

SCHOOL-DAY STRAIN

A parent troubled over a child or a fast-growing youth, could do no better than to utilize the definite help that affords as a strengthening and nourishing factor. A very little of Scott's every day, during a time of stress, furnishes elements of nourishment essential to the blood and tends to confirm a growing child in robustness. For your boy or girl, you will not be satisfied with anything short of Scott's.

SOCIETY

By CAROL S. DEBBLE

Mrs. G. W. Laflar was hostess yesterday afternoon for the P. E. O., which met at her residence on South Liberty street for the regular fortnightly meeting of the Sisterhood. The program was a varied one, each member contributing to a general discussion of Current Events with a report on some timely topic. Red Cross sewing also occupied the attention of the members a part of the afternoon. Later a dainty luncheon was served by the hostess, Mrs. William McGilchrist, Sr., will entertain the P. E. O. next time.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Park, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Lee Patterson and Percy Collier, motored down to Portland yesterday for a combined business and shopping trip, returning last evening.

Mrs. E. T. Judd returned yesterday from a three week's sojourn in Astoria where she was the guest of her son, E. C. Judd, an attorney in Astoria. Another son, George F. Judd, is expected to arrive in Salem this week from Los Angeles, California, to pass the holidays with his parents. Mr. Judd has just received his discharge from the service, having been stationed at Camp Hancock, Virginia. His brother at Astoria will also spend Christmas in Salem at the family home on South 22nd street.

fully entertained Wednesday afternoon by Mrs. Charles S. Weller and Mrs. Perry W. Raymond at Mrs. Weller's residence on Cremeketa street. Seasonable decorations afforded a festive background for the gathering. The pleasantness of the afternoon concluded enjoyably with the refreshment hour.

Additional guests numbered Mrs. Edward Weller, Mrs. S. E. Hulst, Mrs. A. N. Moores, Mrs. Robert Kinney of Astoria, Mrs. T. S. Anderson and Miss Mary Chadwick.

Miss Margaret White, who has been quite ill the past week, is now convalescing satisfactorily at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph White, 291 South Church.

Mrs. Frank S. Francis has been joined over the holidays by her husband, who has just been released from the naval service. Mr. Francis was stationed at Pensacola, Florida. He leaves December 30 for Drain, where he has accepted a position in the Drain high school. Before his enlistment Mr. Francis was principal of the Bend high school. During her husband's absence, Mrs. Francis has taught in the Lincoln school, making her home with Mrs. A. A. Lee at the Lee residence on State street.

Mrs. Irwin of 451 North 19th street has returned to Salem after a several months' visit with her daughter, Mrs. Paul Valerius, of Bellingham, Washington. Mrs. Irwin also visited in Vancouver, B. C., and on her return trip, stopped off at Vancouver, Washington, where she was the guest of her daughter, Mrs. William Waick.

The members of the Artisan lodge held their regular meeting last night at the I. O. O. F. hall. The business session culminated enjoyably with a social hour, a large Christmas tree being the prominent feature of the festivities. A collection of mirth provoking and comical presents were exchanged between the members, productive of much gay diversion during the remainder of the evening.

Santa Claus was impersonated by A. A. Guelfroy, who assisted in the distribution of the handsome gifts, found on the Christmas tree for the members of the drill team and lodge officers, as a token of remembrance from Mrs. G. E. Terwilliger, master Artisan of the lodge the past year, who is to be succeeded the coming year by Glen Niles.

Mr. and Mrs. Willis E. Jarvis of Worcester, Ohio, are visiting Dr. and Mrs. T. G. Altman. Mr. Jarvis is Mrs. Altman's brother and this is their first visit to the coast.

Construction Held Up. When shippard officials began to disentangle the freight congestion they found little of the material they needed at once could be had. Construction of the ways and of the yard proper, thus was delayed for weeks, according to the report.

Elaborating further, the charges of mismanagement, the report says: "Having failed to make adequate progress during the first twelve weeks, when the weather was good, the corporation sought to make up for lost time by jamming the work through six or seven weeks of unusual cold when it was impossible to make progress commensurate with the effort or expense, often trying to work night shifts, overtime and holidays at enormous increase in pay rolls to do work that could be done in a fraction of the time in proper construction weather. Much of this work could have been postponed without detriment to the program as a whole.

Equipment Held Idle. "Large quantities of construction and floating equipment were brought to the island held idle during seven weeks at a monthly rental of five per cent.

"Effort at speed under such impossible conditions resulted in abandonment of most forms of dredging and machine digging, forcing the substitution of hand picking and shoveling, often accompanied by blasting or thawing frozen ground, and involved a sudden and horizontal increase again in the number of laborers, needed without adequate time to build up the supervising force."

Amplifying their charges that tremendous increases in salaries were authorized out of the government funds, the investigators reported that 37 em-
