Too great elevation is not desirable on account of decreasing fertility and the cool nights in the summer—conditions unfavorable for fruitfulness. Probably an elevation of 800 or 1000 feet would be about the limit.

Undesirable Land.

The first bottom lands immediately adjacent to the large streams possess in a high degree all the physical and chemical qualities required by the walnut, but in other respects they are not desirable. The walnut on the low lands tends to grow too late in summer and is liable to frost injury both in spring and fall. In addition to this, these low sit-nations are subject to excessive humidity in late spring and early summer, a condition that invites blight.

The question is often asked: What is the average yield of nuts in pounds per tree at various ages? It has been our experience here that the walnut seldom gives returns of commercial importance earlier than ten or twelve years from planting. A 15-year old tree may yield 15 or 20 pounds of nuts, and will rapidly increase in annual production from that date. A 20-year old top grafted tree at our place produced 80 pounds of nuts the past season. Any person who contemplates going into the walnut business will do well to first consult an expert on the subject.

YOUR SICK CHILD IS CONSTIPATED! LOOK AT TONGUE

If Cross, Feverish Or Bilious Give "California Syrup Of Figs."

No matter what ails your child, a gentle, thorough laxative should always be the first treatment given.

If your little one is out of sorts, half sick, isn't resting, eating and acting naturally—look, mother! see if tongue is coated. This is a sure sign that it's little stomach, liver and bowels are clogged with waste. When cross, irritable, feverish, stomach sour, breath bad or has stomachache, diarrhoeas, sore throat, full of cold, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the constipated poison, undigested food and sour bile gently moves out of its little bowels without griping, and you have a well, playful child again.

Mothers can rest easy after giving this harmless "fruit laxative" because it never fails to cleanse the little one's liver and bowels and sweeten the stomach and they dearly love its pleasant taste. Full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups printed on each bottle.

Beware of counterfeit fig syrups. Ask your druggist for a bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," then see that it is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company."

prepare codification of laws regarding children, $500, W. H. Byars' claim, $67, 00 and a pension of $25 a month for two years for Private Lamb of the State Military Police who was seriously injured. This appropriation also includes $10,000 for the Silverton armory and $4,800 for an armory at La Grande.

Kubli expressed himself as opposed to the creating of any new commissions. Having served as chairman of the ways and means committee of 1917 and also on the 1919 committee, Mr. Kubli said that when a commission is appointed, it might get $5,000 the first year, then the next time $15,000 and then at a succeeding legislature, come in for an appropriation of $50,000. These commissions ask for twice as much as they need, and get twice as much as they ought to have, declared Kubli.

SOCIETY

By GERTRUDE BOBISON

ONE of the interesting events of the conference of the Daughters of the American Revolution which closes its two-day session in Portland this evening, was the presentation of one hundred pounds of Mount Vernon black walnuts by the Multnomah chapter to the various chapters that they may be distributed to the schools of the state and planted on Washington's birthday with fitting ceremonies.

The principal feature of today's program was the election of the state officers: The complete program follows: Wednesday 9:30 a. m.—Conference called to order by the state regent; patriotic singing led by Mrs. Pietcher Linn; reading of minutes; new business; vote on amendments; unfinished business; reports of nominating committee; international relations, Mrs. W. C. Witzel; reciprocity, Mrs. Eva Emery Dye.

Conference luncheon 12:30 p. m. Wednesday 2:30 p. m.—Vivian solo, Mrs. E. L. Knight, Miss Mae Ross, ne-companist; reports of state treasurer, Mrs. W. E. Pearson; state auditor, Mrs. Edith S. Worrell; conservation, Mrs. U. G. Shipley; real daughters, Miss Anne M. Long; children of American Revolution, Mrs. R. A. McMurphy; preservation of historic spots Mrs. C. J. Crandall; national old trails, Mrs. J. M. Knight; magazine, Mrs. George M. Post; relics of revolution for continental hall, Mrs. Bruce Linnville Bogart; ballot for state regent and vice state regent; election of officers; introduction of officers; reading of minutes; song, "God Be With you Till We Meet Again." Adjournment.

Dr and Mrs. Mark Skiff were among the Salem folk who went to Portland to welcome the sixty fifth coast artillery Their son, Mark Skiff, Jr., is a radio sergeant in the C. A. Camp his many relatives and friends are looking forward hopefully to his early release from the service.

Mrs. Ralph White will resume her Thursday night dancing classes tomorrow evening. Classical and character dancing for young ladies, at 7 o'clock, and ladies' ballroom dancing at 8:30.

It is only fools and the dead that never change their opinions. And with such a host of patriotic and zealous persons boosting the entertainment that the Patriotic League is preparing for next Tuesday evening, is it any wonder that the ladies in charge are kept in a state of modified St. Vitus-dance? Which all is a round about way of saying that they have changed the plans again—for good and all—and will give their program in the opera house instead of the armory as was announced yesterday. Those in charge are deeply grateful for the kind offers they have received of St. Joseph's hall and the armory. Admission for a twenty five cents for adults; reserved seats thirty five cents, and ten cents for children, reserved seats fifteen cents.

The mothers of the Highland school district are requested to attend a mothers' meeting at the Highland school tomorrow afternoon at 3:30 o'clock.

Many Salem friends will be grieved to learn that Mrs. F. L. Porter, who has been a resident of the city for nearly six years has gone to Santa Ana, California, to join her husband, Rev. Porter, who during his stay in Salem was pastor of the first Christian church has lately returned from England, where he was engaged in Y. M. C. A. work.

Mrs. Dave Talmadge and small son, Billy, of Brownsville, have been visiting Mrs. Talmadge's mother, Mrs. Jane Roberts, at her home on South Winter street.

An item of interest to a great many Salem people is the news of the promotion to a captaincy of Lieutenant Allan A. Bynon. Lieutenant Bynon has spent nearly two years in France, acting as a reserve corps officer in the quarter master department. He is very well and favorably known in the city being a graduate of the local high school.

Mrs. W. H. Strayer and little daughter, Nadine, are spending the remainder of the legislative session with Senator Strayer. The home of Senator and Mrs. Strayer is in Baker.

Warden R. L. Stevens and Dr. R. E. Lee Steiner were hosts yesterday to Dr and Mrs. T. L. Perkins of Portland.

Colonel E. A. Hofer and daughter, Mrs. Allan A. Bynon, who have been spending the past week in Newport, have returned to Salem.

Mrs. Walter M. Pierce, wife of Senator Pierce of La Grande, is visiting in Salem during the last week of legislature.

Mrs. Joseph Martin received a telegram this morning from her son, Hugh, stating that he had arrived in New York with the sixty ninth coast artillery. He has been in France since last July.

For the past three years the week of February 22d has been designated as national song week and all over our land communities are gathering to sing our national airs, and express their loyalty and patriotism for this great country of ours, and to honor the memory of George Washington, one of the world's greatest noblemen. The Daughters of the American Revolution have arranged for such a community gathering at the armory, Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Judge Johns of the supreme court will give a brief address and a literary and musical program by representatives of the city schools and university. Schools, and various patriotic and civic organizations and the public in general are invited and urged to be present.

A patriotic number by the boy scouts will be a feature of the program.
