

The Right Laxative For The Little Ones

The natural condition of a child is to be happy and carefree. When the girl mopes and is indifferent to school and study, or the boy is sullen and refuses to go out and play, the child needs a laxative to empty the bowels and stir up the liver.

But something should be given that will produce the result in a simple and natural way as possible. Harsh cathartics and physics are neither necessary nor desirable.

Many mothers have found that the combination of simple laxative herbs with pepsin sold by druggists under the name of Dr.

Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin produces a free movement of the bowels without griping. A very little is required, and it is pleasant to take. A few hours after its use the child will be its happy self again.

It is an excellent remedy for the mother herself, and for the other members of the family, in obstinate or occasional constipation, for the relief of headaches, as an aid in colds and fevers, minor skin eruptions and all disorders where the basis of the trouble is constipation.

The druggist will refund the money you pay for Syrup Pepsin if it fails to do as promised.

State Senator Dimick Dies At Oregon City

Oregon City, Or., Mar. 21.—Walter A. Dimick, Oregon City attorney and Clackamas county senator in the Oregon legislature, died at his home in Oregon City at 6 o'clock last night, after an illness of 10 days.

Mr. Dimick, who was born August 30, 1879, at Hubbard, Or., was the son of George W. Dimick, well known Marion county pioneer.

Walter A. Dimick was educated in the public schools of Hubbard and graduated from Pacific university at Forest Grove in 1902. He was admitted to the practice of law in 1903, becoming associated with his cousin, Judge Grant B. Dimick, at Oregon City. Mr. Dimick served five years as city recorder of Oregon City.

His career as a legislator began in 1908, when he was elected a representative from Clackamas county. Elected to the Oregon senate first in 1910, Mr. Dimick served in five consecutive legislatures in that branch.

Mr. Dimick was always regarded as one of the leaders in the senate. He initiated a large number of bills and took an unusually active part in legislation, being an aggressive opponent of any measure that he disapproved.

At the recent session he was a father of a bill aimed to end bolshevism in Oregon.

He was generally regarded as an insurgent in the legislature and was credited with killing more measures than any other member. His most active fights were made in the name of economy.

Mr. Dimick is survived by a widow and one son, Norman. Mrs. Dimick was Miss Oro Caples, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Caples of Forest Grove, Or., an old pioneer family. She and Mr. Dimick were schoolmates at Pacific university.

Annual Freshman Glee Begins At Eight Tonight

The opportunity to hear real genuine home made music is given the public this evening at the armory. For tonight is the eleventh annual freshman glee when the four classes of Willamette university compete in song.

They also compete in words for the songs and this gives the evening's program a special interest as there is the opportunity of not only hearing the music of possibly future musicians, but of poets as well.

The seniors have chosen words written by Homer Tasker, while the junior classes will present words by Merrill D. Ohling. The writer of words for the sophomore class was too timid to have his or her name in print, but not so with the freshmen, as the words for their song were composed by Lorelle Blatchford.

The musician for the seniors is Venita McKinney and for the juniors Freda Campbell. The sophomore music has been written by Evelyn DeLong and for the freshman class, by Mabel Stanford. As all musicians know, it is generally the music of a song that makes it popular.

Willamette university is the only college on the coast which has an annual freshman glee. It is from these songs that material is obtained for the annual college song book.

The public is invited to avail itself of this opportunity to hear what can be done by students of the university in the way of writing music and words. In awarding the pennant, a special committee will pass on the words and another of prominent musicians on the worth of the songs from a musician's standpoint.

The university announces that the program will begin promptly at 8 o'clock this evening and there will be no admittance charge.

SOCIETY.

By GERTRUDE ROBINSON
C. C. Higgins of Polson, Montana, arrived last night to spend a ten days' visit with his sisters, Mrs. J. J. Curtis and Mrs. J. S. Austin, of 1745 State street. Miss Margaret Higgins, another sister, who is a student at the Oregon Agricultural college at Corvallis, will be in Salem at the same time for her mid-year vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. O. P. Hoff, who have been visiting in Portland for the past few days while awaiting the arrival of their son, who has lately returned from overseas service, have returned to Salem. They were forced to come home without having seen the boy, as he was sent to Camp Lewis over another route.

Miss Ruth Walker and Miss Frankie Crider, both students at the Capital Business college, left this evening for Dallas to attend the big home coming celebration that the people of the town are putting on for the returned members of Company L. The chief features of the occasion are to be an elaborate banquet followed by a military ball in the armory.

