replying that the sentiment among "substantial" farmers was against it. He also intimated that no agent could expect to succeed in Polk county agent work under the restrictions imposed on him by the O. A. C. and gave this as the reason why farmer agent Larson resigned the office.

Mrs. M. Saere died in the Willamette Sanitarium Monday the second, following an operation for tumors. The body was taken direct to the Independence cemetery, where interment was made in the family lot, after a very simple ceremony attended by close friends and relatives. The Saeres have been residents of Monmouth nineteen years and were well known in the community. Besides her husband, Martin Saere, she leaves three sons, Albert Saere of Quincy, Or.; Edger J. Saere in service in France, and Guy Saere recently of the artillery school at Camp Taylor, Ky. The latter arrived home just in time for his mother's funeral.

Following the regular session of the Rebeekah lodge Thursday night a jolly party was held. Games and social conversation was the order of the evening.

Pop corn balls and apples were passed and everyone enjoyed the evening immensely.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Patton arrived Friday evening from Britannia, B. C. Canada, where they have been "honey-mooning" for the past two weeks. Mrs. Patton, before her marriage a few weeks ago, was known as Edith Parker. Mr. Patton is a mining engineer, employed in the mines at Britannia where he is also the company physician. The couple have been there and will leave within a few days, taking her two little boys with them. Mrs. Stout, mother of Mrs. Patton, will visit for a time in California after which she will make her home with the Pattons in Canada.

Among other guests of the soldiers of the S. P. D. at Vancouver barracks on Thanksgiving day was Daphne Ostrom and Esther Klug, a stenographer friend, both employed by the United Railway Express company of Portland. In a letter to home folks Daphne says: The mess hall was beautifully decorated with greenery and crepe paper, but what was most attractive was the grand dinner, the Thanksgiving feast, already set when our party arrived. The following was the menu: Green olives, radishes, celery, fruit salad, mayonnaise, young roast turkey a la Maryland, oyster dressing, giblet gravy, cranberry sauce, mashed potatoes creamed, sweet potatoes, canned peas, buttered asparagus, mince and pumpkin pie, ice cream, nut chocolate cake, bananas, apples, nuts, raisins, dates, candy, oranges, bread and butter, coffee, cider, milk, cigars and cigarettes. This should certainly have been a great sufficiency and a variety to please the most fastidious.

Germans Would Discuss Matters With Wilson

London, Dec. 10.—(British Admiralty wireless).—The Basle National Zeitung says: "Unfortunately, the people on the side of Germany are still, as before employing the old methods of incitement and false insinuation, except that now a note of complaint over 'injustice' is mingled with them. Berlin wishes, as before, to divert the wrath of the German people to the enemy and is behaving in the midst of the revolution exactly as in the time of Ledendorff. Whether it be the order of the Red Eagle or the Red Flag, it is still all the same to Wolff and it appears to be one of the merits of the meritorious Kaiser that he pointed out this nest of intrigues and agitators."
