Director Chata, of the Business Men's League, requests that all business men and employers of labor in the city who have present or prospective vacancies in their places, will leave their names with Mrs. Frank K. Brown at the registration office at the court house, as she has volunteered to act for the returning soldier boys in the matter of securing work. Each one who registers, is questioned as to his circumstances and as to whether or he will be in need of employment. The business men may be of direct assistance to her and to the boys by stating their requirements or prospects.

Chas Willman, who for several years past has been at the desk of the Bligh hotel as the dispenser of affability and accommodation, is booked for separation from that resort next Monday having signed up a contract with Proprietor Westlund of Hotel Holland, in Medford, to assume the management of that house. Mr. Westlund is heavily engaged in the fruit industry in his district and cannot devote himself to the hotel, and Mr. Willman will have complete charge at a flattering salary. He has added much to the popularity of the Bligh

Informal Millinery Opening

We are now showing some of our most exclusive models of early Spring Hats and Bonnets which we are sure will meet your approval.

The Millinery of Spring is colorful and Smart-- perfect "loves" every one of them. Drooping brims that half conceal, half reveal the graceful lines of the head wearers--smart, irregular shapes that add dash and chic models and copies of models--flowers and drooping veils.

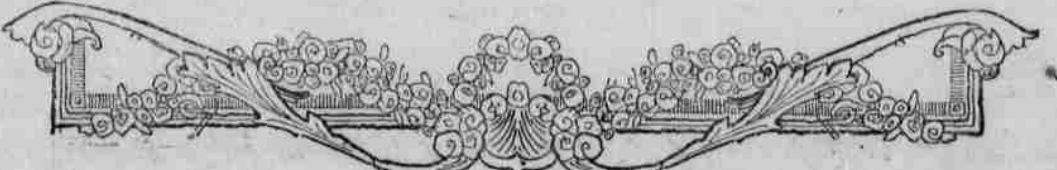

We also have some very clever models in Misses hats combined with fancy trimmings.

The actual work of the Armenian relief campaign will open tomorrow, the necessary cards and other supplies having been delayed. Some work is being done in the business section today. Chairman Aldrich reports that the public is taking hold of the benevolence in good spirits, for they have been impressed with the urgency of the call. There is a gratifying offer of help from former solicitors as well as new ones, and it appears there will be no lack of help in the canvass. The first report of a quota raised comes from the Aurora district, where the people have not only done their part but are still going on with the work.
