By CAROL S. DIBBLE

A most worthy enterprise has been undertaken by the Home Economics department of the Salem Woman's club to alleviate the hardships and distress among the Salem households, where every member of the family is stricken with influenza and outside help is unobtainable. On account of the lack of nurses and assistance in general, the committee and its sub-committees will make an effort to prepare food for the families thus afflicted. The North Salem club will work in conjunction with the Salem club, the former assuming charge of the north end of the city and the latter covering the district south of Market street.

The part of Salem apportioned to the Salem club has been divided into ten districts, each district to be under the supervision of a chairman, whose duties include the canvassing of the district to ascertain what families are entirely without help of any kind. In such cases where all members of the home are incapacitated because of sickness, the chairman and her committee will make arrangements for the immediate neighbors to supply the patients with food until one of the household is sufficiently recovered to take care of the remainder, or other assistance can be procured.

The main committee in the Salem Woman's club of which Mrs. W. M. Hamilton is chairman includes: Mrs. W. E. Anderson, Mrs. R. E. Goodin, Mrs. M. O. Buren, Mrs. F. E. Purvine and Mrs. Rose Chamberlain. The North Salem Woman's club under the direction of the president, Mrs. F. N.

Toothaker, will follow the same working plan in the northern division of the town.

Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Cooksey left the latter part of last week for McMinnville, where they plan to pass the winter. In the spring they will go east to join their daughter, Mrs. Richard Lacy (Carrie Cooksey), at her home in Kansas, Illinois. The latter's wedding was an event of Christmas week, the bride having left for Illinois early in December.

Mr. and Mrs. Cooksey have recently sold their attractive residence, 1625 Court street, to Judge and Mrs. S. A. Bennett of The Dalles, who are expected to arrive in Salem this week to make their permanent home in the city. Judge Bennett having been installed as associate justice of the Oregon supreme court last Thursday. He and his family plan to reside in Salem during the six year term of his office.

Their daughter, Mrs. Chauncey Butler, of Salem, will also make her home with her parents during the absence of her husband, who is stationed with the marine corps at Mare Island. Mrs. Butler has been in The Dalles the greater part of the winter, joining Judge and Mrs. Bennett immediately after the departure of her husband for California.

Also living with the Bennetts is a small granddaughter, Mary Hopkins, who, since the death of her mother last summer, has made her home with her grandparents. Her father is Portland manager of the United Press. A son, Alfred Bennett, is now over in France with the aviation branch of the service.

A large number of Salem friends will be glad to hear that Tom Ordeman, popular Oregon baritone, is convalescing after an attack of Spanish influenza at the home of his mother, Mrs. C. Ordeman in Portland. Mr. Ordeman is planning to return to New York shortly to continue his musical study under Mr. Arens.

Miss Marjorie Kay, who has been passing her Christmas vacation in Salem with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Kay, has returned to Eugene to resume her studies at the University of Oregon.

Miss Grace Bean was the week end guest of her parents, Judge and Mrs. Henry J. Bean. Miss Bean holds a position with the Northwest Steel company in Portland.

An engagement of interest to a large circle of young people is that of Miss Ellen M. Fahy, the daughter of Mrs. Kate Fahy of Salem, to Earl J. Lowe of Portland, the announcement being divulged to a bevy of intimate friends of the bride-elect at a delightful party given recently at the home of Miss Fahy, 373 Leslie street. The evening was passed with music and a variety of diversion. Later a dainty supper was served, covers being laid for Miss Ellen M. Fahy, Miss Marie Brittenstein, Miss Meinrada Fahy, Miss Evelyn Gremmels, Miss Eleanor Hucklestein, Miss Susie Sparrow, Miss Lena Hucklestein, Miss Leah Suing, Miss Phyllis Painter and Miss Clara Winkler.

Miss Fahy graduated from Sacred Heart academy in 1917, and has just completed a course at the Bohak-Walker Business college in Portland. Mr. Lowe is well known as a Portland business man, being a junior partner of the real estate firm, Ritter Lowe and company. Mr. Lowe is now stationed in the service at Camp Lewis. No definite date has been set for the wedding, pending the release of Mr. Lowe from active duty.

Mrs. B. L. Steeves left for Portland Friday, owing to the illness of both her son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Laban Steeves, who have been seriously sick the past week with influenza. They are both gradually improving, however. Mrs. Steeves will remain in Portland until they have practically recovered. Dr. Steeves joined his wife over the week end.

The regular meeting of the La Arca club which was to have been held tonight at the home of Miss Echo Hunt has been postponed on account of influenza situation.

Mrs. Bertha Fairbanks who has been visiting in Salem as the guest of Miss Jean Belle, left for her home in Seattle today.

CONTRACTOR TELLS OF IMPROVEMENT

Bainbridge Gains 20 Pounds Taking Tanlac-Troubles Ended.

"My old time energy with twenty pounds of my lost weight have been returned to me by the use of Tanlac," said C. B. Bainbridge, the well known contracting painter, decorator and wall paper man of 89 East 11th street, Portland, in an interview, recently.

