The long line of waiters before the stamp window of the postoffice this morning and the one almost all day Saturday indicates pretty well that the great majority of packages are not mailed until the last few days. Another evidence of the great Christmas giving this year is the fact that many who were standing in line had from half a dozen to a dozen or more packages to be weighed and postage estimated.

The Marion county bar association, at a meeting held last week recommended that the supreme court be given authority to send circuit judges to any part of the state to relieve congested conditions. It also recommended that the supreme court be given authority to call in three circuit judges to assist at times the work of the supreme court. At the meeting of the state bar in Payland Saturday, the first suggestion was adopted but the state association turned down the second. Judge George G. Bingham was elected as a member of the state executive committee of the Oregon Bar association. Oscar Hayter of Dallas was elected president. 12-24
