IN UPRISING REBELS DEMAND CHANCELLOR EBERT'S RESIGNATION

Both Sides Claim Victory And Government Says Revolt Is Crushed.

Copenhagen, Dec. 26.—Troops and civilians are joining the revolting sailors in Berlin, according to a dispatch from the German capital received here today. The dispatch, sent Christmas night, said the government's position was becoming more dangerous.

(The last dispatch from Frank J. Taylor, United Press correspondent in Berlin was filed Christmas morning. It said both sides were claiming victory and that the government had announced officially that the revolt was crushed.)

The Alexander and Franzer regiments have mutinied and joined the rebels. Leaders of the revolutionists said the whole Berlin garrison would soon join. Mariners from Kiel and Wilhelmshaven are reported en route to Berlin to help the revolting soldiers.

100 Already Killed. It is believed, according to Berlin advices that nearly 100 have already been killed in the street fighting. Vorwaerts said that a number of Berlin guards and a few republican guards, as well as many armed civilians and Spartacists are joining the sailors.

Rebels, say the Berlin dispatches, hold the streets and houses from Koenigsstrasse to the city hall. They are demanding the resignation of Chancellor Ebert and Haase in favor of Ledebour and Liebknecht radical leaders.

The newspapers Red Flag claims a victory for the revolutionists. Vorwaerts charges the uprising was due to efforts of Liebknecht and Ledebour, radical leaders.

It is officially claimed that the quick suppression of this conspiracy has convinced the sailors they are powerless to cause further trouble and that they have pledged themselves not to oppose the government again.

Sailors at Kiel sent a message criticizing the rebels and supporting the government.

Considerable destruction. Details of the rioting received here tell of considerable destruction in the course of a hard fight.

The sailors arrived in Berlin at 7 p. m. Monday. The commander of Berlin and his adjutant and other authorities turned artillery on the sailors who were holding the royal palace and began an intense bombardment. The walls were shot full of holes and the great porches were destroyed. The balcony from which the kaiser made his famous speech at the beginning of the war was smashed and the windows were broken.

The government's republican guard finally captured the palace and the sailors then took refuge in a large building near by, which they are reported to be still holding.

Securities Market Has Moments Of Weakness

New York, Dec. 26.—The New York Evening Sun financial review today says:

While today's securities market had moments of weakness and was at all times heavy, pressure was not consistently exerted with the result that considerable rebounds from the lowest levels were in evidence at not infrequent intervals. From the outset the steel and copper groups experienced no little liquidation. Movements were mixed in the latest trading. The copper shares continued in better tone under the leadership of inspiration. General Electric turned weak, while American Hide and Leather preferred made a new high for the day. Cord Products refining developed strength, as did Mexican Petroleum and some others.

A boom for Charles M. Schwab for president was launched at a banquet of Chicago mechanics and plant superintendents at Chicago Sunday night.

FEW CENTS DESTROYS YOUR DANDRUFF AND STOPS FALLING HAIR

Save Your Hair! Make It Thick Wavy And Beautiful—Try This.

Thin, brittle, colorless and scraggy hair is mute evidence of a neglected scalp; of dandruff—that awful scourge. There is nothing so destructive to the hair as dandruff. It robs the hair of its lustre, its strength and its very life; eventually producing a feverishness and itching of the scalp, which if not remedied causes the hair roots to shrink, loosen and die—then the hair falls out fast. A little Danderine tonight—now—any time—will surely save your hair.

Get a small bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter, and after the first application your hair will take on that life, lustre and luxuriance which is so beautiful. It will become wavy and fluffy and have the appearance of abundance, an incomparable glow and softness; but what will please you most will be after just a few weeks' use, when you will actually see a lot of fine, downy hair—new hair—growing all over the scalp.

passed through doors curtained in scarlet velour, and thence to a court yard where the royal carriages stood under a long canopy, extending to the Strand.

On the Strand, the masses of people behind lines of British troops caught their first glimpse of the president. The route all the way to Buckingham palace was a mass of color, the red, white and blue of Britain and France predominating in the general scheme, and the red, white and green of Italy, and red, yellow and black of Belgium frequent. But the Stars and Stripes were everywhere.

Banners Everywhere. The great facade of the national museum was hidden by flags, banners, pennants and enormous gilded eagles and lions. Forces of decorators were busy all day Christmas and all last night. Christmas crowds and early arriving spectators were dodging stop-ladders. All along the two mile route from the railway station to the palace the way is lighted to blaze forth tonight.

Pall Mall and St. James streets are lined with famous clubs, the windows of which were filled with members and their wives. Crossing Haymarket, the carriage with the president and King George passed close by the statue of King George the Third.

The greatest color effect was at Hyde Park corner. Thousands of Waacs in khaki, Wrens in navy blue, convalescent sailors in light blue trimmed with red and white, and members of the royal force in sky blue, were massed on the park slopes.

Spoke Briefly After Landing. Dover, Eng., Dec. 26.—The war was worth while, because it gave the world security against unjust aggression and established an understanding between great nations for maintenance of just and right, President Wilson said here today.

Responding to an address by the mayor shortly after setting foot on English soil, the president also said he was grateful to match his mind with minds of others who proposed to do their best in the great settlement.

"We have gone through many serious times together, and therefore can regard each other in a new light, as comrades and associates, because nothing brings men together like common understanding and purpose," said Wilson.

