By CAROL S. DIBBLE

ONE of the most captivating and originally planned juvenile parties of the holiday season was the annual Christmas entertainment given yesterday afternoon by Miss Beatrice Shelton for her younger piano pupils at the Y. W. C. A. rooms. The festivities of the afternoon were initiated with a Yuletide feast for the assemblage of small guests, a Christmas motif being elaborately carried out in the table decorations and refreshments. The crowning touch from the point of view of the little folk was the array of seven miniature Christmas trees in all their sparkling luster.

Immediately following the festive banquet, the entrance of Omr. and Mrs. San to Claus" (Kenneth Allen and Caroline Lambrith) afforded much merriment for the goodly company of small spectators. The actual appearance of Santa Claus brought genuine joy into the heart of one youngster, who had written his particular Santa Claus, now ever in France to be sure to visit him Christmas, and had received a reply stating that Santa Claus would be detained across seas this year. So when the distinctive Santa Claus of yesterday announced that he had decided to come to Salem after all, there was much rejoicing among his wee proteges. And his audience was entirely satisfied with the apologetic explanation that he could not come down the chimney because of the "flu!"

Then followed his liberal distribution of gifts and candy novelties, after which he called for a program. A miscellany of Christmas songs, carols and readings were accordingly given for the pleasure of his Yuletide honor guest, Miss Bedford assisting at the piano. Before his departure Santa Claus asked the young merry makers to share their Christmas pleasure with a host of less fortunate children. Thereupon each guest dropped his mite into a collection box, which as a result held a sum of $2.50, to be turned over to the coffers of the Salvation Army.

The rooms were beautifully decorated with Christmas greenery and presented a festive background for the holiday frolic. Those in charge of the arrangements and general program were, Miss Flora Fletcher, Miss Esther Miller, Miss Bertha Vick, Miss Elva Amsler, Miss Ruth Bedford, Miss Genevieve Yankeek, Miss Grace Fawc, Miss Laura Arons, Miss Genevieve Endicot.

The small guests, who to the number of 25 rumped through an afternoon of Merriment and joyous diversion were: Elaine Foster, Dorella Anderson, Loraine Fletcher, Winifred Ganble, Velstida Olsner, Bernice Mueve, Louise Herren, Truth and Rose Huston, Darrell Myers, Maximo Myers, Kenneth Allen, Caroline Lambrith, Pauline Johnson, Ruth Buckner, Leola Medler, Margaret Bunnenger, Catherine Mulhey, Dorothy Bell, Gladys Larmer, Bertha Babcock, Rollin Graber, Francis Mappes, Carl Newton, Jeannette Sykes, Eleanor Schmidt, Edith May Jouks, Dorothy Levisky.

Miss Mabel Robertson will be a delightful holiday hostess tonight and tomorrow entertaining a few friends informally at a small house party at her home on Center street. Bidden for the Christmas eve festivities are Miss Florence Cleveland, Miss Edna Sterling and Miss Beatrice Hale. This coterie of guests will be joined tomorrow at the Robertson home by Dr. and Mrs. C. H. Robertson and son, Charles, and Lieutenant Quincy Hale, who will further share the Christmas hospitality of Miss Robertson at an enjoyable dinner party.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis H. Tarpley of Portland will be Christmas day guests of Mr. Tarpley's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Tarpley at their home on North Liberty street. They arrived in Salem this afternoon.

Clyde B. Clancy will leave tonight for Tacoma, where he will spend Christmas with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Clancy.

The majority of the Willamette girls staying at Dew Drop Inn have either gone home over the holidays or are visiting friends out of town. Among those who have already left for their various destinations are Miss Ruth Austen, who has gone to St. Helens; Miss Hattie Nash, Drayn, Oregon; Miss Leola Ruby, Portland; Miss Ella Anderson, Grants Pass; Miss Fay McKinnis, La Grande; Miss Mildred Stevens, Spokane; Miss Genevieve Sievy, Milton, Oregon; Miss Esther Yend, Walla Walla, Washington; Miss Laura Rogula, Vancouver.