The Willamette university freshman glee will be held tonight at 8 o'clock in the armory. This promises to be an event of interest and the public is most cordially invited to attend. Sites; Presentation of the pennant — Professor J. T. Matthews.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Crider, prominent residents of Dallas, were Salem visitors yesterday. Mrs. W. A. Denton presented a number of pupils in a piano recital last Saturday afternoon. The program was, as usual, heartily received by the audience of mothers. These recitals are looked forward to by those who are privileged to hear them as the children ranging from 6 to 11 years, are winsome and interesting and surprise their listeners with the remarkable progress that is evinced from time to time.

The closing number, "The Star Spangled Banner" was played by Arthur Fisher, 6 years old, while the audience and children stood. Thielson; March — Anthony; Pixes Good Night — Brown; May Zephers — Ronald Craven; Peasants' Profile — Erb; Virginia Berger — Gurlett; Elfina Dance — Heins; Benetta Edwards — Heins; Bohemian Girl — Balfe; Bonnie Maxine Glover — Bonner; The Fire Fly — Paldi; To a Snowflake — Sbafer; Bunnies Ball — Cramm; Frances Martin — Weber; Dixie Land — Harold Olinger; Fairy Whispers — Krognann; Jumping Rope — Norris; Helen Darby — Rogers; Two Little Frogs — Cramm; Dance of Spring — Frantz; Margaret Henner — Rogers; Giants — Rovena Eyre; Spanish Serenade — Loeb-Evans; To a Humming Bird — Virgil; Ethelwynne Kelly — Rogers; Spinning Song — Ellmenreich; Helen Ashelman — Weber; Annie Laurie — Weber; Star Spangled Banner — Arthur Fisher.

THE RISE OF A JEWISH EMPIRE IN PALESTINE

W. A. Baker, a lecturer of national reputation, will deliver an address on "The Rise of a Jewish Empire in Palestine," at the Moose hall at 8 p. m. tonight. Mr. Baker represents the International Bible Students' association, and his addresses have never failed to deeply interest his hearers. He provides many new viewpoints for reflection as well as an occasional appeal to their sense of humor. The subject on this occasion is one which cannot fail to interest all students of history, and especially those who have noted its close association in biblical prophecy, with the inauguration of a new order of things. When all civilized nations have felt that Palestine rightly belongs to the Jews, only now has its transference to them been made possible by the allied victory. It is evidently the intention of the British government, that right and justice and cleanliness shall reign in the land so lately delivered out of the clutches of the "unspeakable Turk." Great developments may be expected, in fact are already taking place. This lecture is, therefore, timely and will undoubtedly attract a large audience.

DID HER A WORLD OF GOOD, SHE SAYS

Mrs. Moore Was So Weak She Could Hardly Get Up. Health Restored By Tanlac.

"I feel so well now that I can hardly realize the awful condition I was in before I took Tanlac," said Mrs. E. L. Moore, of 945 S. Wellington street, Memphis, Tenn. "I had been in a rundown condition for two years," she continued, "and was so weak I could hardly keep going. I had to force myself to eat, but nothing agreed with me and I got so lifeless and so aching that I could hardly get up when I was sitting or lying down, or even do my housework. I suffered with splitting headaches that would almost drive me distracted. My appetite picked up on my first bottle of Tanlac and I am now eating three hearty meals a day, these awful headaches are gone and I am feeling just fine. I have gained ten pounds and am strong enough to do all my housework with ease. Tanlac did me a world of good—more than all the other medicine I have taken put together."

Mothers' Advice

The responsibility for a daughter's future largely rests with the mother. The right influence and the information which is of vital interest to the daughter imparted at the proper time has not only saved the life but insured the success of many a beautiful girl. When a girl's thoughts become sluggish with headaches, dizziness, or a disposition to sleep, pains in back or lower limbs and a desire for solitude, her mother should come to her aid and remember that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from native roots and herbs, will at this time prepare the system for the coming change and start this trying period in a young girl's life without pain or irregularities. Thousands of women residing in every part of the United States bear willing testimony to the wonderful virtues of this medicine, and what it has done for their daughters. Brooklyn, N. Y.—"I cannot praise Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound enough for what it has done for my daughter. She was 15 years of age, very sickly and pale and she had to stay home from school most of the time. She suffered agonies from backache and dizziness and was without appetite. For 3 months she was under the doctor's care and got no better, always complaining about her back and side aching so I did not know what to do. I read in the papers about your wonderful medicine so I made up my mind to try it. She has taken five bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and doesn't complain any more with her back and side aching. She has gained in weight and feels much better. I recommend Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to all mothers and daughters."—Mrs. M. FROXON, 815 Marcy Avenue, Brooklyn, N.Y.
