

No Medicine-Chest Without Its Family Laxative

From the baby to the grandparent a good laxative is the necessary medicine in the little ills. It wards off serious sickness and saves doctor's bills. Many a cold has been prevented from running into grippe and pneumonia by its timely use.

Many a racking headache has been quickly dispelled by it. And it is a laxative rather than a drastic cathartic or purgative that should be in every family medicine-chest, for a laxative can be used at all ages.

Thousands of good American families have for more than a quarter century used a combination of simple laxative herbs with pepsin known to druggists as Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. It is a laxative- tonic that acts on the bowels and stomach. Infants take it with perfect safety, and it is equally effective for grownups.

Grandparents are now seeing their children give it to their babies. It is excellent for all the family in constipation, no matter how chronic, indigestion, wind colic, biliousness, headaches, dyspepsia and similar ills.

The druggist will refund your money if it fails to do as promised.

Dr. Caldwell's SYRUP PEPSIN The Perfect Laxative

PRICE AS ALWAYS

In spite of greatly increased laboratory costs due to the war, by sacrificing profits and absorbing war taxes we have maintained the price at which this family laxative has been sold by druggists for the past 25 years. Two sizes—50c and $1.00.

SOCIETY

TRAVEL northward continues to induce Salem people to leave their homes for attractions to be found in the other cities. Many of these trips have been contingent upon the grand opera season, which will come to a successful close Saturday evening. The opera has been the inspiration for a number of visitors to Portland and they have been entertained with affairs supplementary to the opera.

Among the out of town guests who are sharing in the musical feast and its attendant gaieties, are Mrs. J. H. Austin and Miss Florence Austin, of Salem.

Mrs. J. D. Sutherland, who has been in Portland nursing her son, Van Sutherland, and his wife, has returned to her home in Salem. Mr. and Mrs. Van Sutherland are both improving rapidly.

C. B. Clancy is among the Salem music lovers who are planning to attend grand opera in Portland tomorrow.

The regular meeting of the Women's club will be held tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 in the club room.

H. J. Wenderoth, exalted ruler of the Salem Elks, announces that the senator Lachmund is also opposed to the plant and some time ago favored closing it up.

New Clock Strikes Six At 3 P. M., And Worries New York's Citizens

New York, Feb. 6.—Downtown New Yorkers are wearing worried expressions on their watch dial these days, and the ancient and dignified old clock in City Hall cupola actually looks savage.

It's all an account of the coming of a strange upstart in the world of tower clocks. The newest clock is mounted in the tower of Pier A, at the Battery, and it fairly roars the time of day to the whole lower part of Manhattan Island, and to all the ships in the upper harbor. That would be all right, but it strikes twice at 1 o'clock, four times at 2 o'clock, six times at 3 o'clock, and from 4 p. m. on it gets worse.

This new clock talks the sailor's language. It is said to be the first of its kind on land. It faces the harbor, and was erected for the benefit of sailors in the harbor and about town by Daniel G. Reid, as a memorial to the sailors who died in the war. It strikes ship time, which most landlubbers know is indicated by "bells" on shipboard.

The 12 hours are divided into three watches, beginning at noon and midnight. Thus, 12:30 a. m. is one bell, 2 is two bells, 2:30 is three bells, and so on until eight bells is reached, at 4 a. m., then a new watch starts. So 4:30 a. m. is one bell again, 5 is two bells, 5:30 is three bells, and so on till 8 a. m., when the ship's clock for once is right with the land clock, striking eight times. Then at 8:30 it is one bell again, at 9 it is two bells, and so on through the third watch, until it is again eight bells at noon, and the whole round starts over again.

The new clock at the Battery strikes on a bell weighing half a ton, and fairly drowns out some of the more conservative landlubber clocks in that part of town. While the sailors are said to enjoy the luxury, landmen in lower Manhattan and the dignified clock in City Hall cupola are not enthusiastic about the new venture in time telling.

Before The Advent Of Woman's Gladness

Women Who Know Take Precaution Against Suffering.

Before the arrival of the Shiloh, women for over half a century have learned the wisdom of giving nature a helping hand. Nausea, nervousness, heart-ache and stretching pains in the abdomen and muscles are entirely avoided by the use of Mother's Friend, according to the testimony of thousands of mothers who have used this time-honored remedy.

Mother's Friend lubricates the fine network of nerves beneath the skin, and by regular use during the period the muscles are made and kept soft and elastic. They can then expand gently and easily when baby is born and pain and danger at the crisis is naturally avoided.

Mother's Friend is a preparation of penetrating oils and other medicinal agents prepared especially for expectant mothers. It is for external use, is absolutely safe and should be used regularly during the entire period before baby comes.

Write to the Bradford Regulator Company, Dept. A, Lamar Building, Atlanta, Georgia, for an interesting Motherhood Book, and obtain a bottle of Mother's Friend from the druggist. You will find it the greatest kind of help.

Sailors at Bremerton navy yard are reported standing by under stacked arms and issuance of liberty passes has been stopped.

Following the order from Washington yesterday to stop all troop demobilization, hundreds of soldiers, awaiting discharge were today applying for transfer to line companies in expectation of being assigned to patrol duty.

Streets Deserted.

Meantime the streets were practically deserted, only a few shops attempting to transact business.