Miss Beatrice Shelton will pass Christmas day in Portland as the guest of Miss Minnetta Magers, going up this evening.

President and Mrs. J. H. Ackerman of Monmouth college are spending the holiday week with their daughter, Mrs. R. F. Carteton.

Lieutenant Quincy Hale, who has been attending the balloon school at Alcatraz, California, is passing the week in Salem as the guest of his sister, Miss Beatrice Hale. He is en route to his home in Spring Valley, Minn. solo.

The Daughters of the American Revolution will hold their December meeting Saturday afternoon at the home of Mrs. E. G. Shipley, 245 North Third street. The session will be a business one for the most part, plans being laid for the meeting of the state board of the Daughters of the American Revolution, who will assemble in Salem next month, probably the second Saturday in January. The members of Chamokota chapter will gather promptly at 2:30 Saturday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. George F. Chambers of Portland, will be Christmas day guests of Mrs. Chambers' parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Stausloff, sharing in the family reunion annually enjoyed by the Stausloff family at this season of the year. Claude Stausloff, a son of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Stausloff, is stationed at Quantico, Virginia, with the marine corps. He will pass his holiday Yuletide in New York city. He plans to return to Salem in February.

Oregon friends and the music world at large are mourning the loss of Tom Dobson of Portland, Oregon music star, who recently fell a victim to pneumonia at his home in New York. Mr. Dobson was a brother of Mrs. John Logan of Portland and though residing in the east the greater part of the time was well known in Portland, frequently passing his summers on the coast. As a close friend of Ford Tarpley of Portland, Mr. Dobson occasionally accompanied the former to Salem, when Mr. Tarpley visited here as the guest of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry C. Tarpley of 739 North Liberty street.

Expressions of sorrow from friends in the east are beginning to arrive in Oregon. Notable among which is a tribute of affectionate appreciation from the pen of Kate Douglas Wiggin, the novelist, written for the New York Sun. She says in part:

"Tom Dobson is dead. As I write, the quaint boyish name that never completely defined or expressed him—oh, it seems impossible that only a week ago he made his little part of the world vibrant with his unique personality. Tom Dobson's sense of humor was of an exquisite sort that belonged to him alone. There was the most delicious humor in his face, in his voice, in his fingers. One laughed with him whole heartedly; but in another instant one found that all this merriment was but the upper current of a deeper sea. A few chords, a change of theme, and he made mirth seem cheap and obvious, while he touched the hearts of his hearers, and made their eyes moist with unshed tears. In the first rank, though never crowded, must always include half a hundred names or more, and Tom Dobson must always have a place all his own. There he is, and there he will forever be, enshrined in the hearts of his loyal friends and admirers. It is such as he who are passionately mourned and never replaced."

The Best Cough Syrup Is Home-made

Here's an easy way to save $1, and yet have the best cough remedy you ever tried.

You're probably heard of this well-known plan of making cough syrup at home. But have you ever used it? When you do, you will understand why thousands of families, the world over, feel that they could hardly keep homes without it. It's simple and cheap, but the way it takes hold of a cough will quickly earn it a permanent place in your home.

Into a pint bottle, pour 2½ ounces of Pinex; then add plain granulated sugar syrup to fill up the pint. Or, if desired, use clarified molasses, honey, or corn syrup, instead of sugar syrup. Either way, it tastes good, never spoils, and gives you a full pint of better cough remedy than you could buy ready-made for three times its cost.

It is really wonderful how quickly this home-made remedy conquers a cough—usually in 24 hours or less. It seems to penetrate through every air passage, loosens a dry, hoarse or tight cough, lifts the phlegm, heals the membranes, and gives almost immediate relief. Splendid for throat tickle, hoarseness, croup, bronchitis and bronchial asthma.

Pinex is a highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, and has been used for generations for throat and chest ailments.

Avoid disappointment by asking your druggist for "2½ ounces of Pinex" with full directions, and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money promptly refunded. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

MERRY CHRISTMAS IN

As for presents—perhaps the less said about them the better.

