William Robinson Boone, concert organist of Portland, is to be heard in an organ recital Tuesday evening, April 1st, at the First Methodist church. Mr. Boone is an accomplished musician and a former dean of the Oregon chapter of the American Guild of Organists.

Kathryn Chrysler Street, one of Portland's most charming contralto soloists, will assist in the program. Mrs. Street has been heard in Salem previously and has won her way into the hearts of her listeners. A musical treat is in store for Salem people.

This concert is being fostered by the Tuesday Musical club of this city and is a benefit for the Armenians.

With a number of the members of the club home from overseas, the dinner dance for which the Julius Caesars were hosts at the Marion hotel Saturday night was one of the gayest events in the history of the organization. Dainty primpers formed the simple and elegant table decorations.

Patrons and patronesses of the dance were Mr. and Mrs. Bryan Goodenough, Mr. and Mrs. Daryle Proctor, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Staley and Mr. and Mrs. E. Hooker.

A very pretty home wedding occurred Sunday afternoon at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Tucker on the asylum road, when their eldest daughter, Mary Dorothea Tucker, was married to Cass A. Nichols, a ranchman of Fruitland. The ceremony was performed by Rev. H. N. Aldrich in the presence of the immediate relatives of the contracting parties. The bride was beautiful in a dress of white crepe de chine handsomely embroidered and carried a shower bouquet of white carnations and maiden hair ferns. She was attended by her sister, Miss Ruth Tucker, who wore a dress of white Swiss mull. The wedding march was played by little Miss Frances Tucker, to the strains of which the bridal party entered the parlor, the bride coming with her father, who gave her away. The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Nichols of Fruitland, and was recently discharged from the S. A. T. C. at the Oregon Agricultural college. He was attended in the ceremony by his brother Madison Nichols. A bounteous wedding dinner was served. Mr. and Mrs. Nichols left on an evening train for a visit with relatives in Roseburg, and will be at home on Mr. Nichols' dairy ranch at Geer, after April first. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Tucker, the Misses Ruth and Frances Tucker, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Nichols, Miss Lucy Nichols, Madison Nichols, Mrs. T. B. Montgomery, C. H. Montgomery, Miss Harriett Wolfe, Rev. H. N. Aldrich and Mr. and Mrs. Frank L. Emery of Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Julius Pinous of Portland were guests over the week end of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Linn at the Marion hotel.

With Mrs. Irvin Griffith as president and Mrs. Thomas Kay as secretary, a society known as the Pasty Hill was formed last week at the home of Mrs. Grace Eoff. The first official act of the society was the adoption of two poor orphans. The ladies present at the initial meeting were, Mrs. Patton, Mrs. T. B. Kay, Mrs. Charles Robinson, Mrs. E. S. Barnes, Mrs. B. Harpley, Mrs. Frank Spencer, Mrs. E. C. Cross, Mrs. Irvin Griffith, Mrs. William Brown, Mrs. C. K. Spaulding, Mrs. U. G. Shipley, Mrs. John H. Scott, Mrs. William Kirk, Mrs. Frank Powers and Mrs. Grace Eoff. The club will meet every two weeks.

C. D. Higgins of Berkeley, California, arrived last evening for a visit with his sisters, Mrs. I. O. Curtis and Mrs. J. S. Austin of 1743 State street. His coming completes a family circle, as another brother, C. C. Higgins of Polson, Montana, and Miss Margaret Higgins of Oregon Agricultural college are also guests of Mrs. Curtis and Mrs. Austin.

Saturday evening Mr. and Mrs. Roy Hewitt entertained a coterie of friends informally, cards and music forming the evening's amusements. The color scheme affected in the decorations of yellow daffodils was carried out in ices also. Guests at the charming affair were Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Glover, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Shields, Mr. and Mrs. James G. Holtzel, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Seward, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Miller and W. C. Heise.

Paul Beale Taylor and Miss Edna Lillian Bryant, recently of Los Angeles, California, were united in marriage Saturday evening at the Leslie Methodist Episcopal parsonage. Rev. Romane N. Aldrich, assisted by Rev. A. Sterling Barner, officiating, using the full ring ceremony. The bride was charming in a gown of white georgette crepe, and carried a shower bouquet of which Friesias, with streamers. Proceeding the ceremony Miss Gertrude Aldrich sang "I Love You Truly," accompanied by Mrs. John B. Busch. Mr. Taylor has had charge of the choruses, and has done the solo work in the evangelistic services which have been held in the Leslie Methodist church during the past two weeks, and is a director and singer of national fame, having done similar work across the continent with his father, Rev. George W. Taylor, a noted evangelist who conducted a series of meetings in Salem ten years ago. Mrs. Taylor is a splendid pianist, and will travel with her husband in his evangelistic work with Rev. A. Sterling Barner, D. D., with whom he will begin a series of meetings this week in the First Baptist church, George P. Holt, D. D., pastor. Mrs. Taylor resigned her position as pianist in the Trinity Methodist Episcopal church, Los Angeles, to begin her life work here, with Mr. Taylor. At present they are guests of Rev. and Mrs. H. N. Aldrich, 348 Myers street.

