and with roads in deplorable shape.

In August the city of Br. an influenza epidemic. There were many deaths among the French inhabitants, but the army's precautions prevented the disease from spreading to the troops, working on the docks and at Camp Pontanezen. The same was true when transports began arriving from America bringing victims of influenza and pneumonia. The first of these ships were the Van Steuben and the Louisville, which reached here September 4, 1918, with a hundred dead and hundreds of sick aboard. One unforgettable night was that of October 13, when the Leviathan arrived with hundreds ill and many dead. Brigadier General Butler, former colonel of the Thirtieth marine, had just been given commendation on conditions in the camp. Likewise it has led dozens of men to volunteer to remain for permits to Camp Pontanezen through rain and mud because there were not enough stretchers. The general himself walked with the marines carrying the packs of three sick men. Today he related how he met two marines in the dark, heard a sob, turned on his flashlight and found both weeping as they carried a limp body. He asked what the trouble was. One replied:

"One man died on us."

Sooty Blow Down Tents

A terrible storm blew down many tents the night of January 4, this year, unhousing 1,500 men. General Butler ordered all kitchens fired up and diners served. Bon fires were started and hands played. A disagreeable incident was turned into a lively midnight picnic, while accommodations were being restored.

The spirit displayed in these various situations described is responsible for the present efficient organization, which led Charles M. Schwab a few days ago to write a personal note of commendation on conditions in the camp. Likewise it has led dozens of men to volunteer to remain for permits to Camp Pontanezen through rain and mud because there were not enough

MUSIC for music's sake alone, will draw hundreds of Salem people out to the concert of the French veterans band at the armory on March 5th. But aside from the art value of the concert, if heroism and patriotism count for anything at all with us, the hall should be packed to its utmost capacity that day. Not one in that entire assembly cannot point with pride to one or more wound stripes or distinguished service medals. No one of them but can recount tales of unbelievable valor and self sacrifice concerning his fellow musicians, and sponsored as they are by the most prominent women of the land, no other recommendation is necessary.

Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Roberts entertained a group of friends at a delightful musical last Thursday evening. Mrs. Charles Childs of Brownsville, and Mrs. Charles Brand of Roseburg assisted in entertaining the company. The guests were Mrs. Brand, Mrs. Albert Childs, Mr. and Mrs. Keene, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Craig, Mrs. John Watson, Mrs. M. L. Farrell, Mr. and Mrs. John R. Sites, Mrs. Jane Roberts, Mrs. Minnie Harding, Mrs. Blair, Miss Blair and Hugh Roberts.

Flaunting the national colors bravely throughout the entire scheme of decoration, and with the traditional hatchet and cherry branch much in evidence the home of Carol S. Dibble on North Liberty street, was a sanctuary of the most "star-spangled" variety, when she entertained the members of the Salem Women's Press club, last evening. Miss Lucille Elliott, a dramatic reader of particular talent, was among the guests and treated the gathering to some beautiful selections. The hostess was assisted in serving by Mrs. Burton A. Myers. Members of the club include Miss Ella McMunn, Mrs. Frances Whitehead, Mrs. Byron F. Bruns, Mrs. Burton A. Myers, Miss Louie Watson, Miss Lucille Elliott, Miss Carol S. Dibble, Miss Lucille Saunders, Miss Dorris Sikes and Miss Gertrude Robison.

Coming as a complete surprise to her many Salem friends was the announcement of the marriage on February 16th of Miss Alice Blake to Charles A. Butz of Modesto, California. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Blake of Willow Lake, Salem, and is well known in the Capital city, having formerly been connected with one of the leading business firms here.

Mr. and Mrs. Butz will be at home to their friends, after May 1st, at 215 W. Grove avenue, Modesto, California.

Mrs. Alexander Thompson, representative from Wasco county, was the guest of Superintendent and Mrs. S. M. Gilbert yesterday when she visited the reform school and addressed the boys there. Mrs. Thompson finds time while being interested in women jurors and school teachers, to be an enthusiast over child welfare work.

Mrs. Marjorie Kay, who has been visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Kay, has returned to Eugene.

Mr. and Mrs. George J. Cooper of Portland spent the week end with Mrs. Cooper's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. A. Meyer, at their home on the Wallace road. Mr. and Mrs. Meyer also had as their guests another daughter and her husband, and of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. H. Forrester.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Monroe Gilbert of Portland were Salem visitors over the week end.

