

New Shoe And Clothing Store To Open In Salem

Another shoe and clothing store will soon be open in Salem at 141 North Commercial street. This is the store room formerly occupied by G. W. Johnson & Co., and later by a five and ten cent store. The fixtures are being remodelled to suit the new business which will advertise as the Salem Sample Store. It is one of the 25 stores owned by the J. C. Breier Co., with headquarters at Lewiston, Idaho. Included in the chain of stores, branches have already been opened at Albany, Medford, Eugene and Cottage Grove in the valley, besides at several places in the eastern part of the state. L. T. Larsen, who has made a remarkable success of the store at Albany will have charge of the business here as local manager. Mr. Larsen says that he will open for business early in April. The opening of this store is another evidence that Salem is regarded as a most satisfactory business point.

"Best Health In Years" - From Internal Baths

Miss Frances Herrod, care of Plunkett-Jarrell Grocery Co., Little Rock, Ark., writes Tyrrell's Hygienic Institute of New York as follows: "I am very glad to tell you that I am more than pleased with the results obtained from the use of the 'J. B. L. Cascade,' and am in better health than I have been in years." This is but one of thousands of the same kind of letters received by Dr. Chas. A. Tyrrell of New York, the inventor of the "J. B. L. Cascade." By a purely natural process of properly using warm water, the "J. B. L. Cascade" removes all the poisonous waste from the lower intestine, which physicians agree is the cause of 95 per cent of all human ailments. Daniel J. Fry, wholesale druggist and mfg. pharmacist, Salem, Oregon, has filled an enormous demand for "J. B. L. Cascade" in the past few years, and will show and explain it to you on request. An interesting booklet on Internal Bathing—"Why Man of Today is Only 50 per cent Efficient"—can be obtained at their store free of any cost.

While the Red Cross is putting on a drive for clothing which includes men's wear, the suggestion has been made that the good housewife as well as the mother should be a little careful in not handing out the second best suit of the man of the house. And also a little cautious in handing out a pair of shoes that the man might find handy when he comes home. The returning soldier may keep his uniform, but the fact is, when the boys come back and everything is over, they are anxious to get into civilian clothing. In many instances when the soldier did come back, he has found that his best civilian suit that he left is missing and also a pair of shoes that might have come in handy. Hence due caution has been suggested to the housekeeper in giving away men's clothes that may be needed when the soldier comes home.

About three and a half years ago there appeared at the opera house Sir J. Forbes-Robertson in the play "Passing of the Third Floor Back." Those who were so fortunate as to see the famous English actor remember the event and the show as one of the most notable ones that had come to the city. Now Sir J. Forbes-Robertson will appear again in Salem but this time it is in the movies and he will be shown in the same play that was presented here. It is on at the Liberty theater for three days beginning tonight.

Notwithstanding so many other attractions in the city this evening, the indications are that the Symphony concert tonight at the opera house will be given to a large audience. Those who heard the rehearsal last evening pronounce the concert to be one of the best home talent musical events ever given in the city.

The Capital City Cooperative Creamery has moved from Court street to 137 South Commercial street, directly opposite the office of the Capital Journal and is now ready to meet its customers in its new headquarters. W. J. Kent, formerly of Corvallis, recently elected manager is now in charge of the office.

J. A. Kaufman of American Falls, a friend of F. B. Wedel of the Deaconess hospital, has been in the city a few days looking for a location. He was greatly impressed with the business possibilities in Salem and vicinity and returned to American Falls with the intention of making his home in this city as soon as he can arrange his affairs.

The Elks lodge has a special program on this evening which is to be divided into three parts. The first is several initiations, the second, an address by Charles Burggraf of Albany, district deputy and the third a Johnny Jones lay out.

The two boys who escaped from the reform school and caused so much trouble in the south part of the city are still at large. And the same may be said of "Red" Rupert, the convict from Portland who escaped a few days ago from the lime plant at Gold Hill. If Rupert is captured, he will not only serve out the remaining years of his term, but will be tried on a charge of felony, as the last legislature passed a law providing that an escape or attempt to escape from the penitentiary was a felony. Before this law was passed it was not a crime to escape or attempt to escape from the pen, or to assist a prisoner to escape.

The Pig club of the United States National bank, of which George W. Eyre is general manager, will meet Saturday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock in the auditorium of the Commercial club. Arrangements have been made by Mr. Eyre for several interesting speakers. This pig club includes boys and girls from both Marion and Polk counties. A special effort is being made to interest several boys and girls from Polk county in this club. It is estimated that about 100 will be in attendance.

One speeder was landed yesterday. This time it was H. N. Hoppes who was found going something over 20 miles an hour about 9 o'clock last evening on North Fifth street. The evening was pleasant, the moon was shining and Mr. Hoppes didn't realize that he was taking his Ford over the legal limit of fast traveling. It cost him $5.

Miss Nellie Fullerton Glass and Mrs. Lucy Fullerton Bradner are guests at the Marion hotel. They will remain in the city a few days visiting friends and relatives.

Miss Rose Powell, a graduate nurse of the Salem hospital is visiting friends in the city. She is now associated with the government hospital at the O. A. C.

Miss Leona Graber, who has been visiting in Ashland with her sister, has returned.

Mrs. R. H. Robertson who has been at the home of her parents, Judge and Mrs. Henry L. Benson, has returned to her home in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Syverson of Gates registered at the Bligh. He is here attending court.

Court House

The jury returned a verdict in favor of the defendant in the case just tried in the circuit court entitled Ella C. Underwood, executrix of the estate of L. C. Underwood, versus Isaac Conklin.

The defendant was also given a verdict in the case of Harry L. Bancroft versus the Sunnyside Mutual Telephone Co. Mr. Bancroft sued for damages of claiming that the telephone company had injured a tree.

The estate of Edna H. Wishart who died in California Feb. 3, 1919, is valued at about $2000, and on petition of G. A. Wishart, the county court appointed Roy H. Wise administrator. Mrs. Wishart is survived by the widower and two daughters, ages seven and three years.

The Richard H. Weller estate has been appraised at $2000 by W. C. Tillson, L. A. Tillson and O. E. Brooks.

In the divorce case of Grace E. Sears against Richard G. Sears, the defendant files a counter affidavit resisting suit money and attorney's fees. In an affidavit he states that he has been sending to his family $20 a week and that his wife has no grounds for her divorce suit.

KNOW VALERA'S HIDING PLACE Dublin, March 18.—The hiding place of Professor Edward De Valera, Sinn

Fein leader who escaped from Lincoln prison, is known to the police and the Irish constabulary, it was announced today. The authorities, however, have been ordered not to arrest him or the two Sinn Feiners who escaped from prison at the same time.