The light plant was being operated under police protection and telephones, water, gas and other public utilities had not been cut off as had been feared last night.

The general tie-up imposed by the strikers in their sympathy walkout with the 30,000 shipyard workers seeking higher wages, had today transformed Seattle, a city of 400,000 from a bustling metropolis into the condition of a country village.

Neither street cars nor jitneys were running.

Hotel guests were camping out in their rooms, eating tinned food and depending on active resourcefulness to supply their elementary needs.

Already the city was beginning to have a foretaste of hunger, although the strikers have arranged to feed 100,000 people twice a day in their soup kitchens, according to the commissary committee reports.

There was no butcher or baker—and the candlestick maker had long since sold out and come home with the others.

Milk for babies and invalids was being sold under doctor's certificates at stations designated by the strikers.

The Star was the only newspaper published today, and it was extremely doubtful if that would continue through out the day.

Sailors and soldiers, most of them discharged men but some still in the government service, were assisting the police regulars as special duties in patrolling streets and outlying districts. These specials numbered about 1000.

Have Men on Patrol.

The strikers also had men on patrol, armed, as the strike leaders, said "with moral suasion only." They had been organized under direction of officers designated by Mayor Hanson.

Up to noon Seattle had gone into a state of almost complete hibernation, awaiting the clearing up of a situation admitted on every hand to hold etatymic possibilities.

With hungry hordes swamping the 12 commissaries maintained by the strikers throughout the city, and the food situation hourly becoming more serious, strike committees were at noon conferring on the proposal to open up all unionized restaurants under direction of the cooks and waiters. In that event the striking teamsters promised to haul supplies.

Meantime thousands of men and women who had failed to make emergency provisions were walking the streets vainly endeavoring to get even a sandwich.

The few non-union restaurants which had kept open yesterday were locked today for no sup plies were moving.

Up to shortly before noon, stew served on paper plates with dry bread and coffee was to be had at the union commissaries for 35 cents, or for 25 cents if the patron displayed a union card.

The strike committee promised better service by Saturday.

Lime Bill Is Recalled To Fight It All Over Again

The state lime board and the state lime plant, which has had such precarious sailing, due to the opposition of Representative Kubi of Portland is still traveling a rocky road.

An innocent bill, providing that a certain section of Lord's Oregon laws be repealed and a few innocent provisions substituted regarding the state lime plant passed the house with 53 votes.

It was explained that under the present law, the lime board could sell only in car lots, and then not more than one car lot a year. All that was asked was that the plant be permitted to do business as any business firm or corporation. The proposed law gives the plant the right to sell in any quantities to anyone.

Mr. Kubi, a bitter enemy of the lime plant, did not catch the provisions of the bill and it went through. Later he awoke to the fact that the bill would permit the plant to sell in car lots, not only to Portland dealers, but to California or Washington firms, and at the exact cost to the state of $1.75 a ton.

According to this, nothing would prevent the big dealers everywhere from buying at $75 a ton and selling retail at the market price of from $10 to $12 a ton. Hence the bill was recalled and will all be fought over again. Kubi never favored a state lime plant strike duty.

General Morrison left at 10 o'clock last night. He should be in Seattle at 2 p. m. Saturday.

Furnish Plenty of Troops.

Washington, Feb. 7.—Authorization of federal troops to preserve order in the Seattle strike was expected to be followed today by government intervention to relieve the situation. Secretary of War Baker ordered the commandant of Camp Lewis to furnish as many troops as he believes necessary.

Just what will be the first step is uncertain because of the complicated situation, but the most logical course seems for the labor department to try to get the men back to work through its conciliators.

The war labor board's policy is not to take up a dispute until both sides request it, and Charles Piez of the shipping board still is standing pat on his determination not to deal with the men until they go back to work. Return to work during adjustment of the case probably would be the first demand of the labor board.

Meanwhile, Frank Morrison secretary of the American Federation of Labor, is trying to get Piez to arbitrate while the men are out, and government persuasion is being exerted on Morrison to have him order the men back to work, on the ground that the national federation approved the May wage award, which the men now refuse to abide by.

It was pointed out that the striking shipworkers had appealed from the May award and that the appeal commission had disagreed.

Director General Piez would not discuss the Seattle case today.

Won't Dock Boats There

San Diego, Cal., Feb. 7.—Announcement has been made here by agents of the Pacific Steamship company that vessels of that line will not dock at Seattle during the strike. They will dock at Portland. Passengers bound for Seattle on the coastwise steamers will land at Victoria or Vancouver.

* USE COCOANUT OIL *
* FOR WASHING HAIR *

If you want to keep your hair in good condition, be careful what you wash it with.

Most soaps and prepared shampoo contain too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and is very harmful. Just plain unperfumed coconut oil (which is pure and entirely greaseless), is much better than the most expensive soap or anything else you can use for shampooing, as this can't possibly injure the hair.

Simply moisten your hair with water and rub it in. One or two teaspoons will make an abundance of rich, creamy lather, and cleanses the hair and scalp thoroughly. The lather rinses out easily, and removes every particle of dust, dirt, dandruff and excessive oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves it fine and silky, bright, fluffy and easy to manage.

You can get unperfumed coconut oil at most any drug store. It is very cheap, and a few ounces is enough to last everyone in the family for months.
