Attempt To Stave Off Sumpter Railroad Strike

In an effort to head off a threatened strike on the Sumpter Valley railroad and to keep that road from going bank * and to keep that road from going bankrupt. Public Service Commissioner Corey last night sent a telegraphic appeal to C. A. Prouty, director of public service and accounting of the government railway administration.

Commissioner Corey points out that the rates on the road have been inereased until they will stand no further advance and still permit the shipment of frieght, as the cost would be too great. His idea, although not expressed in the telegram, is that joint pressed in the telegram, is that joint rates should be established over the Sumpter Valley and O. W. R. & N., on a basis which would require the latter road to assume some of the cost of operating the Sumpter Valley, as he says the Sumpter Valley road is of very great benefit to the O. W. R. & N. as a feeder road. His telegram to Judge
