GOVERNOR APPEALS TO RESPOND TO RED CROSS

Is Still Great Work To Perform And Funds Must Be Provided.

"While we are still standing in the retreating shadow of the most terrible war that has ever been visited upon the world," said Governor Withycombe in an appeal issued yesterday afternoon. "another Red Cross Christmas roll call is being counted and I sincerely trust that every man and woman in all Oregon will respond with the same spirit of cheerfulness and generosity that has characterized this state and its people in every test of patriotism.
"Oregon has never failed and now at the season of the year when the spirit of giving is dominant and when our minds are fresh with the glorious and achievements of the honored soldiers and sailors I feel confident that the people of Oregon will unanimously sustain the hands of the Red Cross workers who have exerted such helpful and humane influences during the war and who still have a most important and timely mission. Let us mobilize every heart and every purse, thus joining unitedly in the glad privilege of giving a Christmas present to humanity."

DEATHS AT HUBBARD

After one week of illness Orville Dunn passed away at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Dunn, Monday, December 9, at 1:15 of the influenza. Mrs. Stella Pitts of Portland, a sister could not come to the funeral on account of sickness. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dunn arrived Sunday from Tahama, California.
Short funeral services were held at the cemetery Wednesday afternoon at 1:30 conducted by Rev. H. O. Cooper. Both parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dunn, had been ill prior to Orville's last illness and Opal, the youngest member of the family, is now recovering from an attack of influenza.
Orville Henry Dunn was born in Neosho county, Kans., April 4, 1898, and died at this home at Hubbard, Ore., December 9, 1918, at the age of 20 years eight months and five days. He lived in Kansas until five years ago when with his parents he came to Hubbard to make his home.
Dora Violet Mishler.
Wednesday morning at 10:30 Dora Mishler passed to the great beyond at the home of her sister, Mrs. Charles Kinzer, after about ten days' sickness of influenza. Services will be held at the Kinzer residence, Friday at 1 p. m. and at the Hubbard cemetery at 1:30 conducted by ministers of the Associate congregations.
Deceased was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Mishler of east of Hubbard, spending much of the past three years with her sister, Mrs. Kinzer. Dora was a favorite with the young people of her acquaintance and her death is deeply mourned. She passed her eighteenth birthday April 24th last.
She had been employed the past several months in the local telephone office and was always accommodating to the patrons. The family has the deep sympathy of the community.

Sad News from Overseas.
Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Troutt received a message Tuesday morning from "somewhere in France" stating that their son, Nicholas, had died of diphtheria on the 30th of November. Mr. and Mrs. Troutt are advanced in years and the blow fell heavily upon them. All of us sympathize with them. When death enters the home in the presence of loved ones, the experience demands all our fortitude, but if such cases as this—and there are many similar messages coming to American homes—the pain of it is indeed hard to bear. Mr. Troutt is looking forward to the time when a memorial service may be held.

AN EXPLANATION

"The continued large number of influenza cases are due to the recent damp days which are conducive to colds," explained a city health officer the other day in an interview with a reporter from the paper. PUIROLA Influenza Tablets have been found by experience of many to be a good preventive of complications, if taken when a cold first starts. They can do you absolutely no harm and are a wise precaution in any household; 50c for a box of 30 tablets—complete treatment—at your druggist.

State House Notes

When three attendants from the Oregon states hospital went to Lewisville, Polk county, yesterday to get Phy Ward and return him to the hospital, Ward saw them coming and made his escape by swimming the Luckiamute river. He was taken into custody this morning, however, by Sheriff Orr of Dallas and was brought to the state hospital. He has been a patient at the hospital at different periods for a number of years, but for the last two years had been living with his mother at Lewisville.
After delivering an address in Portland yesterday before the delegates assembled for the purpose of organizing a state chamber of commerce, State Engineer Percy A. Cupper left last night for Boise, Ida., to complete the contract being entered into by the state and the Jordan Valley land & Water company for the reclamation of 30,000 acres of land in Malheur county.

While Mr. Cupper is also scheduled to give an address before a drainage conference at Ontario. On his way home he will stop at Prineville, in relation to irrigation matters.
