Company M To Give Informal Military Ball Christmas Eve

An informal military ball to be given by Company M, Oregon National Guard is announced for Christmas eve. The event will be military in character and it is the desire of the promoters that every one who has at any time served the country shall attend in uniform.

Announcement is made that no expense will be spared in the matter of music and decorations. The orchestra will consist of seven pieces.

The executive committee in charge of the ball includes Capt. Leroy Hewlett and Lieutenants Schultz and Rice. Chairman for the other committees are as follows: Invitations, Captain Hewlett; printing and program, Lieutenant George Schultz; finance and auditing, Lieutenant Glen L. Rice; music and decorations, Sergeant Dan W. Miles; publicity, Sergeant B. W. Macy; refreshments, Sergeant J. E. Wright and Sergeant J. Fred Day.

The ball is given for the purpose of securing funds for the company as none are coming from the state.

Youth Not Excited Over Accident To Bicycle

There is one messenger boy who is already a philosopher.

This morning his bicycle was at its usual place on the curbing, in front of the Western Union office. About that time a man in a Buick happened to have need for some space for parking his car and regardless of the bicycle, backed the car into the wheel. Then stepping out of his car he came around to the bicycle, gave it a kick and then got into his car and drove off.

"Oh, well," remarked the messenger, "that will cost me about $4.00 for repairs." The license number on the auto that backed into the boy's wheel is 7170 and the records of the office of the secretary of state, automobile department show that the car carries a license in the name of a Mr. Basey living on South Capital street.

Lieutenant Kenneth Moores is home from Texas for the holidays. He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Moores and brother of Lieutenant Ralph D. Moores. Lieutenant Moores had just passed all his examinations to go into active service in the flying corps in France when the armistice was signed. He enlisted shortly after war was declared while attending the University of Oregon. GARD OF THANKS We desire to express our thanks to the Masonic lodge, Typographical union, the Capital Journal and to our many friends, for their sympathy, assistance, and the beautiful floral offerings, at the burial of our husband and father.—Mrs. J. H. Cradlebaugh, Miss M. I. Downing. Mrs. Jennie Roberts of 845 Marion street received the sad news this morning of the death of her sister, Mrs. Phoebe Cook, of Buffalo, Wyo. Mrs. Cook has a number of friends in the city having visited here during the past summer. She was so impressed with the city that it was her intention to visit here during the holidays and remain here permanently. Dance at Turner postponed on account of the flu. When nourishing diet is required use Horlick's the original Malted Milk. Peder Martin Nilson has decided to become a citizen of the United States, having lived here for the past 11 years without the privilege of voting. Yesterday he filed his declaration of intention, and the beautiful floral offerings, at the burial of our husband and father.—Mrs. J. H. Cradlebaugh, Miss M. I. Downing. With an attendance of something over 500 at the Salem high school, the commercial department enrolls for its work 375 and this number will be augmented after the first of the year when several young men will return from the S. A. T. C. and continue their studies. That the commercial department is meeting the needs of the times is evidenced by the fact that this year the enrollment compared to the number of students attending the school, is larger in proportion than any previous year. B. G. Greene, who lives on the Ironton fruit farms six miles southwest of Salem, is of the opinion that strawberries will grow almost the entire year in this part of the Willamette valley. Today he was exhibiting several plants showing ripened berries and then again blossoms on the same vine, with berries partly developed. They are of the Wilson variety. London, Dec. 21.—When President Wilson comes to England he will land at Dover, the Evening News stated today. MORLEY—To Mr. and Mrs. Lane A. Morley, 1390 South Twelfth street, Dec. 20, 1918, a son. mounted after the first of the year when several young men will return from the S. A. T. C. and continue their studies. That the commercial department is meeting the needs of the times is evidenced by the fact that this year the enrollment compared to the number of students attending the school, is larger in proportion than any previous year.
