The Cherrian dance to be given at the armory next Wednesday evening is to be an invitational affair. That is, those who would like to attend are asked to secure regular invitations from some of their Cherrian friends. This is the dance that was postponed in February in order not to interfere with the dance given by Company M. It is to be an informal affair, although of course all Cherrians there will wear the regulation white with the red tie. 14

Cancer Is Cured--

Captain P. F. Clark, prominent resident of Polk county, whose address is route 1, Salem, Ore., tells personal experience:

To anyone suffering with cancer: I was afflicted with cancer of the lower lip for one and one half years to my great discomfort and worry. I applied to D. S. C. Stone here in Salem for relief.

He applied a paste for four days, then a simple ointment, and in a few days the cancer fell out. My lip healed up perfectly. CAPT. P. F. CLARK, Route 1, Salem, Oregon.

The above is but one of several cases of cancer I have cured in Salem recently.

Is Still Uncertain When Boys Of Co. M Will Arrive

Up to a late hour this afternoon, no word had been received from the Salem members of Company M who are supposed to arrive in the city this evening.

It was thought that the boys would be mustered out at Camp Lewis at 9 o'clock this morning and would arrive in Portland at 3 o'clock this afternoon. However, no telegram had been received up to 3 o'clock this afternoon stating when they would arrive and plans are up in the air. Everything depends, as far as the reception committee is concerned, on whether word is received late this afternoon.

Should the wire be received, with news that the boys will be home this evening, the public will be notified by the blowing of the firehouse siren and the ringing of church bells. It is the plan to have this announcement made at least 30 minutes before the train with the Salem soldiers arrives.

It is also uncertain whether they will come on the Southern Pacific or the Oregon Electric.

If the boys do get in this evening, the old plans hold good. This is true, the Salem people meet them at the depot. The march to the courthouse is to be led by the Cherrian band, then the G. A. R., as an escort and then the returning soldiers. The people of the city who happen to be there to meet them, are requested to fall in behind, in the march to the courthouse. The program will close with a short address at the courthouse by Judge Lawrence T. Harris.

Pick A Prosperous Man!

How do you pick a prosperous man? Don't you judge him by the clothes and by the little things in the way of personal equipment? If he wears a brassy looking watch chain, do you believe he is really prosperous? If his timepiece and its attachments look as if they came from a five-and-ten store or a third rate pawn shop, do you think of him as a money maker?

Do you think a prosperous or a successful business man is going to wear a piker timepiece?

Get a good watch and chain and show a proper pride in wearing them. People will see them and think the better of you. They will bring up your own self-respect and encourage the development of characteristics that will help.

To be prosperous look prosperous! To look prosperous, dress the part. A prosperous looking watch and chain need not cost a lot of money; say from $18 up.
