

When the Baby Needs a Laxative---

No one knows better than the ever-watchful mother—the natural doctor of the family in all the small ills—that when the baby is out of sorts it is usually due to indigestion or constipation.

It is always well, in any of its illnesses, to look for this cause. The diet may have to be changed, but before good can result from it, the bowels must be moved.

The mother has the choice of many medicines—cathartics, purgatives, bitter-waters, pills, physics, etc. But the little body doesn't need such harsh remedies for they wrench the system and do only temporary good, so often followed by an unpleasant reaction.

A better plan is to employ a mild, gentle laxative of which only a little is required. There is a combination of simple laxative herbs with pepsin sold by druggists under the name of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin that thousands of mothers have used successfully for baby's constipation and its accompanying ills, such as belching, wind colic, restlessness, sleeplessness, etc.

The nursing mother will also find it ideal for herself, and it is especially important that she be free from constipation.

Syrup Pepsin is guaranteed to do as promised or the druggist will refund the money. Thousands of cautious families have it in the house, secure against the little ills.

Lloyd Rubel Formerly Of Silverton Dies In Alberta
(Capital Journal Special Service)
Silverton, Oregon, Feb. 11.—The funeral of Lloyd Rubel, whose body was shipped here from Alberta, Canada, was held Saturday afternoon and interment was made in the Miller cemetery east of here.

Little has been learned as to the cause of his death. A telegram was received by relatives of the young man last week stating that he was dead and asking what disposition should be made of the body. They wired for information regarding the death and instructed them to ship the remains to Silverton. Upon investigation of the body it was learned that his face had been terribly burned from some kind of acid. Whether his death was by suicide or from accident has not yet been learned. The telegram received in response to an inquiry merely stated that he died from poison.

Mr. Rubel was about twenty-six years old, and was a native of Silverton. He moved to Alberta only a short time ago.

Try Making Your Own Cough Remedy

You can save about $2. and have a better remedy than the ready-made kind. Easily done.

If you combined the curative properties of every known "ready-made" cough remedy, you probably could not get as much relief or curative power as there is in this simple home-made cough syrup, which is easily prepared in a few minutes.

Get from any druggist 2 1/2 ounces of Pinex, pour it into a pint bottle and fill the bottle with syrup, using either plain granulated sugar syrup, clarified molasses, honey, or corn syrup, as desired. The result is a fine pint of really better cough syrup than you could buy ready-made for three times the money. Tastes pleasant and never spoils.

This Pinex and Syrup preparation gets right at the cause of a cough and gives almost immediate relief. It loosens the phlegm, stops the nasty throat tickle and heals the sore, irritated membranes so gently and easily that it is really astonishing.

A day's use will usually overcome the ordinary cough and for bronchitis, croup, whooping cough and bronchial asthma, there is nothing better.

Pinex is a most valuable concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, and has been used for generations to break up severe coughs.

To avoid disappointment, ask your druggist for "2 1/2 ounces of Pinex" with full directions, and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money promptly refunded. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

BISHOP W. T. SUMNER PRAISES ROOSEVELT

Says In Address That He Was First Great Citizen Of This Generation.

Declaring that Theodore Roosevelt was the first great citizen of this generation, the Rt. Rev. W. T. Sumner, bishop of Oregon, in an address before the joint senate and house in the house of representatives last evening, told of his personal acquaintance with Roosevelt as well.

"Roosevelt understood the game of politics and played it well," said Bishop Sumner. "He realized the fallacy of parties. He has been charged with being an office seeker. I believe he was, because of his ideals and confidence in his views as being the right views."

"In his political career, he was honest and stood for the common man. But he was more of a statesman than politician. No politician would have asked Booker Washington to the state house for dinner. No politician would have forced the hand of Germany in the Venezuela affair, and no mere politician could have built the Panama canal."

"Roosevelt declared to me that the Progressive party was an accident. He was badly advised and informed after his return from Africa. But he lived to see both great parties grasping the ideas of the progressives."

"Roosevelt had an intellectuality, second to none in this country. We was not brilliant at Harvard college. As he grew strong physically, he grew mentally."

"I was with him in Chicago shortly after he was shot in Milwaukee. The famous Dr. Murphy who attended him said he had never found a man with the physical perfection of Roosevelt."

"Everything Roosevelt read he remembered, and to this we must attribute his greatness. And above all, he was a good sport whether winning or losing. His human friendships appeal to all of us. Good old Teddy. We are now willing to forget differences of opinion. To all of us he is Teddy."

"The Rough Rider felt he was a friend and companion. He may have made mistakes, but his aims were to give an efficient administration. In his dealings with men, he always found the best in every man and his motives."

In concluding his eulogy, Bishop Sumner said: "I hope this state will not be behind other states in erecting a memorial to Roosevelt. A lake was set aside in Oregon by Roosevelt for the breeding of wild birds. We should set aside this tract and call it the Roosevelt natural reserve."

A pleasing feature of the evening's program was two solos by W. Russell Morgan, who appeared in his navy uniform. The popular song "My Own United States," called for an anchor and in response Mr. Morgan sang "The Sunshine of Your Smiles."