The Happy Hour Bridge club will meet at the home of Mrs. John H. Scott Wednesday afternoon. This will be its first meeting since the war.

Mrs. L. F. Griffith is in Portland today attending the 79th birthday anniversary of Phil Metschan, and the 43d anniversary of Phil Metschan, Jr.

The five sons and four daughters of Mr. Metschan Sr., as also his sister, Miss Anna Metschan of Tacoma, will be present. Out of town relatives who have arrived are Mrs. George H. Chattanooga of Canyon City, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Flanders, who have the U. S. A. as their home since Mr. Flanders is in government service; Mrs. Emelia Meredith of Yakima, Wash.; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Metschan of Klamath Falls and Mrs. L. F. Griffith of Salem.

Mrs. E. C. Patton and daughter, Luella, have returned from a two weeks visit at Portland. They were accompanied by Eula McCully of Hood River. Among the Salem people registered in Portland hotels over the week end are Frank K. Lovell at the Imperial, and H. S. Gile at the Seward. Mr. Lovell has been employed in the office of the secretary of state for a number of years and Mr. Gile is one of the men who have made Salem known to the world and placed the juice of logan berries on the table of the nation.

Mrs. George Pierce and Miss Dorothy Pierce were guests of Miss Helen Pierce in Portland over the week end.

Colonel and Mrs. E. Hofer, R. M. Hofer and L. F. Hofer of Salem passed several days at the Hotel Portland during the past week. Colonel Hofer is one of the pioneer newspaper men of the state is now editor of a commercial magazine.

Members of the Salem Women's Press club were guests at a "Mad Tea Party" last evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. McElvain on South Liberty, for which Mrs. Burton A. Myers and Miss Gertrude Robison were joint hostesses. The decorations were of orange and green, the table being centered with an art basket of marigolds, and the place cards adorned with hand painted teapots. An "Alice in Wonderland" idea was carried out as nearly as possible in the menus and evening amusements. An especially delightful feature was the clever reading by Miss Lucile Elliott. Members of the club who were present were, Mrs. Byron P. Brunk, Miss Carol S. Dibble, Miss Lucile Elliott, Miss Lucile Watson, Miss Lucile Saunders, Miss Doris Sikes, Mrs. Burton A. Myers and Miss Gertrude Robison.

Last Friday evening a reception was held for Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Putnam in the church parlors of the Court street church of Christ. Daffodils and Oregon grape formed the artistic decorations for the affair. A large delegation from the First Christian church was present and the following program was presented, after which refreshments of punch and wafers were served:

Violin solo—"Carnival of Venice," Winona Smith, accompanied by Miss Levy.
Recitation—Miss Howard.
Recitation—"Assisting Uncle Joe," Grave Von Behren.
Viola solo—"Beethoven's Minuet," Miss Smith.
Address—Rev. Leland W. Porter.
Address—Mr. Burns.
Response by the pastor.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Jenks and family, who have been enjoying a two weeks' outing at Newport have returned to their home in Salem.

Mrs. E. E. Waters entertained her daughter, Mrs. W. C. Knights, of Portland Sunday.

DEATH OF CHILD

Little Katherine, the two year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Kinser of the Crooked Finger district, died at a Salem hospital Monday. The child had been sick for some time and was brought to this city about a week ago for treatment and later taken to Salem. The parents are heartbroken over the loss of their little girl. Funeral services were held from the Jack chapel here Wednesday and burial was made in the Silverton cemetery. Mr. and Mrs. Kinser only recently moved to their homestead in the above named district.—Silverton Appeal.

REINFORCE KAISER'S GUARD

Amerongen, Holland, March 24.—The Dutch guard about the kaiser's residence here was reinforced today as the result of the receipt of letters threatening his life. Wilhelm was also said to have received a warning telegram from a friend.

Stops Medicine—Health Recovered By Internal Baths

Mr. A. Casarnecki, 657 Montgomery St., San Francisco, Cal., writes Tyrrell's Hygienic Institute of New York as follows:

"I must admit that the use of the 'J. B. L. Cascade' has cured my chronic constipation from which I suffered. Since May 12, 1913, I have never even tasted any kind of patent medicine or purgative. My health is excellent in every respect."

Over half a million bright, keen, intelligent Americans have found that internal bathing is more essential to their health than external baths. Have found that used occasionally at night they feel like different people the next morning. No more of that bilious, tired, nervous feeling, but having by Nature's own cleanser—antiseptic water—removed all the poisonous waste from the lower intestine, they awake thoroughly refreshed by normal sleep, with all their functions acting properly, clear headed, happy and confident, eager and capable for the duties of the day.

