The holiday business in the Salem post office was evidently a hummer, as the records for the last quarter of 1918 show the biggest run of receipts ever known, due in part to the higher rate of postage and the mass of pack-

The figures show a total for the quara year ago.

THINKS AUSTRALIAN LABOR SYSTEM BEST

New South Wales Labor Minister Advocates Adoption By U.S. Of This Plan.

New York, Jan. 24.—"Permanent peace cannot be assured until the nations of the world are placed on an equal footing as far as labor is concerned," said G. S. Beeby, minister of labor for New South Wales, today previous to his departure for England to continue his investigations of conditions.

He has been in the United States three months, visiting San Francisco, Portland, Oregon, Denver, Chicago, Pittsburg, Philadelphia and other industrial and trade centers.
Explaining the system in operation in Australia, he said he believed it could be made applicable here as well as in European nations by building up a system that will create a better understanding between capital and labor.
"The recognition of the fundamentals of the eight hour day, the right to organize, the settlement of industrial disputes by conference and negotiation instead of litigation"—he advocates as essentials in laying the foundation of stable labor conditions.

Are Now Disintegrated
"The splendid organizations you have had during the war for control of the situation are now virtually disintegrated and the industrial conditions are more or less chaotic," said Beeby. The adoption of the Australian system to the United States, he believes will remedy this condition.

The Australian laws, as effective or proposed, provide for:

- Federal regulation of factory and shop.
- Industrial safety.
- Workmen's compensation and accident and social insurance.
- A method of fixing the basic living wage.
- Control of child labor apprenticeship and vocational training.
- Prescribing of the standard working day.
- These laws control all other matters directly affecting employers and workmen's relations.
- The arbitration boards, he said, consist of an equal number of representatives from both sides, with an independent chairman.

Judge Kelly arrived in the city late last night and this morning held a brief session at the court house for the purpose of assigning cases for the term, there being a list of seven minor civil cases booked for Monday.

farm hands, etc., but has very few responses for that sort of call. Mr. Coleman reminds the public that they have cure help on small or transient jobs, for which boys are always looking.

Smith of Baker introduced in the house this morning a bill providing for bounties on seals as follows: Coyote $3, gray wolf $5, pups of the gray wolf, timber wolf and other wolves $2.50 each; wild cats and lynx $3, mountain lion $10, and seal pup $3.

A bill providing that the state engineer be allowed to endorse labor bills amounting to not more than $200 and for supplies amounting to not more than $100, was referred back to the house this morning with the recommendation that it do not pass. As it is understood that the highway commissioners were in favor of the bill, it was laid on the table. It is understood that the bill was favored by the highway commission in order that a great part of its time at meetings would not be taken up by going through the hundreds of little bills that accumulate.
Also in case of laborers, that State Engineer Nunn might pay them off when they went on to other work.

The river this morning at 8 o'clock was 20.8 feet and today noon even 21 feet. It will rise until Saturday morning when the crest of the flood will be reached at 21.5 feet. A telegram from the weather bureau at Portland received today noon reads: "River at Albany 20 feet. Will reach crest about 21.5 feet at Salem Saturday, then fall." As there is no snow in the mountains and there has been no additional rains, it is felt that after reaching 21.5 feet, the water will fall as rapidly as it came up.

WAR DEPARTMENT WELCOMES PROBE

Secretary Baker Promises Full Information In Such Investigations.

Washington, Jan. 24.—The war department will welcome a congressional investigation into the affairs of the department or the conduct of the war, Secretary of War Baker and Chief of Staff March told the house committee today.

If this is taken Baker promised full information and that testimony of officers who have been in France would be made available.

Baker declared, however, that an accuse investigation such as called for in a resolution by Representative Campbell of Kansas into reports that the 35th division had suffered abnormal casualties because of faulty handling and poor care, was difficult at this time because the officers who had information, as well as documents, were overseas.

Immediately following Baker and March's testimony the rules committee adjourned without acting on the Campbell resolution.

Total Killed
The total killed and died of disease up to November 1 were 879, March said.

Campbell's resolution recited reports that the casualties in the Argonne battle alone were 7000.
Charges that the division had not proper artillery support were refuted by the definite statement that at no time was the division out of range of support of its corps and the army artillery, March said.