"Just about a year ago," said Mr. Bainbridge, describing his case, "I lost my appetite and soon got to where nothing I would eat agreed with me. My food would lay in my stomach and ferment, bloat me up as tight as a drum and cause me to suffer agony. Of course I had to live on a very light diet and not being able to get the proper nourishment I lost weight and strength continually. I dropped down from one hundred and sixty five pounds to one hundred and thirty two—losing thirty three pounds—in just a few months. I finally got so weak and run down I had to give up my work and was laid up for more than five weeks. Then I began suffering with rheumatism all over, which was especially bad in my right arm. The muscles in this arm would become so drawn and painful that I could not get my hand to my head. My back also hurt me all the time. I was habitually constipated and had such terrific headaches that I could hardly see. I was so nervous the least noise would upset me and I have gone through many a night never closing my eyes for sleep. My strength and energy had just about all left me and my condition had become alarming to me. In fact, I had become discouraged, as I had taken so much medicine without getting any relief.

"Finally a friend of mine, knowing the six I was in advised me to try Tanlac, saying his wife had been in the same condition and that six bottles of Tanlac restored her entirely. So after he told me this I lost very little time in getting me some Tanlac, and believe me, it has done the work. After taking the first bottle I was simply eating like a bear and I have been eating just anything I want since that time with no signs of bloating or any other discomfort afterwards. I have just finished my fourth bottle now and the rheumatism is gone too. With the aid of Tanlac Tablets I have been relieved of constipation and, it's a fact, I haven't had a headache since I began taking Tanlac. I simply sleep like a log every night and can do a full day's work and still feel fresh and fine at night. My wife also suffered from indigestion and she has gotten entirely rid of it by using Tanlac. I tell you it's great and people with stomach trouble and rheumatism will do well to take it."

Tanlac is sold in Hubbard by Hubbard Drug Co., in Mt. Angel by Ben Goeh, in Gervais by John Kelly, in Turner by H. P. Cornelius, in Woodburn by Lyman H. Shorey, in Salem by Dr. S. C. Stone, in Silverton by Geo. A. Steelhammer, in Gates by Mrs. J. P. McCurdy, in Stayton by C. A. Beauchamp, in Aurora by Aurora Drug Store. (Adv.)

Many British Women Will Continue To Hold Jobs

London, Dec. 14.—(By mail)—Want-ed: Work for 500,000 women.

The number of women who will be thrown out of work by the ending of the war is not so great as is imagined. About one and a half million extra women have been employed in the United Kingdom since July, 1914, but the number of killed and disabled men amounts to about one million. Therefore there remain 500,000 women workers who will be displaced.

Their displacement will come gradually and they will not be thrown on the labor market at once, for 1-3 of the increase in women's labor consists of dilutees. Until the men come back they will remain at their jobs.

In the meantime many new spheres have sprung up for women. They will continue making tools and machinery, they will be employed in subsidiary ship building industries, they will do their share in the chemical trades; and also, there are two quite new branches of work open to women of the United Kingdom—the manufacture of planes and toys, both of which industries are being wrested from the hands of the Hun.

The outlook for women is cheerful.

BELLANS FOR INDIGESTION

Paris And London Are Neighbors By Plane

London, Dec. 17.—(By Mail)—Thanks to aviation the world grows smaller every day.

Time was when Londoners regarded Paris as a town a long way off, and those who went there considered themselves well-travelled. Those were the days when "straight as the crow flies" was a mere figure of speech; but now the journey to Paris is being made that way every day. Parisians are becoming to Londoners just next-door neighbors, and Mr. Smith of 1919 will say to himself "I think I'll just drop in on Alphonse in Paris for lunch." It won't take him any longer to see Alphonse than it would to drop in and see his wife in their little suburban home.

A similar idea occurred to Fred H. Lawton, of the American Y. M. C. A. While London was rejoicing over the signing of the armistice the American conceived the idea of showing the Yanks and compatriots in Paris just what form these rejoicings took. So a movie of the London crowds was taken. With this Lawton left England at 12:30 p. m. and arrived in Paris in time for luncheon. The flight was made in a big Handley-Page airplane, and from start to finish took only 35 minutes.

That night the Parisian armisticees were able to see on the screen the antics of their friends in London, with whom they were united in a common rejoicing.

He was the third Indian boy to be drafted from the reservations of this county. One of the others, Martin Hartless, being killed while fighting in the Argonne forest. Another brother of Hartless was also at the front. Watts was wounded in the same battle in which Hartless was killed.

The Wonderful Call When Baby Comes

Like the Blast of Heavenly Trumpet When Call of Motherhood is Felt.

Of all the most vital times in a woman's life the coming of baby is fraught with the greatest meaning. Care should be exercised to insure that the child is passed in safety.

Apprehension is avoided by the timely use of Mother's Friend, a preparation of penetrating oils and medicinal ingredients, which renders the muscles, cords, tendons and ligaments pliable, and thus tension is avoided. The usual nervousness, nausea, bearing-down and stretching pains are counteracted and the period is one of calm repose.

The usual, flat abdominal muscles relax with ease, and when baby comes the time of the crisis is less and danger is avoided.

Thousands of women for half a century have used this penetrating external application, prepared especially for expectant mothers, and every woman awaiting the crisis should give nature a helping hand.

Write the Bradford, Reporter Company, Dept. F. Lamer Building, Atlanta, Georgia, for their Mother's Friend, of great value in all women, and obtain a bottle of Mother's Friend from the druggist and begin its application regularly night and morning.