Wonderful Results At 70 From Internal Baths

Mrs. L. M. Wadlin, 2043 National ave., San Diego, Cal., writes Tyrrell's Hygienic Institute of New York as follows:

"Within the last month have had wonderful results, and all inflammation has nearly subsided. I could hardly expect a woman over 70 to receive benefit from a trouble of long standing as quickly as a younger person. Money could not buy my 'J. B. L. Cascade' if I could not get another."

It is difficult to believe how many internal troubles internal bathing will relieve until you realize that physicians agree that 90 per cent of human ailments are caused by accumulated waste in the lower intestine.

The "J. B. L. Cascade" the scientific method of internal bathing, removes, in a perfectly natural way, all poisonous waste, and has been so successful in promoting health that over half a million intelligent Americans are now using it regularly.

It is the invention of Chas. A. Tyrrell, M. D., of New York, who for 25 years was a specialist on Internal Bathing, and it is now being shown and explained by Daniel J. Fry, wholesale druggist and mfg. pharmacist, Salem, Ore.

They will give you on request a very interesting booklet on Internal Bathing by Dr. Tyrrell, "Why Man of Today is Only 50 per Cent Efficient." Ask for it today and know more about yourself and your functions than you ever have before.

and roll call will be answered with quotations from Abraham Lincoln.

At a daintily appointed dinner last Wednesday evening, at the home of Mrs. Nora Kaufman of Hubbard, the engagement of Miss Leda Henderson to Howard B. Freeland of Salem was announced. A delicate color scheme of pink and green was carried out in the decorations, the beautiful pink cyclamen that adorned the center of the table adding greatly to the effect. A delightful evening was spent, the chief feature being the musical program furnished by the guests. Those present were, Mrs. Nora Kaufman, Mrs. Henderson, Mrs. Caroline Thompson, Mrs. Vera Johnson, Miss Leda Henderson, Miss Frances Yoder, Miss Betta Joseph, Miss Hazel Seelye, Miss Esther Landstrom, Miss Grace Pratt, Miss Lois Simms, Miss Henrietta Weller and Miss Rena Kauffman.

Miss Henderson is a Salem girl, having graduated from the local high school with the class of 1914 and numbers a great many Salem people among her friends. Recently she has been filling the position of instructor in various Marion county schools.

Miss Frances Byron and Kenneth and Dorothy Belle Gray, of Jefferson, were the week end guests of Miss Leda Henderson.

All the senators and some of the press correspondents at the state house were the guests of Senator W. T. Vinton of McMinnville Friday evening at the Marion hotel.

Miss Dorris Sikes was the guest of her parents over the week end.

Miss Ruth Kanteberg of Portland was a week end guest of friends and relatives in Salem. Miss Kanteberg graduated with the class of 1917 of the Salem high school, and is now employed as stenographer in the office of the Albina Engine and Machine Works of Portland.

Mrs. S. W. Cook and daughter, Miss Cook, left this morning for Portland, where Miss Cook will appear before a Portland audience in a song recital this evening.

stillness. This sight was so impressive that there were few dry eyes on board or ashore. The first wave of expression passed and the warship rang with laughter and hurrahs.

Men not among them who arrived on the Pacific said that the 3d Oregon had won the name of a prize regiment in France. Times without number they have been commended and they hold the record on promotions from the ranks, having had in the regiment 125 commissions.

Laird Woods Long at Front
"Have we had any adventures?" asked Lieutenant Roy Ogletree of Portland, speaking for the Salem company. "Well, I should say so!"

"Shake hands with Corporal Laird Woods of Dallas. He has been at the front all the time as a casual. We just got him back in time to bring him home with us."

"Right You bet, I fought," said Corporal Woods. "And I am glad to get out of it and back home. It was great while it lasted, but it was tiring, and that is no profanity. The other words you will have to excuse, 18 months in France, makes me forget how to talk to our own women. But let me tell you we are rough fellows now, but we know what home and our women mean to us now."

So the talk went on. The boys wanted most of all to know when they could get home. Asked if he knew the Salem boys' names abroad "by heart," Ray Atterbury replied:

"Oregon Girls Best, Say Boys. 'No, but I know the Salem girls, by heart, and there's none like our Oregon girls.'"

