

For Constipation! Physic Purge or Laxative?

Everyone now and then becomes constipated, and millions are chronically in that condition. The perplexing question arises—what to use.

Purgatives and cathartics are drastic and usually cause a reaction. Saline waters are rapid in action but do no more than empty the bowels.

Just as certain an effect, and certainly a much more pleasant one, can be obtained by the use of a combination of simple laxative herbs with pepsin sold by druggists under the name of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. It acts gently, without griping. It is an especially ideal medicine for children, women, old people and others who find purges too powerful.

Only a teaspoonful is required, and by morning the movement is free and complete. A bottle in the house is insurance for the whole family against constipation, indigestion, headaches, flatulency and other digestive ills.

The druggist will refund your money if it fails to do as promised.

PRICE AS ALWAYS

In spite of greatly increased laboratory costs due to the war, by sacrificing profits and absorbing our losses we have maintained the price at which this family laxative has been sold by druggists for the past 26 years. Two sizes—5c and $1.00.

Noted Jewish Rabbi Will Lecture Here

Rabbi Goldman, the noted Jewish lecturer who made a tour of Oregon last year in a series of lectures in behalf of the Red Cross, stopped in Salem today on his way to Albany and other points. He is arranging for a series of addresses in this city Sunday, taking as his subject "Bolshevism in Russia." He is now lecturing under the direction of the Jewish Missionary Society, whose chief object is the restoration of the Jewish nation in Palestine. Rabbi Goldman suffered the loss of both family and property in Russia at the hands of the Bolshevist element, and his only remaining son was killed last year in military service in France. His one remaining pathetic hope is to be able to "go back home" to Palestine to spend his last years with his own people.

HARBOR WORKERS DEADLOCK

New York, Mar. 18.—Striking harbor workers and private boat owners were deadlocked today as a result of owners' refusal to grant an eight hour day and recognition of the Marine Workers' Affiliation. Although a number of private owners have agreed to the terms granted the men by the railroad administration, there are still more than 4000 harbor workers out. Fourteen crews of tugs chartered by the army and navy walked out last night as a result of not receiving the increase granted workers by these departments last week.

RUSH CAIRO STATION

Cairo, Mar. 18.—Three thousand rioters attempted to rush the railway station at Tanta. Egyptian police fired on them, inflicting 22 casualties.

Rioting by Egyptian nationalists began in Cairo and vicinity last week, following the deportation of several of their leaders. Tanta is 64 miles northwest of Cairo.

SHAMROCKS DIDN'T COME

Washington, March 17.—There is a blue funk in Irish circles at the White House. The quota of St. Patrick's shamrocks usually sent Secretary Tumulty, Thomas Braheuy and other of the well known sons of Erin at the executive offices, for some reason failed to appear this year. Lack of shipping space is attributed as the cause.

CHERRIANS DO "LIGHT FANTASTIC" TOMORROW

To Go To This Event One Must Maneuver To Get Personal Invitation.

If you have a Cherrian friend do not fail to look him up and broach the subject of dancing. It would not be improper to remind him of the big Cherrian dance to be given at the many tomorrow night and intimate that it is the desire of your life to take it in. If he has not a heart of steel he will speak right up and tell you that it affords him the greatest pleasure to have you and your lady friend as his special guests for the evening.

Owing to the hurried manner in which the dance was arranged no time has been allowed to have special invitations printed but every Cherrian is authorized to extend verbal invitations to his personal friends.

Invited guests will be required to give the name of the Cherrian who extended the honor to the ticket-taker at the door.

This dance was the one originally arranged and announced for February 19 but was postponed out of deference to the Company M, Third Regiment ball. It is for the benefit of the Cherrian organization whose funds have become sadly depleted on account of the heavy drain occasioned by patriotic drives and other benefits of a local public nature. The best of music has been engaged for the occasion and the most perfect dance of the season is promised and guaranteed. Cherrians are required to appear in full regulation uniform and those of the guests who desire may wear formal costumes, although the affair will be semi-formal and everybody will be made to feel at home.

HUN DIGNITARIES LEARN ONE LESSON

Colonel Hunt Refused To Deal With Secretaries Of Town Officials.

By Webb Miller.

(United Press Staff Correspondent.) Coblenz, Feb. 13.—(By Mail.)—The Prussian provincial and city authorities at Coblenz got an unpleasant surprise when they tried to equivocate with the American officers in charge of civil affairs. Now they are working in harmony and evidently with a wholesome respect for the straight-from-the-shoulder method of the Americans.

After taking charge of the civil affairs end of the occupation, Maj. L. L. Hunt sent for the president of the province and the burgo-master for conference. At the appointed hour the secretary of each of the dignitaries showed up at the conference room to represent these officials. Col. Hunt immediately sent them back with a message that the president and the burgo-master should present themselves in person at his office within a half hour. In about 10 minutes the indignant officials appeared, protesting that their secretaries were empowered to speak for them.

Gave Them Advice. "When your secretaries have any business over here, they are at liberty to see my secretary," Col. Hunt told them, "but when I send for you I want you." Then he gave the ruffled officials a bit of advice. In the midst of his talk the president arose and announced that he was forced to leave to keep an important appointment.

"What is this important appointment?" Col. Hunt asked. The Prussian declared that it was a very important conference with a "man from home." "Sit down!" Hunt ordered. "There is only one more important appointment that you can have, and that is with General Diekmann, commanding this army."

The uneasy official sat down and listened with attention to the remainder of Col. Hunt's speech. "You fellows needn't presume because we treat you decently that it is a sign of weakness on our part. It is merely an indication of our patience. Our patience is not endless. Your government presumed upon our patience once too often in time past, and it lost you the war."

With these words ringing in their ears the two officials departed. Since that time they have cooperated with the American officers to the best of their ability.

COURT HOUSE.

The case of Sears against Dancer which has been on trial in the circuit court Monday and today, closed this afternoon. It was thought that the case could be tried in one day but the ins and outs of a farm account and lease that extended over a period of nine years without an accounting could not be unraveled in one day. The case went to the jury late this afternoon.

Judge Bushey has made no disposition of the case of the two youths Lloyd Zachary and Gilbert Lyons, who succeeded in passing so many forged checks Saturday last on the merchants of Salem. He has sent in for the parents of the boys and will not make disposition of the matter until things are talked over. It just so happens that the state training school for boys is pretty well crowded and cannot accommodate any more boys. The late legislature refused to appropriate more money for the school although Superintendent Gilbert asked the ways and means committee for funds with which to build an addition.

John A. Leslie was given a divorce from Beryl Leslie. They were married at Fossil, Or., in 1912 and she deserted him in 1915. She was given custody of the one minor child and he is to pay $8 a month towards its support.

The estate of John Hagenbauer, who died Feb. 29, 1919, is valued at $8400 in real estate and $4500 personal property. The widow Josephine Hagenbauer was appointed executrix by the will.

The estate of Helen Howard who died Feb. 18, 1919, will be appraised by W. A. Liston, Albia Richmond and Mrs. J. R. Boyell.

The five heirs of Pauline Neugebauer have signed a stipulation asking the county court to approve of the final account and statement as free by the administrator.

The decision to resume the manufacture of light beer was made by the Lager Beer Brewers' Board of Trade at
