In the circuit court of Multnomah county a divorce suit was filed yesterday by Mabel White of Salem in which she charges Clifford T. White of this city with cruelty and infidelity. She alleges that he has spent much of his time the past year in the company of other women. She wants the custody of two children and $60 a month alimony. They were married in 1904.

Salem bread supports Salem's payroll and in turn the asks the support of Salem people.

You should buy Salem bread only if there is a reason.

Marion county representatives and senators received a visit yesterday from a man who claimed to represent the Northwest Tourist association for which Oregon voted $25,000 at the last legislature and British Columbia coming in for its share. The money was to be spent for advertising the northwest from the standpoint of the tourist. It is probable that members of the 1919 legislature will require a careful and definite accounting of what was done with the former appropriation before voting more money to bring tourists to the northwest.
