CHARGES OF STATE PRINTING BOARD TO BE INVESTIGATED

In Alleged That Charges Of This Department Are More Than Commercial Firms.

The Secretary of State has informed the legislature that the printing board has been accused of discriminating against citizens.

TWO STATEMENT OF CONDITIONS.

The department is making new appointments in the printing board and will be required to pay all expenses of the board.

Prospective Term Is Extended.

The board has been asked to extend its term of service, and the legislature has been advised that the board will continue its work.

STATE OF SITUATION.

The printing board has a large amount of business in the state, and it is stated that the department is making new appointments in the printing board.

Prospective Term Is Extended.

The board has been asked to extend its term of service, and the legislature has been advised that the board will continue its work.

STATE OF SITUATION.

The printing board has a large amount of business in the state, and it is stated that the department is making new appointments in the printing board.

Prospective Term Is Extended.

The board has been asked to extend its term of service, and the legislature has been advised that the board will continue its work.

STATE OF SITUATION.

The printing board has a large amount of business in the state, and it is stated that the department is making new appointments in the printing board.

Prospective Term Is Extended.

The board has been asked to extend its term of service, and the legislature has been advised that the board will continue its work.

STATE OF SITUATION.

The printing board has a large amount of business in the state, and it is stated that the department is making new appointments in the printing board.

Prospective Term Is Extended.

The board has been asked to extend its term of service, and the legislature has been advised that the board will continue its work.

STATE OF SITUATION.

The printing board has a large amount of business in the state, and it is stated that the department is making new appointments in the printing board.

Prospective Term Is Extended.

The board has been asked to extend its term of service, and the legislature has been advised that the board will continue its work.

STATE OF SITUATION.

The printing board has a large amount of business in the state, and it is stated that the department is making new appointments in the printing board.

Prospective Term Is Extended.

The board has been asked to extend its term of service, and the legislature has been advised that the board will continue its work.

STATE OF SITUATION.

The printing board has a large amount of business in the state, and it is stated that the department is making new appointments in the printing board.

Prospective Term Is Extended.

The board has been asked to extend its term of service, and the legislature has been advised that the board will continue its work.

STATE OF SITUATION.

The printing board has a large amount of business in the state, and it is stated that the department is making new appointments in the printing board.

Prospective Term Is Extended.

The board has been asked to extend its term of service, and the legislature has been advised that the board will continue its work.

STATE OF SITUATION.

The printing board has a large amount of business in the state, and it is stated that the department is making new appointments in the printing board.

Prospective Term Is Extended.

The board has been asked to extend its term of service, and the legislature has been advised that the board will continue its work.

STATE OF SITUATION.

The printing board has a large amount of business in the state, and it is stated that the department is making new appointments in the printing board.

Prospective Term Is Extended.

The board has been asked to extend its term of service, and the legislature has been advised that the board will continue its work.

STATE OF SITUATION.

The printing board has a large amount of business in the state, and it is stated that the department is making new appointments in the printing board.

Prospective Term Is Extended.

The board has been asked to extend its term of service, and the legislature has been advised that the board will continue its work.