He also had the opportunity of meeting King George, Lloyd George, Clemenceau and several of the great French generals.

For the purpose of devising ways and means for the improvement of lateral roads in all sections of the county, a general mass meeting has been called for 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon at the auditorium of the Salem Commercial club. It is felt that some action should be taken to improve the smaller roads of the county to connect with the highways and an invitation is given to everyone in the county who is interested in roads to attend the meeting.

G. E. Halvorsen, formerly of the automobile firm of Halvorsen & Burns, has taken the agency for the Oldsmobile Company of Oregon and will open for business at his former location at High and Ferry street. Mr. Halvorsen made an enviable record for himself while in the service in France, having charge of the general service of the automobile department of the Y. M. C. A. This brought him to the front in all the big fighting just previous to the signing of the armistice.
