To represent the teachers of Marion county in the state convention to be held next week in Portland, at the teachers' convention held last Saturday the following delegates were elected: Miss Jessie U. Cox, of the Salem high school, H. S. Dunlap, principal of the Washington junior high school of Salem, Miss Emma Ristow of Mr. McGroves, Superintendent Youell of Silverton and W. J. Mishler of Woodburn.

It is the little things that count. In the office of the county recorder at the court house there has been for the past year or so a small wooden box on the counter, with the printed invitation to contribute to the Red Cross. Yesterday Mrs. Mildred Brooks handed the box to the Red Cross and the pennies and nickels and dimes figured up $8.50 for the good cause.

I have moved my office, into more pleasant and more commodious quarters on the third floor of the U. S. National bank building, Dr. O. L. Scott Chiropractic-Spinalist, 309-213 U. S. National bank bldg.

Up to 10 o'clock this morning the sum of $3137.79 had been received from the Red Cross membership campaign in Marion county. As there is supposed to be about 10,000 who have been members, there is a feeling that membership are not coming in quite as fast as they should if the county is to raise its quota.

All day yesterday and today there has been a long line of people waiting at the stamp window of the post office sending packages. Postmaster Hucks says that packages are moving earlier this year than last. He also gives the warning that unless packages and letters for the east are mailed within a day or so, they will arrive about New Years instead of Christmas.

Build up Salem's industries by supporting those on the ground.

Bedgwick Post No. 10, G. A. R. at its last regular meeting elected the following officers for 1919: F. A. Thompson, commander; J. M. Watson, senior vice commander; Henry Pascoe, junior vice commander; Dr. D. F. Lane, surgeon; Rev. James Lisle, chaplain; E. Stolz, quartermaster; C. A. Houston, patriotic instructor; E. L. Briggs, officer of the day; D. M. Wilson, outside guard.

The Rev. F. J. Porter has accepted a call from the Lincoln Park Christian church of Tacoma and will assume his duties at once. Mrs. Porter will join him within a few days.

C. E. Knowland, chairman of the Christmas cheer committee of the Cherrians, says that the children will be remembered as usual this year and that he has appointed a committee that will carry on the work. With Mr. Knowland and Watt Ship, the following have been assigned the pleasure of carrying for the youngsters: E. A. Kurtz, Oliver J. Meyers, B. O. Snelling, Lester Davis, Elmo White, D. M. Miles, L. W. Gleason, Sam A. Koser, B. W. Macy and Walter Winslow

At the meeting last evening of those interested in the organization of a second Oregon National guard company the opinion was expressed that Salem was large enough for two full sized companies, especially as it is generally felt that within a few months the Oregon guard companies of Salem will be mustered out. No definite action was taken as the meeting was for a general expression of opinion. However, it is felt that Salem will have a second company and to go more definitely into details, another meeting will be held at the armory next Monday evening.

Another worker for the Red Cross is wanted by Mrs. John A. Carson. It seems that for some reason, those assigned to solicit for Red Cross membership in that part of the city from the Garden road north to the city limits and from Capital street east to the city limits did not show up nor have they yet reported. Hence Mrs. Carson wants volunteers to take up the Red Cross work in that section of the city. Those willing to help might telephone Mrs. Carson at 95.

country need, yet it is of an open mind and is quite willing to receive suggestions. In fact, it is barely possible that the Marion county delegation will hold several meetings just to learn definitely what the people of the county want in the way of new legislation. The tomorrow evening is the first and women as well as men are invited to take part in offering suggestions.

The total value of assessed property in Marion county is $42,876,441, as shown by the books of Ben F. West, county assessor and by the public utilities properties for which the state tax commission places valuations. This is an increase of $831,410 over the valuation for 1917. Last year the corporation roll was $42,111,861, while this year it is $42,943,271. The corporations in Marion county are thus taxed more than one year ago, the balance of the increase being from the local tax roll.

Thursday evening of this week is entertainment evening for members of the Elks lodge and already it is announced there will be several initiations and a luncheon served to top the evening's pleasure.
