FRENCH BAND CONCERT WAS GREAT SUCCESS

Held Audience From First Of Star Spangled Banner To Last Of "Over There."

From the first majestic strains of The Star Spangled Banner and the inspiring La Marseillaise, to the playing of the only great late American war song, "Over There," the famous French band which played last night to 2000 people in the armory, had the closest attention of all. And not only that, but it had the most enthusiastic approval of all as shown by the repeated encores.

And then the audience was in a wonderfully fine humor even if the concert did not begin until about 10 o'clock, as the men and director were truly French and lived up to the average idea of what a French band should be.

The director, famous on the battle field as well as a graduate of the Conservatory of Music at Paris, was there with the correct French gestures and the swaying and the emphatic beating of time as his famous musicians were led up to the fortissimo passages. For even the man who is such a musical barbarian as to be unable to distinguish between an American and a French national anthem, could not but feel that the French players were something different.

Wouldn't Give Encore.
 Musicians are temperamental and not supposed to be guided by the ways and customs of the average individual. Hence when Georges True was not quite satisfied with the Kranich & Bach grand piano, an instrument of unusual beauty of tone, he refused to respond to an encore and refused to appear on the program the second time. But Georges, he of the rounded musical forehead and temple and the true look of the musician, was such a fine pianist that the audience goodnaturedly forgave him, even if it did give him the most enthusiastic encore of the evening.

The audience was given a program most appropriate. Instead of going into the long heavy stuff, Bach and Beethoven and such, the conductor presented a program mostly of military airs and selections played on the battlefield. It pleased the immense audience as there was truly a dash and a fine spirit so truly French.

And now the Salem Unit American War Mothers will have sufficient funds to properly prepare an appropriate home coming for the boys of Company M who were overseas. There is credit due to the patriotic and energetic business men who brought the band to the city and who dug deep into their pockets in order that the entire receipts of the concert should be given to the War Mothers.

PASSED MANY LAWS.

The legislature just closed exceeded all records of bills passed, although lagging behind the three preceding sessions for the number of bills introduced. The number of bills finally passed was 436 out of 821 introduced, or over 50 percent passed. As to the number of bills: in 1917 886 bills were introduced and only 427 passed, while in 1915 830 were introduced and 349 passed. The high water mark for new bills was the 1913 session, when 971 were introduced and 389 passed. The following statistics on the the sessions from and including 1909 were prepared by deputy secretary of state, Krozer:
 Senate bills introduced—1909, 202; 1911, 307; 1913, 338; 1915, 315; 1917, 318; 1919, 299.
 House bills introduced—1909, 365; 1911, 418; 1913, 515; 1915, 568; 1917, 532.
 Total bills introduced—1909, 627; 1911, 725; 1913, 971; 1915, 830; 1917, 886; 1919, 821.
 Total bills passed and filed in the office of secretary of state—1909, 233; 1911, 275; 1913, 389; 1915, 349; 1917, 427; 1919, 436.

U. OF O. WINS AT BERKELEY.

Berkeley, Calif., March 6.—Teamwork by the University of Oregon quintet won last night's basketball game from the University of California by a score of 39 to 37. After finishing a poor second in the first half, the visitors tied the score in the second half, and won in an additional five minute period. Durso starred for Oregon.

LONG WEAR AND ECONOMY

"Last year I purchased a standard make of shoes, and in sixty days the soles were worn through. I had them re-soled with Neolin Soles—which lasted me six months in the same service that wore out the other soles in two," writes E. A. Lancaster of Lancaster & Company, Jewelers, Greenville, Tenn.
 Mr. Lancaster's experience with Neolin Soles is not unusual. Millions of people can testify to their long wear and economy. To reduce your shoe expense, buy Neolin-soled shoes. You can get them in many styles for every member of the family.
 Neolin Soles are created by Science to be comfortable and waterproof as well as long wearing. Good repair shops carry them. They are made by The Goodyear Tire & Rubber Co., Akron, Ohio, who also make Wingfoot Heels—guaranteed to outwear all other heels.
