PATRICK J. KINDELON, DETECTIVE, MURDERED

No Clue Obtained Yet As To Cause Of Killing—Suicide Theory Rejected.
San Francisco, Jan. 7.—Patrick J. Kindelon, chief special agent for the detective bureau of the Southern Pacific railroad, was found dead in a park today.
Police believe he may have been murdered. Death was caused by a bullet wound in the right temple. A gun was lying in his lap. The police are working on the theory that the gun was "planted" there.
Kindelon was seen last night in the best of spirits, and no motive for a suicide has been discovered.
Kindelon left his home at 8:15 a. m. today apparently without a care on his mind. He went to keep an appointment at his office.
He was found sitting with his back against a tree.
His associate at the Southern Pacific office insisted he was murdered.
"We saw him last night feeling fine," said a deputy. "He had no reason to kill himself. We believe he was murdered."
Kindelon had for forty years been in the Southern Pacific service. During that time he has tracked down and sent to prison scores of notorious characters, train bandits and thieves. His friends believe one of these, seeking revenge, followed Kindelon to the park, killed him, and then sought to create the suicide atmosphere.
Kindelon has worked in the capacity of detective in every city of any size on the coast and was well known.

LAIRD IS ON TRIAL TODAY IN PORTLAND

Is Alleged Murderer Of Former Deputy Sheriff Twombly, November 19.
Portland, Jan. 7.—J. Cyril Laird, alleged murderer, train robber and blackmailer, was placed on trial in circuit court here today on the charge of murdering Deputy Sheriff Frank Twombly the night of November 19.
Laird, it is alleged, killed the deputy sheriff while speeding through East Portland, following his act of robbing the gate-keeper at the Interstate bridge. Twombly had no idea Laird was a robber, merely chasing him as a speeder. The gatekeeper at the bridge was relieved of $123.
Augusta Carlson, who had posed as the wife of Laird for several months preceding his arrest, is said by the police to have confessed that Laird robbed the bridge gate-keeper and killed Twombly. The police say she declared she feared that if Laird were not arrested he would kill her because of her knowledge of his crimes. It is also said she implicated Laird in the hold-up of a Great Northern train near Seattle last September, and in a blackmailing scheme against prominent citizens of Portland.
The man who went on trial today faces the following charges: second grade murder, highway robbery, train robbery, larceny of government bonds, and a violation of the army and navy laws of his parole from the Walla Walla penitentiary.
It is predicted that Laird's defense will be that Augusta Carlson "framed" the case against him to protect the real murderer, whom she loves more than she does Laird, with whom she lived as his wife. It is believed the defense will attempt to stamp Mr. Carlson as an adventuress who craved a life of luxury and used Laird as a cat's paw.

Court House Notes
Walter C. Winslow has filed suit against John P. Bassan, C. E. Bassan and J. H. Tollinson. He alleges that Bassan rented 22 acres of land of him this spring in which there was to be planted potatoes, with the agreement that Winslow was to have as rent, one-fourth of the crop, to be delivered in sacks at the landing nearest the farm. According to the complaint, it seems that Bassan dug his own three-fourths of the crop, but left the one-fourth rent in the ground instead of delivering it at the landing for Mr. Winslow. It is also alleged that Bassan mortgaged his three-fourths of the crop which he had dug. Mr. Winslow asks for a receiver for the three-fourths crop and an injunction until the affair can be settled according to law.

In the case of Jessie W. Moo against Clarence A. Porter, Frank M. Porter and George W. Porter, the circuit court awards Mrs. Moo a 160 acre tract, another 23 acres, a moor of 160 acres and another of 27 acres. The expenses of the suit are to be paid half by the plaintiff and half by the defendant.

E. C. Nafziger has filed suit against M. L. Jones. He alleges they all are

Berger And Other Socialists May Know Their Fate Today

Chicago, Jan. 7.—Victor Berger, congressman-elect for Milwaukee, and the four other defendants on trial here charged with espionage and violations, may know their fate today.
Indicted on twenty six counts, the socialist leaders are liable to sentences of from one to twenty years in the federal prison or fines of from $1 to $10,000 or both on each count. They may be convicted on one or all the counts against them. Their sentences, if they are convicted on more than one count, could be served concurrently, or be balked against them.
Federal Judge Landis announced the cases will be given to the jury during the afternoon. A verdict was regarded as probable before adjournment today.

Seymour Steidman, chief counsel for defense, today answered arguments made by district attorney Clyde yesterday. Steidman cited a bill Berger had proposed while in congress which provided an amendment to the constitution doing away with the senate. This move was made, Steidman declared, "to prevent the betrayal of the people by 'bought' senators."

Judge Butler Overruled Demurrer In Libel Case

Denver, Colo., Jan. 7.—Judge Butler in the district court today overruled the demurrer of the Denver Post in the $375,000 libel damage suit brought by Ernest Morris, chairman of the Denver County Defense Council. The court ordered the case be submitted to a jury.
"A man has as much right to defend himself from attacks by a pen as from a gun," the court said.
Mentioning the paper's reference to Morris as a "Pruss on Hun," "Skunk" and a "Rat," the court declared that no man could be assailed by any newspaper without having recourse to justice.

Thin People SHOULD TAKE PHOSPHATE

Nothing Like Plain Bitro-Phosphate to Put on Firm, Healthy Flesh and to Increase Strength, Vigor and Nerve Forces
Judging from the countless preparations and treatments which are continually being advertised for the purpose of making thin people fleshy, developing arms, neck and bust, and replacing ugly hollows and angles by the soft rounded lines of health and beauty, there are evidently thousands of men and women who keenly feel their excessive thinness.
Thinness and weakness are usually due to starved nerves. Our bodies need more phosphate than is contained in modern foods. Physicians claim there is nothing that will supply this deficiency so well as the organic phosphate known among druggists as bitro phosphate, which is inexpensive and is sold by most all druggists under a guarantee of satisfaction or money back. By feeding the nerves directly and by supplying the body cells with the necessary phosphoric food elements, bitro-phosphate quickly produces a welcome transformation in the appearance; the increase in weight frequently being astonishing.
This increase in weight also carries with it a general improvement in the health. Nervousness, sleeplessness, a lack of energy, which nearly always accompany excessive thinness, soon disappear. dull eyes become bright, and pale cheeks glow with the bloom of perfect health.
CAUTION—Although bitro-phosphate is unsurpassed for relieving nervousness, sleeplessness and general weakness, it should not, owing to its remarkable flesh growing properties, be used by anyone who does not desire to put on flesh.

Will Have Places For All In San Francisco

San Francisco, Jan. 7.—A job for every service star. With that as their slogan, members of local placement committees of state council of defense will demand that the service flags displayed where men are employed be the standard for re-employment of soldiers.
Every employee entitled to display a service flag must employ a soldier for every star displayed, former employees to have the refusal of places, as the men become available, if the committees are to be satisfied.