Why not learn more about this rapidly growing and natural practice? The "J. B. L. Cascade" is the invention of Chas. A. Tyrrell, M. D., of New York, a specialist on internal baths for 25 years and is now being shown and explained by Daniel J. Fry, wholesale druggist and mfg. pharmacist, Salem, Oregon, who will give you—free on request—an interesting booklet on the subject called "Why Man of Today is Only 50 per cent Efficient."

Governor Olcott May Serve Unexpired Term

Ben W. Olcott is governor in fact. He holds his office as governor for the unexpired term of the late Governor Withycombe. He can resign his dual office of secretary of state, at the same time retaining the office of governor which he succeeded upon the death of Governor Withycombe.

This, in brief, is the gist of the opinion of Attorney General Brown, handed down late Saturday. After an exhaustive examination of the law and the decisions of the courts Attorney General Brown takes this position and advises that an early judicial decision of the question be sought and secured because of the importance of the questions involved and of the public policy demanding that there be three men upon the board of control, if it is possible to bring this about. He bases his opinion upon the law as set out in the case of Earhart vs. Chadwick, decided by the supreme court of this state, and considered and distinguished in other leading cases in point from other states.

In summing up his findings, Attorney General Brown says: "I conclude as I began: That you are the governor; that you are also secretary of state; that these are two distinct and separate offices; that you have the right to resign the office of secretary of state, and as governor, appoint your successor as secretary of state."

By reason of the importance of your office I think it advisable to have a judicial determination of the questions you have submitted to me for opinion. I am going to suggest that the state treasurer refuse to pay your salary as governor. You can then institute a proceeding in mandamus in the supreme court as a court of original jurisdiction. This will bring before the court a real and not a fictitious case. Our highest court can then either affirm or disaffirm the doctrine enunciated by our court in Chadwick vs. Earhart supra. "Our supreme court recognizes the fact that it is maintained by the people for the welfare of the people and no doubt would be willing to pass upon any legitimate question that would be raised and which involved the administration of the laws by its chief executive. The Oregon supreme court is a progressive court and is always ready to serve the public by administering the law within the limits of established law."

Pig Club Organizes At Meeting Held Saturday

At the meeting of the boys' and girls' pig club held Saturday afternoon at the auditorium of the Commercial club, Thomas Brunk of Polk county cautioned members of the club against overfeeding. He said too much food produced a flabby, loose built hog without some enough to hold it up.

With the election of Elmer Roth as president, Frank Egler as vice-president and Francis Smith as secretary, the club proceeded to organize as a standard club with the following members:

Don't Know Exactly What To Do With German Helmets

San Francisco, March 24.—Do western patriots wish to use German helmets for cuspidors? Or just what do they think is the best use to be made of the $3,000 Hun head protectors that are to be distributed in the Twelfth reserve district during the victory loan campaign?

This is a question the loan committee wishes answered. Likewise it is open to suggestion as to the method of distributing the souvenirs. Owing to the limited number, there will not be enough helmets to provide for even half of the bond buyers. And opposing the suggestion that the souvenirs be given to buyers of $1,000 or more in bonds is the charge that such a plan would be discriminating against people of smaller means, who gave as much proportionately as the wealthy.

The question may be decided by giving one of the war relics to communities surpassing their quotas as a trophy for their community archives.

WRITES FROM GERMANY

Under date of February 4, 1919, Lee Berry writes his parents that he is still in the hospital at Coblenz, Germany, though feeling pretty good at this time and thinks he is nearly well and thought he would be out in a week. This proved to be a mistake, however, as the next letter said he feared he would not be out of the hospital for some time. His greatest trouble was getting mail from home, the last he received was December 21, and "that was a long time to go without mail." It seems that the word is given out ever so often that they are to leave there and when the time comes there is nothing doing. This has happened so often that it is considered a big joke. He says the boys are getting awfully tired of Germany.—Hubbard Enterprise.

OUT OF SERVICE

Robert Wray came home Sunday. He was mustered out at Camp Lewis after returning from France with the 65th artillery. Had the war lasted two weeks longer he would have gotten up to the front. As it was he failed to see any action. Two other of the Wray boys are in the service. Paul enlisted from high school and was in the thick of the fight for six months. He is with the army of occupation and is slated for return next month. Frank is with the marines in Cuba.—Silverton Appeal.

STOMACH UPSET?

Get at the Real Cause—Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

That's what thousands of stomach sufferers are doing now. Instead of taking tonics, or trying to patch up a poor digestion, they are attacking the real cause of the ailment—clogged liver and disordered bowels.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets arouse the liver in a soothing, healing way. When the liver and bowels are performing their natural functions, away goes indigestion and stomach troubles.

If you have a bad taste in your mouth, tongue coated, appetite poor, lazy, don't-care feeling, no ambition or energy, troubled with undigested foods, you should take Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a purely vegetable compound mixed with olive oil. You will know them by their olive color. They do the work without griping, cramps or pain.

Take one or two at bedtime for quick relief, so you can rest what you like. At 10c and 25c per box. All druggists.
