SOLDIERS FROM COAST ARE BACK IN NEW YORK

Captain Llewellyn And Major Knox Of Portland Arrive In N. Y. From France.

New York, an. 31.—From Sitka, Alaska, to Punta Gorda, Fla., and from Eastport, Me., to San Diego, Cal., and thousands of cities and towns between came the officers and soldiers who marched off the transport Mongolia today. More than 97 per cent of the 4281 men aboard were wounded. Less than 900 of these, however, were under medical care when the ship arrived. The returning troops were under command of Major N. B. Champion, Alexandria, Va. Officers of his staff on board included: Captain M. A. Mott, Los Angeles, who returned with a brittle Lieutenant W. F. Enright, St. Joseph, Mo.; E. P. Murphy, Omaha, Neb.; and Captain William Mayer, Chicago, and Captain Felix Beauchamp, Sitka, Alaska.

Beauchamp wore the croix de guerre and had been cited for individual heroism on the field. One of the most interesting groups aboard was the casual company of 95 marines from all sections, who were at Chateau-Thierry when the Germans were halted. The marines were from the Fifth and Sixth regiments of the Fourth brigade.

Captain F. A. Llewellyn of Portland, Or., was aboard. He had been wounded three times. C. D. Urantz, Globe, Ariz., and Sergeant Leslie R. Becker, Tacoma, Wash., were with the California casuals.

Carrying 1738 homecoming American troops the United States transport Minnekahda arrived here today from Brest. The Minnekahda had on board companies A, B, C, D, I, K, L, and M, field and staff headquarters company, machine gun company, supply company and medical detachment of the 329th infantry; 83d division cadre, casual company number 222 (Alabama); 142 casual officers and seven civilians, it was announced at the port of embarkation. EVENING FROCK

Because the material which is a rich apricot colored satin, is embroidered with silk tasseled leather, this frock is slung like a Scottish plaid over one shoulder. A chemise of gold thread lace over blue has a sleeve on one arm and a strap of flowers on the other side, ends beneath the tunic. More apricot satin is used for the underskirt.