Baker and March both described the Argonne battle as the most difficult operation undertaken during the war, if not the most difficult in military history.

"The losses were incredibly small for such an advance," March said.
There were approximately 300,000 men in the attack and four thousand guns, the greatest military concentration ever attempted, were collected for the fight.
The first steps toward the last liberty loan and war savings campaign which will be started in April, have recently been taken in San Francisco. It is too early to give any definite figures, but it is understood that the call for the entire country will be for 80 per cent of the 1918 quota, and in this case the quota for Oregon will be in the neighborhood of $14,000,000, and Marion county's share can be computed from last year's quota. Henry E.

Reed of Portland is associate director for the state, and the headquarters will be 300 Journal building.

PERSONALS.

The death of Mrs. Wm. Patterson, wife of a former Salem citizen, was recently announced in San Francisco.
Death was the result of influenza.

Lieut. Oliver Huston of Portland, is visiting at the state house with his father, Senator Huston.

H. F. Johnson left recently on a business trip to Tacoma.

Mrs. E. M. LaFare has recently gone to Los Angeles where she will spend the remainder of the winter.

Attorney Walter E. Keyes was in Oregon City today on legal business.

James Penhill, an old time resident of Salem, now located in Olympia, Wn., has been visiting with friends in the city this week. He speaks in a very complimentary vein of the improvement of Salem in the past twenty years.

County Superintendent W. M. Smith, who has been secluded with a case of influenza for several weeks, returned to his office this morning and took up the routine of business.

C. W. Coyne of Monitor was in the city today in the interest of a proposed new school district in his hometown.

Mrs. D. A. Deinoehl and family of Moore Jaw, Can., were recent arrivals.

KEEP LOOKING YOUNG

It's Easy—If You Know Dr.
Edwards' Olive Tablets

The secret of keeping young is to feel young—to do this you must watch your liver and bowels—there's no need of having a yellow complexion—dark rings under your eyes—pimples—a bilious look in your face—dull eyes with no sparkle. Your doctor will tell you ninety per cent of all sickness comes from inactive bowels and liver.

Dr. Edwards, a well-known physician in Ohio, perfected a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil to act on the liver and bowels, which he gave to his patients for years.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel, are gentle in their action, yet always effective. They bring about that exuberance of spirit, that natural buoyancy which should be enjoyed by everyone, by toning up the liver and clearing the system of impurities.

You will know Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets by their olive color. 10c and 25c neibox. All druggists.

Stock Market Presented A Better Front Today

New York, Jan. 24.—The Evening Sun financial review today said:

The trading community came to a better realization today that stock market pessimism has been overcome and gave more heed to constructive factors.
Not that there were any important new developments affecting quoted values for Wall Street to consider, but principally because of the belief that stocks at going prices have already largely discounted any unfavorable events which the near future may hold.
Taken altogether, the stock market presented a much better front today than for a week or more. This was due, of course, to a considerable extent to technical reasons, within the market itself. The short side having been the popular one, it had become overcrowded and the taking of profits evidently played as important a part in elevating quotations as new buying.

Washington Senate Passes First Bill

Olympia, Wash., Jan. 24.—The senate passed its first bill today. It provides that American history and government courses be made a prerequisite to high school graduation. The final vote was unanimous. Senator Smith of Everett, organization eng. last an attempt to strike a paragraph which declared "knowledge of government necessary to good citizenship." This is the first time the majority organization has not voted solidly.

FIGHTING IN LISBON.

Washington, Jan. 24.—Much fighting between the republicans and monarchists, with bombardment of one of the suburban ports of Lisbon, was reported in Portuguese dispatches to the state department today. The monarchists took Oporto easily.

Troops returning from France have been called to the colors and civilian volunteers have been asked.

30 FOOT TAPEWORM REMOVED.

Salem Woman Recommends
Treatment of Dr. C. S. Stone

Salem, Ore., Sept. 24, 1918.

To Whom It May Concern:
This is to certify that I was afflicted with tapeworm for about four years and that repeated efforts were made by other physicians to remove it were failures. Finally I went to Dr. C. S.
Stone of Salem, Ore., who gave me medicine, and inside of 48 hours the worm came away head and all. I cheerfully recommend Dr. Stone's treatment as entirely satisfactory.