War Worth While. "I think that despite all the terrible sufferings and sacrifices of the war, we will some day in looking backward, realize that they were worth while, not only because of the security they gave the world against unjust aggression, but also because of the understanding established between great nations which ought to act together in permanent maintenance of justice and right.

"It is with an emotion of peculiar gratification that I find myself here, afforded an opportunity of meeting my mind with the minds of those proposing to do their best in the great settlement of the struggle."

Weather Cold. The weather was cold and clear when the president landed. Escorting

The Quick Way to Stop a Cough

This home-made syrup does the work in a hurry. Easily prepared, and saves about $2.

You might be surprised to know that the best thing you can use for a severe cough, is a remedy which is easily prepared at home in just a few moments. It's cheap, but for prompt results it beats anything else you ever tried. Usually stops the ordinary cough or chest cold in 24 hours. Tastes pleasant, too—children like it—and it is pure and good.

Four 2 1/2 ounces of Pinex in a pint bottle; then fill it up with plain granulated sugar syrup. Or use clarified molasses, honey, or corn syrup, instead of sugar syrup, if desired. Thus you make a full pint—a family supply—but costing no more than a small bottle of ready-made cough syrup.

And as a cough medicine, there is really nothing better to be had at any price. It goes right to the spot and gives quick, lasting relief. It promptly heals the inflamed membranes that line the throat and air passages, stops the annoying throat tickle, loosens the phlegm, and soon your cough stops entirely. Splendid for bronchitis, croup, whooping cough and bronchial asthma.

Pinex is a highly concentrated compound of Norway pine extract, famous for its healing effect on the membranes. To avoid disappointment ask your druggist for "2 1/2 ounces of Pinex" with directions and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money promptly refunded. ## Letter From Victor Berger Read In Socialist Trial

Chicago, Dec. 26.—J. Louis Engdahl, editor of the American Socialist and one of the five defendants in the socialist trial here before Judge Landis, was to resume his testimony today.

Engdahl was to be questioned further on his denial that he had published a letter in his paper from James Harder of St. Paul, Minn., telling of having converted fellow prisoners in the St. Paul jail to socialism. Harder was serving a sentence for failure to register.

A letter from Victor Berger, Milwaukee congressman-elect and defendant, purported to show sympathy with I. W. W., stood in the evidence today. The letter, addressed to an I. W. W. secretary, read in part:

"I admit that I. W. W. has stood the test of being a class organization infinitely better than the trade unions."

Shipyards Strike Was Settled This Morning

Vancouver, B. C., Dec. 26.—The strike which tied up the big Coughlin shipyards for some days was settled this morning in a conference between representatives of the men and the company. Work will be resumed on Monday. Three thousand men have been idle for a week.

Henry Anderson, a blacksmith over whose discharge the strike occurred, will be reengaged by the company on the request of the Great War Veterans association executive, but will not be given his old job though he will be given employment at similar wages.

At Guerneville, Cal., Sunday, Miss Lucile Armstrong, a teacher, was resuscitated after nine hours apparent drowning. She was overwhelmed by a breaker, while swimming and carried out to sea.

slightly less cost than required for the new American merchant fleet, this discrepancy will be overcome later, Hurley said.

Before the president started for England he conferred with Hurley. It is believed this conference developed information which the president desired to have ready before his meetings with British statesmen in London. It was pointed out that a big ship shortage will not be felt for six or eight months yet. Thereafter shipbuilding will naturally be much increased.

Dallas Soldier Seeks Release From Service

(Capital Journal Special Service.) Dallas, Or., Dec. 26.—Corporal Chas. Davis of this city, who is stationed at Fort Douglas, is seeking to be released from further army service according to word received by relatives of the young man in this city. Davis claims that his presence is needed in Dallas where his wife resides on account of her health and that he is also needed to cultivate and take care of farm property belonging to Mrs. George Cutler, mother of Mrs. Davis. The American Red Cross organization at Fort Douglas is working in Davis' behalf and the chances are that his release will be secured within a short time.

Polk Short in War Savings Stamps.

Polk county is still short in its war savings stamp drive and unless a more strenuous effort is made between now and the first of the year the quota will not be raised. The epidemic of Spanish influenza has had a whole lot to do with cutting down the sale of stamps in Dallas as well as in the country surrounding, a noticeable decrease having been noticed at the postoffices within the past month. About 12 per cent of the total quota for the county still remains unsold.

School Officers' Meeting Postponed.

On account of the influenza epidemic the annual convention and election of officers of the Polk County School Officers association was again postponed from last Saturday until a more favorable time. School Supervisor Floyd Moore, who has been dangerously ill of influenza and pneumonia for the past two weeks, is rapidly recovering but a number of the other officers throughout the county are either ill with the disease or some member of the family is sick.

Influenza Victim's Body Cremated.

The body of Sanford B. Taylor, the prominent surveyor and civil engineer, who died in this city a week ago following an attack of influenza and pneumonia, was taken to Portland yesterday for cremation. A short private funeral service was held in this city before the body was shipped to the metropolis. Mrs. Taylor and other members of the family who were ill with the disease when Mr. Taylor died are now able to be about.

Prominent Dallas Attorney Honored.

Oscar Hayer, one of the city's prominent attorneys, was honored by the State Bar association in convention in Portland Saturday by being elected president of that body for the ensuing year. Circuit Judge Harry H. Belt of this city was elected as one of the vice presidents of the association.
