Two Great Events in War Happened At Harwich

Harwich, England, Dec. 12. (By mail).--Harwich, the port to which the German submarines came to surrender, will be remembered by the English as the port firing the first British shot of the war.

At 8 o'clock the morning of Aug. 5, 1914, four hours after England declared war, the Harwich forces under Admiral Tyrwhitt put out into the North Sea. By 5 they had sunk the German midget submarine, Koenigin Luise.

NEURALGIC PAINS

Five Way to Soothing Hamlin's Wizard Oil

Hamlin's Wizard Oil is a safe and effective treatment for headache and neuralgia. Rubbed in where the pain is, it acts as a tonic to the tortured nerves and almost invariably brings quick relief.

Its healing, antiseptic qualities can always be relied upon to prevent infection, or other serious results, from sprains, bruises, cuts, burns, bites and stings. Just as good, too, for sore feet, stiff neck, frost bites, cold sores and canker sores.

Get it from druggists for 30 cents. If not satisfied return the bottle and get your money back.

Ever constipated or have sick headache? Just try Wizard Liver Wipes, pleasant little pink pills, 30 cents. Guaranteed.
