Travels Of The Regiment Which Made Oregon Famous

The 162nd regiment trained 27,000 men for trench duty. The old Third Oregon was mobilized at Vancouver barracks March 27, 1917, under Colonel John L. May, who will return to this city Monday with a detachment of the regiment now being mustered out at Camp Lewis.

After Your Baby Is Born

Think Now About the Time to Come Afterwards.

When you hold in your arms your tiny new infant, be sure that you can feel that before its arrival you did all in your power to give it a happy and healthy future.

For over half a century thousands of women who have used the time-honored remedy, Mother's Friend, say that they entirely escaped nausea, nervousness and that peculiar distressing feeling so usual where nature is unaided. They thus preserved a wonderfully bright and happy disposition, which reflects so markedly upon the unborn child.

By the regular use of Mother's Friend the venues are made and kept soft and elastic to readily yield to nature's demand for expansion without the usual wrenching strain. The nerves are not drawn upon, and as a consequence the expectant mother is calm and serene and the nights are not disturbed with nervous twitchings, and the crisis is one of joy and happiness.

Write the Bradford Regulator Company, Dept. B, Lamar Building, Atlanta, Georgia, for their Mother's Friend, a book of value to every woman, and get a bottle of Mother's Friend from your druggist and begin a treatment that will bring real results.

From Vancouver barracks it went to Camp Withycombe, having been federalized and having had its name changed to the 162nd regiment on August 5th. Shoving away from Camp Withycombe on September 12th it arrived at Camp Greene (Charlotte, N. C.) on October 2 and after an intensive training there proceeded to Camp Mills, N. Y., from where the trip to France was commenced.

The jaunt across the briny was under way December 12, the men embarking at Hoboken. One section arrived at St. Nazaire, France, Dec. 27, and the other at Liverpool, England, on Christmas day, 1917. All eventually arrived at St. Albans, Contres and Bordeaux, the former place being headquarters for Dist. No. 1 of the first depot division.

The band of the old 3rd Oregon turned in their instruments at Camp Dix. "It seems a pity," said Lieut. Schur last night. "We had one of the best bands in Europe and it received favorable comment wherever we went. Unless when we get reorganized we will have to dig up instruments for the men."

Officers are transferred. "When we entered upon our work as part of the personnel of the 1st depot division the old 3rd Oregon was 'gutted,' as it were. Practically every officer and every non-commissioned officer was transferred to the depot division, while the privates were from April 20, 1918, on used for replacement with the first and second divisions. Many of them are now plowing up ditches or wounded for they wrote Oregon history at Chateau Thierry, St. Mihiel and on other battle-fields."

Councilman and Mrs. Henry J. Taylor narrowly escaped death when their automobile was struck and demolished by a freight train Tuesday at Pendleton.

SOCIETY.

By GERTRUDE ROBINSON

The vesper services at the Y. W. C. A. were resumed for the spring season yesterday afternoon. Those in attendance were fortunate in listening to a splendid treat dramatically and musically. Mrs. Leland Porter, post graduate of the Emerson College of Oratory, Boston, delighted her hearers with a splendid interpretation of "The End of the Task," one of the short stories found in Bruno Lessing's book, "The Children of Men." The story pictured a scene from the lives of Russian Jews living in a great city. Mrs. Porter's rendition of the story was vivid and real, portraying accurately the joy and pathos found in the lives of the extreme poor. As a reader, Mrs. Porter's work is characterized by animation, ease and naturalness and her experience on the chautauqua and lyceum platforms has given her poise and authority.

The musical numbers on the program were groups of songs sung by the Salem ladies' quartet, Mrs. Leonia Peterson first soprano, Mrs. Arthur Bahn second soprano, Miss Margaret Hodge, first alto, Miss Lena Belle Tartar second alto and director, Miss Dorothy Pearce, accompanist.

Friends and former pupils of John Claire Monteith will be interested to know that April 11 has been chosen as the date for the concert at which John Claire Monteith, baritone, will be assisting soloist in Monmouth. The concert will be given by the music department of the Oregon state normal school under the direction of Miss Marie Schuetto, who will direct the production of "The Mound Builders" (Paul Bliss). The concert was originally planned for early in the season, but owing to conditions was postponed until this time.

One of the most charming events of the junior social set was the dancing party given recently by Mr. and Mrs. William Esh in honor of the sixteenth birthday of their daughter, Dorothy. Pussycats and ferns formed the decorations, and delicious refreshments were served. Those invited were Misses Francis Ward, Mona Schaum, Elsie Victor, Maylie Hunter, Rita Claggett, Mary West, Jeanette Jones, Margaret White, Caroline East, Florence Esh, Frank Brown, Ael Eoff, Frank Chapman, Frank Deeksbach, Harold Moon, Lowell White, Kennan Bell, William Gasser Theodore Purvine, Geddin and Malcolm Smith.

Mrs. H. Haid and daughter, Usnon, left for Portland today for a week's visit with friends. While they are there, arrangements will be made for Miss Haid to enter the nurses training school at St. Vincent's hospital.

REAL ESTATE ACTIVE.

A number of properties in the Stayton vicinity have been sold in the past few days. Some of the deal made by Geo. A. Smith, our local real estate man, are the Rudolph Kus, farm of 150 acres sold to Joseph Hendricks; the John Heiderer farm of 107 acres sold to J. A. Wourms and the Trotter corner to E. T. Mathieu.

A couple of other farms have been sold, but details are yet unobtainable. George has been working over time the last month as is evidenced by the sales he has made. He reports that he has several other buyers with whom he can do business providing he can get good farms for them at prices that seem right to them.—Mail.

Investigation Of All Courts-Martial During War Has Been Ordered

Washington, March 10.—Investigation of all courts-martial during the war has been ordered. Judge Advocate General Crowder in a letter to Secretary of War Baker has stated that the inspector general of the army will proceed with the work immediately.

Crowder defended the system of court martial, replying to charges of cruelty made recently by Brigadier General Ansell, for a time acting judge advocate general. Army officers taken from all walks of life administered military justice during the war, Crowder stated, and penalties fixed were authorized by congress.

Secretary Baker, writing to Crowder, stated that while he was confident the faults set forth in criticisms do not exist an investigation is necessary to reassure families of all men who fought in the war.

Should see that the whole family take at least 3 or 4 doses of a thorough purifying system cleaning medicine this spring. Now is the time. The family will be healthier, happier, and get along better if the blood is given a thorough purifying, and the germs of winter, accumulated in the system, driven away. Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea is one of the very best and surest spring medicines to take. Get it and see the difference in the whole family. Their color will be better, they'll feel fine and be well and happy. D. J. Fry.