First Lieutenant Louis Compton and Francis Banta, of his home town, agreed. There, too, was Victor Bradson to tell just how the French girl failed to equal the Oregon maid.

"But some of you must have married French girls!" someone protested.

"Well, if they did," said Ferris Abbott, "we just disapprove of their judgment."

War Souvenirs Brought Home
Abbott was the happy recipient of a message delivered to him by the Oregon committee from his brother, who is stationed at Pelham. Sergeant Wilis Bartlett of Newberg and Harry Fraser of Salem, are souvenir shoppers de luxe and displayed a German helmet and other trophies.

NEIGHBORS ALL TALKING ABOUT IT

Spivy Says Wife Does Work First Time In 12 Years.—Gains 28 Pounds.

"You ought to hear the way our neighbors are talking about Tanlae since my wife's recovery," said W. A. Spivy, motorman No. 95, for the Kansas City Metropolitan Street Railway and a valued employee of the company for twenty three years. He and his wife and interesting family of children, live in their own home at 116 South Church St., Olathe, Kansas. "Mrs. Spivy has been in poor health for fourteen years," he continued, "and almost every month during that time she was under treatment of some sort, but she never got any relief that we could notice. She had no appetite and there were mighty few things she could eat and what little she did force down soured on her stomach and gas would form and make her so miserable that she would have to lie down for awhile. She almost always had a awful pain in the small of her back and she suffered from bleeding headaches and sometimes she would be so dizzy she would have to sit her hand on something to steady like the back of a chair, to keep from falling. She suffered from nervousness so that some nights she could hardly sleep at all and she never did know what it was to get a good night's rest. She kept growing weaker and weaker and was so bad off that twice in the past six years she was given up to die. We thought we had tried everything to help her and didn't know what else to do when a lady friend of hers told about Tanlae. I bought the first bottle about three months ago and almost at once she began to show her strength was coming back, but the wonderful improvement has been in the past two months. "She has a good appetite now, and can eat anything she wants like apples, cabbage, peas and meats, of any kind. Anyone of these things before she began to take Tanlae were just like poison to her. She doesn't suffer a bit from sour stomach or gas and she gets so much good from what she eats that she has gained twenty eight pounds in the past two months. She is entirely rid of that pain in her back and the headaches are gone, too. Nobody could tell that anything had been the matter with her nerves they are so quiet now, and she sleeps about nine hours every night. She has gotten so strong that she is doing all the housework for our family of six and doesn't mind it a bit, and it is the first time in twelve years that she has been able to do any work at all. She is more like she used to be fifteen years ago than I ever hoped to see her and I feel just like everybody else that knows of her improvement that Tanlae is the best medicine ever made."

Tanlae is sold in Hubbard by Hubbard Drug Co., in Mt. Angel by Ben Good, in Gervais by John Kelly, in Turner by H. P. Cornelius, in Woodburn by Lyman H. Sherry, in Salem by Dr. S. C. When it came to the bill increasing the salary of the district attorney for Columbia county, Senator Banks begged various senators, calling them by name, to change their position and vote with him to save the bill. The vote was taken, and while Senator Huston switched and voted with him, the majority was still on the other side and the bill was killed.

For the spectators, there were many thrills in the afternoon's session, while for the public officials whose salary bills were being slaughtered there was no sport in the proceedings at all, the whole affair was a rotten shame.

Some Corset Truths for Women to Consider

It is not an easy task to reshape a neglected figure into shapely lines. Neglected or poor corsetry allows little bumps, angles or hollows to mar the figure lines.

To smooth out these inequalities a properly designed corset and the use of proper materials in the corset will re-create the figure.

MODART CORSETS Front Laced are poise designed. The designer of the MODART Corset makes all MODART Corsets give proper poise to the figure and then designs the corset to symmetrical artistic proportions.

Women with badly poised figures can never be grace ful-try as they may. If proper poise is lacking, the grace is lacking too.

So whether you are tall or short, stout or slender, you can have the carriage that will show your figure and your clothes to the greatest possible advantage if you will adopt the MODART Corset.

We ask you to accept a trial fitting, which costs you nothing, and you will immediately see why social leaders, famous actresses and beautiful women generally wear the MODART.
