FEW CENTS DESTROYS YOUR DANDRUFF AND STOPS FALLING HAIR. Save Your Hair! Make It Thick Wavy And Beautiful—Try This.

Thin, brittle, colorless and scraggy hair is sure evidence of a neglected scalp. Dandruff—that awful scurf. There is nothing so destructive to the hair as dandruff. It robs the hair of its lustre, its strength and its very life, eventually producing a feverishness and itching of the scalp, which if not remedied causes the hair roots to shrink, loosen and die—then the hair falls out fast. A little Danderrine tonight—now—any time—will surely save your hair.

SILVERTON NEWS

Silverton, Or., Jan. 22.—(Capital Journal Special Service).—The body of the late Earl Wood arrived in Silverton from San Francisco last Friday, accompanied by the wife of the deceased and small son, Francis. The funeral was held at Silverton Sunday.

Lloyd Larson, 31, of John Larson, formerly of this city, died in Portland the first of this week. The body is expected to arrive in Silverton today and the funeral will be held tomorrow. George Hubbs was attending to business in Portland last Saturday, arriving Monday.

The number of cases of flu reported to City Health Officer Lear is decreasing every day and in all probability the ban will be lifted by next Monday. Mr. and Mrs. W. P. King are at the home of Mrs. King's parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Riches. Lloyd Riches of Oregon City is reported sick with the flu and Mrs. King will leave this week to care for her brother, Lloyd.

Earl Crowder of Portland visited in Silverton the first of the week. Mrs. Law Fischer spent Tuesday afternoon in Salem.

Mrs. L. Larson was in Salem on business Tuesday. Miss Mina Hubbs is in Salem today attending a meeting of the Salem teachers.

John J. Rude returned Thursday from a business trip to Eastern Oregon and Eugene. Mr. Rude disposed of some of his property while in Eugene.

Henry Grazier made a business trip to Aurora last Friday.

A. L. Robenalt and family and Ed Heald and family motored to Oregon City Sunday.

We are sorry to hear that Henry Dahl is not improving in health very rapidly. The last few days he has been confined to his bed.

John Iverson, the young man who was wounded in France, arrived in Silverton yesterday.

Pudding river has been swollen by the recent rains until it covers nearly a half mile of the Salem-Silverton road. The water has been so high that Mr. M. Parker found it necessary to drive his jitney over the upper road the last few days.

He succeeded in making his way through the water-covered road Tuesday noon, however, but the water is raising so rapidly he hasn't attempted to cross since Tuesday noon. Norris Ames has received his discharge from service and returned to Silverton a few days ago. J. L. Eidson and J. H. Porter visited the capital city last Saturday.

Dallas Schools Are Now Open After Epidemic

(Capital Journal Special Service) Dallas, Jan. 23.—The Dallas public and high schools opened Monday morning after a closing down of more than one month due to the epidemic of Spanish influenza. The attendance Monday morning was not extremely large as a number of parents are keeping their children at home fearing another outbreak of the epidemic. There are but very few cases of the malady in this city at present and the physicians think that with the coming of spring the disease will gradually depart. A number of the rural schools in the country about Dallas also opened up Monday morning.

Polk County Farmers' Union to Meet: The annual meeting and election of officers of the Polk County Farmers' Union will be held in the assembly room of the Dallas public library tomorrow. Besides the election of officers for the ensuing year other matters of special importance will be taken up and discussed. The meeting will probably be an all day session as usual and from the list of delegates who have signified their intentions of attending one of the largest crowds ever assembled at one of their meetings will be here that day.

U. S. Grant Elected on Council: U. S. Grant of this city was unanimously elected to the office of councilman-at-large at a meeting of the city council Monday night. Mr. Grant takes the position made vacant by the abandonment of Councilman Rissor to the mayor's chair when Mayor Staats resigned. The usual matters of business were transacted at the meeting. A change in the lighting system in the business section of the town and the construction of an addition to the sewer system and proposed street improvements created quite a little discussion and the matters were left in the hands of respective committees for investigation.

