The Apollo club of Salem, under the direction of John W. Todd appeared last night before members of the house and a large audience in the rear and were given an ovation. Just to get everybody tuned up to a proper musical pitch, Mr. Todd suggested that all join in singing the first verse of the Star Spangled Banner.

There is a bit of encouragement for producers today in the market quotations. Eggs, butter and butterfat have advanced a cent, due to the increased demand that followed the recent drop in grain and vegetable markets are holding up, but with a tendency toward weakness, the largest decline being shown in cauliflower which has dropped to $3 a crate. This vegetable is now practically all shipped from the Sacramento valley, the Oregon crop being very light.

Tonight masquerade at Chemewa. Train service out, auto service back. Three silver cups given away as prizes. Extra music.

W. P. Harris, of the Liberty district, has just returned from a visit to his old home in Minnesota, the first visit there in 43 years. From there he went on to Fall River, Mass., and to Halifax and Wolfville, Nova Scotia, where he made an extended visit with relatives. He found all that region of country enjoying a very mild winter, and noted that generally there was an air of bustle in the cities and of prosperity in the rural districts. As a sample of what the farmers are up against he noted that the finer grade of apples from the Wolfville district were being shipped to England where they brought as high as $14 a barrel. This means a profit of from $5 to $9 a barrel. Mr. Harris has resided in this section for about six years, and now, after covering four or five thousand miles of the eastern country, he is very well pleased to be back in the Willamette valley, which he claims has no equal as a place of residence.

The house of representatives will be in session this evening beginning at 8 o'clock and the Oregon state constitution provides that all of its sessions shall be open to the public. Several interesting bills are on the calendar for action this evening and those who feel so disposed will have an opportunity of hearing the official spell binders. However, a motion passed the house this morning providing for the appointment of a special sergeant of arms to keep the spectators quiet in the back of the house, and also in the Lobby. At times last night the on-lookers have made so much noise and confusion that none but the loudest orators could be heard.

German Soldiers Still Bear Imperial Standard In Prussia Say Fugitives

Warsaw, Feb. 18.—German soldiers in East Prussia are still bearing the old imperial standard instead of the republican flag, according to reports brought by fugitives to the American mission here. They also say that the junkers have undertaken to organize a strong movement in Germany against Poland.

Food is more plentiful in East Prussia than in Poland, the fugitives declare, and is much cheaper. An average meal costs about ten marks ($2.50) compared with 15 to 20 marks ($3.75 to $5.25) in Warsaw.

Shoes are also cheaper, costing 90 marks ($22.50) in Germany and 500 marks ($125) in Poland. Rolling stock is much more plentiful in Germany than here.

Poland's financial situation, according to members of the American mission, will necessitate sending a high financial expert here. The national resources of the country are great, but the monetary system is in a tangle.

President Wilson is being made the object of unfavorable reports circulated throughout Poland. It is alleged that he opposed sending General Batiarvan's army home on the ground that the Czecho-Slovaks made immediate use of their home coming troops for imperialistic purposes. The American mission has so far been unable to get at the source of these baseless rumors.
