IMPORTANT—Did you read the splendid offer made by the Pleasant Northwest Products Co. in the States man and Journal of yesterday, offering to contract for berries if not you had better read it, you can net from $100 to $250 per acre raising berries on good soil, near Salem. I have some splendid land suitable for growing berries but do not want to depend on hired help to set and care for them. Therefore will sell very choice berry land in 10 to 40 acre tracts located 3 miles from Salem for $125 to $250 per acre, on reasonable terms. It is very choice land located on a good road. See me at once if you want any of it. JOHN H. SCOTT 404 Hubbard bldg.

University Of Oregon Five Pacific Coast Champions Berkeley, Cal., March 7.—Adopting labor saving methods, the University of Oregon basketballs are today the Pacific coast conference champions, taking two straight games from California and making the third unnecessary. Oregon's superiority was more marked than last night's 30-28 score would indicate. Several times the Bears would get off on an apparent winning streak but the northerners would tighten up and by superior team work pile up a small lead. Durno, Oregon's amative forward, demonstrated almost unanny ability in shooting baskets and his team mates played to give him plenty of chances.

DIED KAMMLER—George Lafayette, the 11 day old son of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Kammler at their home, 918 Pine a west Salem, March 6, 1919. The funeral services were held this afternoon and burial was in the Odd Fellows cemetery.

Taylorville, Ill.—The dignity of a "emp shooter" is a thing not lightly to be tampered with, says William Moleksky asking $5,000 for four days jail confinement after he had pleaded guilty.