County Books to be Audited: The firm of Crandall & Roberts of Portland, expert book accountants, has obtained the contract for the auditing of the books of the county for the past year. Max Crandall, one of the members of the concern together with an assistant, will begin the work sometime this week.

Dallas to Have Another Grocery Store: Glen O. Butler of this city will open a grocery store in his building on Main street in the near future. Mr. Butler will conduct what is to be called a "parcel grocery," which will make no deliveries and parties securing goods pay cash for the same. Most of the merchandise sold will be in original packages thus dispensing with the time lost in wrapping packages.

Ira Mehring, postmaster at Falls City, was a Dallas business visitor Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. Charles Scott is a guest of relatives at Mills City for a few weeks.

Arthur Rahn of the Rodgers Paper company of Salem, was a Dallas visitor Tuesday afternoon. Don Shelton, an aviator in the American army in France, is in the city visiting his aunt, Miss May Shelton. Young Shelton saw active service on the fighting front and was in a number of engagements with enemy air forces.

J. S. Loughary, a prominent prune grower of this city, is ill in Portland with bronchitis.

21 DEATHS IN PORTLAND

Portland, Or., Jan. 23.—Despite the fact only 118 new cases of influenza developed yesterday, which is a comparatively small number, 21 deaths were recorded. The scarcity of nurses is causing the high death rate, according to the authorities.

Large Cattle Supply Has Weakened Market

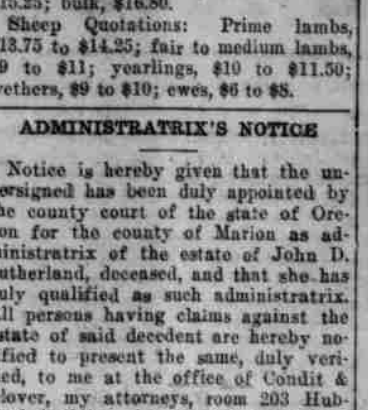

North Portland, Or., Jan. 23.—One hundred six cars of exceptionally good looking cattle were received at the Portland union stock yards on Monday and Tuesday which brought 1700 head of cattle, 115 calves, 3300 hogs and 1000 sheep to the market. Trading started early Monday morning at the cattle scales with a decided amount of "pop" and by afternoon the majority of the cattle had crossed the scales. There was only a fair demand, however, and though the cattle was of good grade the market had been slightly weakened by the oversupply of the previous week and Tuesday afternoon cattle in all grades were quoted at 59 cents to $1.10. Best steers were demoralized as the result of the increased numbers and limited outlet. There appeared to be a ready market however for best steers with quotations of $12 to $13.25. A good many calves went from $8.50 to $13.

Hog sales during the past week have been restricted almost entirely to present needs. The market has been in a rather weak condition for the past few days, but Monday morning found an advance of 29 cents for prime hogs. Top quotations were $16.80 to $17; with the bulk of sales on Monday and Tuesday $16.85. A large supply of hogs has been on the market to date giving the market an unhealthy aspect but trading this week has been running more true to form with slight advances.

In the sheep market lambs are continuing their upward trend in price and several batches of prime lambs were sold at a top quotation of $14.50 with a strong steady demand. Ewes, yearlings and wethers are also being called for with an extremely limited supply. The bulk of the lamb sales the past two days have been made at $14.

Cattle Quotations: Best steers, $11.75 to $13.25; good to choice steers, $10.25 to $12.75; medium to good steers, $8.75 to $10.75; fair to good steers, $7.75 to $9.75; common to fair steers, $6.75 to $8.75; choice cows and heifers, $9.25 to $10.25; good to choice cows and heifers, $7.50 to $8.50; fair to medium cows and heifers, $5.75 to $6.75; canners, $3.50 to $4.50; bulls, $6 to $7; calves, $5.50 to $13; stockers and feeders, $6.50 to $8.50.
