

Keep Baby Well—

Feverish colds that distress the little ones, that cause difficult breathing, that irritate their sensitive little throats and give them troublesome disturbing coughs, are readily helped and soothed by Foley's Honey and Tar.

The wise mother gives it for croup, whooping cough, measles cough and bronchial coughs.

Foley's Honey and Tar is just as good for grown-ups as for children. For hoarseness, tickling throat, troublesome night coughs, la grippe coughs and chronic coughs of elderly people it is widely recommended. It contains no morphine, chloroform or other drug that you would not like to give to young children, delicate persons or elderly people. Do not accept a substitute.

"When our baby was 19 days old he took whooping cough in the worst form, and the paroxysms of cough almost overcame him. Our neighbor suggested Foley's Honey and Tar and that gave him almost immediate relief, for which we feel very grateful." Mrs. J. H. Hightower, Odessa, Texas.

"My baby was stricken with a severe cough and cold at one month old. I gave him 10 to 15 drops of Foley's Honey and Tar every three hours and it sure did help him." Mrs. B. H. Garrett, School Field, Va.

Clothing For Belgians To Be Collected By Auto

Automobile trucks will be used next Monday in collecting clothes for the Belgians and those of northern France who are in need of clothing. At the meeting held yesterday afternoon by the members of Willamette Chapter, Red Cross, it was decided to follow the plans of other clothing drives and collect by auto.

Arrangements have been made to use the building on North Commercial street formerly occupied by Pomeroy & Wallace and a telephone has been installed with the number 139.

Those who have clothing of value and worth shipping are asked to bring them to headquarters on North Commercial street, or telephone in order that autos may be sent out to collect.

The suggestion was made at the meeting yesterday afternoon that what was wanted was such clothing as the destitute people in Belgium and France could really use and the suggestion was also made that dancing pumps and discarded ball gowns would not exactly be appropriate for the rural folks in Belgium.

G. E. Halverson, who has charge of the Y. M. C. A. motor service in France told of his remarkable experiences in France and August Huestein urged that all should at least give some clothing to keep up the former record of Willamette chapter.

Henry W. Meyers, chairman of the chapter, spoke highly of the past record made by Willamette chapter, stating that in percentage of membership, Willamette chapter stood second in the northwest.

Mrs. Gladys Ditchford, who is chairman of the drive committee and secretary of the chapter, will be in charge of affairs at headquarters on North Commercial street. Those wishing information, are asked to telephone No. 139. It is understood that this will be perhaps the last drive in the way of clothing for sufferers from the war in northern France and Belgium.

Treasurer Hoff and wife returned from Portland last night, disappointed in not meeting their son who was expected to arrive there from Newport News. It turned out that he came through over the Milwaukee line, going directly to Camp Lewis. Hence they will not see him for several weeks.

Moore Bros. store at Turner was entered by burglars this morning about 4:30 o'clock and according to reports they succeeded in getting away with a collection of overalls and clothing. Two men were seen at that hour leaving the store and they appeared to be of the type of the old style traveling hoboes. Up to a late hour, this afternoon, no arrests had been made.

A. B. Corneli, representing the Oregon Life Insurance Co., was a recent visitor in the city, stopping off on his way to Portland from Grants Pass.

Oscar Stedhammer will direct and will be in the city by the middle of next month. The band will have as usual, 21 pieces.

There was a time when the farmer talked about the good old times, but D. A. White is inclined to think there is nothing in the good old time from the viewpoint of the farmer. For instance, he has a paper dated Sept. 6, 1901, about the time that President McKinley was assassinated. And in looking it over he naturally turned to the market reports. Here are a few prices he found. Wheat, 47 cents a bushel; oats 35 cents; clover hay, per ton $40; timothy hay per ton, $10, and flour, was selling at from 70 to 85 cents per sack of 49 pounds. When the farmer brought in his butter that year, he was glad to get from 15 to 17 cents a pound and eggs were 15 cents a dozen. Chickens brought from 6 to 7 cents a pound and pork was five cents. Steers brought three cents and cows two and one half cents. Dressed veal was sold for 6 1/2 cents, potatoes brought 50 cents a bushel and wool sold at from 11 to 13 cents a pound.

For magnificent leniency, police Judge Earl Race is said to carry the palm. According to an eye witness (who couldn't be hushed up) he was recently the victim of a most majestic, technical assault and battery disorderly conduct and abduction, all committed by a certain street car pilot in the space of a single block, and the man was not even given a reprimand. It is alleged that while the judge was jockeying his honorable automobile alongside a standing street car on State street some projection on his car caught on a similar projection on the electric car. Before he could back away the electric car started up and in spite of the frantic honking of the judge's horn he was dragged unceremoniously and ignominiously along the track for nearly a block before the car was stopped. It will probably never be known whether the motorman stopped as soon as he could or not, but the official is charitable enough to give him the benefit of the doubt.

J. Edgar Purdy of Portland is in the city in the interest of the Epworth League branch of the century movement being carried on by the Methodist church. Mr. Purdy states that there are 13,000 members of the league in Oregon and Washington, and he expects to have 7500 of them enlisted in the Prayer League, 6000 in the Tithers League, and 300 as members of the life service reserve. He is planning to hold a mobilization rally in the First Methodist church in Salem April 4th, at which Dr. J. W. Walters of Spokane, Dr. K. H. Schmitt of Tacoma, and President Denoy of Willamette, will be speakers. To this meeting all league members in this part of the valley will be invited. This is one of 15 such rallies to be held in the principal cities of Oregon and Washington. Yesterday at a luncheon at the Royale Cafe teria a group of 25 church workers discussed ways and means for carrying out the plans. Ivan H. Corner was named as chairman of a committee of three to take charge of the arrangements in this city, the other workers being Miss Tyler and Mr. Blake.

There is no denying the fact that real estate is changing hands faster than at any time during the past four or five years. And good farms are selling at figures that look pretty close to $100 an acre. Yesterday there was filed in the county recorder's office a deed involving $10,000. The grantors are H. E. Noble and wife, who sell to the Lumberman's Engineering Co. the following: SE 1/4 of the SW 1/4, and the SW 1/4 and the SE 1/4 and the NE 1/4 of the SW 1/4 of Sec. 3, T. 9, S. south of range 3 east.

The land is between Mehama and Mill City. It is pretty well understood that a sawmill will be located on the land. Another transfer involving $5300 filed today is that wherein J. E. Mordach of Sherwood sells to Frank J. Fessler of McKee, 35 acres, southeast of Mt. Angel between Silverton and Mt. Angel.

The vacant store building at 178 South Commercial street, formerly occupied by a Japanese restaurant is undergoing repairs and will be occupied by Oswald & Savage for a vulcanizing plant. Both men are tire specialists and they hope to open their place of business within a few days.