Mrs. Kim on Christmas night will give a "spread" for her youngest daughter, Margaret, who will be just two years old. The spread will come from the Salvation Army basket and in addition there are four oranges a stranger left at the tenement today.

But why so happy?
"Because I've got my nine children, every one of 'em," said Mrs. Kirsch. "The doctor said Tony was going to die yesterday, and here he is looking pretty well. The good God helps us out. I was making paper flowers and all the little ones were helping me, but I had to quit because my eyes were bad, and I was only getting fifty cents a thousand anyhow, and it took two days to make that money. And here is a new job right at Christmas time, ironing for each piece 1 iron. May be I can make 35 cents a day that way when I'm feeling right."

"Things are looking better for us than they have for a long time and I don't think even one of the children will be hungry tomorrow. We'll have some Christmas."

And Bella smiled broadly in anticipation as she pinned another rag about the baby, for it was getting cold.

The appropriation has become exhausted before all the claims for bounties have been paid.

Influenza Situation Unchanged At Monmouth

(Capital Journal Special Service.) Monmouth, Dec. 24.—The influenza situation in Monmouth is about the same as that last week; the six cases at the Dormitory are improving at this time but have been quite severe for the past few days. Dean Todd is giving the girls her personal attention, she and Assistant Dean Lewis caring for them personally as they have been unable to secure the services of a trained nurse. Two of the girls' mothers arrived Sunday evening and will probably remain until their daughters are out of danger. Miss Todd says none of the girls will be out by Xmas, so she has given no contemplated trip to Portland to spend the holidays. There are no other cases of flu in the city.

President Ackerman will spend a part of the three weeks vacation visiting and inspecting the work going on in the three rural centers and will also visit the capital city and the metropolis in the interest of the normal school. Professors Gentle, Buller and Gilmore will remain in Monmouth. Miss Taylor will spend Xmas with her people in Tacoma, Miss Madabaugh in Creswell, Miss Parrot in Roseburg, Miss Arbuthnot and Miss Williams in Independence, Miss Hous in Walla Walla, Miss Chase in Seattle, Miss Smith in Eugene, Miss Schuetz, Miss Anderson, Miss McIntosh and Miss Lewis will spend part of the time in Portland and the remainder just resting and relaxing at home in Monmouth. Mrs. Curran, Miss Bramberg and Miss Durham will also visit Portland, and Miss De-Yore will spend the greater part of her time with her family in Oakland.

All of Monmouth's S. A. T. C. boys have received their discharge and have returned home in time for the holidays.

Senator S. B. Houston was a recent chapel speaker, taking for his subject "Some problems that will be discussed around the peace table." The special problems discussed by the speaker were, shall Germany have delegates at this conference? What indemnity should be exacted? Shall we have freedom of the seas and what is a league of nations? The senator announced that he was opposed to Germany being allowed representation; also that he was not in favor of freedom of the seas providing it carried with it the privilege of blockade in time of war.

No personal solicitation for Red Cross membership renewals is being made at this time, the many are coming in voluntarily and signing the Christmas roll. The training school has already gone over the top with a membership of 100 percent.

Graham & Son, local garage people, have been awarded the contract for carrying the mail between Monmouth and Independence, for three years beginning Jan. 1. Postal Inspector Clement has interested himself in the condition of the road between the two points and prospects indicate that this road will be paved during the coming summer.

The Commercial club is credited with having had road signs placed at proper points in the city and at intersecting country roads which lead into Monmouth.

Municipal gardens which occupied only three vacant lot spaces, have noted the next sum of $252 for the two years of the war. Potatoes, beans and wheat were the principal crops raised.

The Monmouth hotel has again changed hands, the new proprietor having already taken possession. The deal was closed last week, being engineered by W. D. Newton of the Oregon and Dakota Land Co. By the deal, Mr. Dunny, who has owned the property since last spring, takes over a farm at Lexington. The new owner promises he will give the city a first class hotel.
