SOCIETY

By GERTRUDE ROBISON

Society is turning out to hear Maud Powell, the popular and renowned violinist, who is appearing at the Hotel Astor in Portland this week. Mrs. H. Geoffrey Turner, as the charming artist is known in private life, has a wide circle of friends in Portland by whom she will be entertained extensively. She arrived yesterday and will remain until Sunday. Several prominent Portlanders will be hosts in honor planning motor trips, luncheon, dinners and theater parties.

A great many out of town folk have already arrived in Portland for the concert, coming from Salem, Pendleton, Hood River and Corvallis, as the violinist has many admirers and close friends throughout the entire northwest.

Tomorrow, Friday and Saturday, Dolores "Riely" Barker, a former Salem girl, is presented in support of Miss Mae Marsh in the Goldwyn production "Money Mad" at Ye Liberty theater. Miss Barker is well known in the city and is related to some of Salem's oldest and most respected families.

Miss Margaret Cosper has been appointed to attend the Inland Empire Teachers' association. Miss Cosper's presence there will be very valuable as she is a member of the state text book commission and the text book question will be one of the most weighty problems before the commission.

Mrs. T. B. Kay, Miss Marjorie Kay and Mrs. C. H. Robertson, all well known Salem people were guests at the Seward hotel in Portland yesterday.

There are a large number of Salem people who will be interested to know that word has been received that Rose Claire Williams and Marie Blodgett, former Salem nurses, have sailed for home. Both Miss Williams and Miss Blodgett have been in France for several months, and were stationed together at base hospital 46 at Tours during their service over there. Miss Williams is a sister of Mrs. Carey P. Martin and Miss Blodgett is a graduate of the Salem hospital.

Miss Gertrude East, who is spending the spring holidays as the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. S. East, went to Portland yesterday for a brief visit with friends.

The Daughters of the American Revolution will meet Saturday, March 29th with Mrs. J. P. Prizzell. Each member is asked to come with some suggestion of practical patriotism for Salem.

Mr. and Mrs. Chauncey Hayes of Dallas are Salem visitors for a few days. Mr. Hayes recently returned from France with Company L, in which he was a non-commissioned officer.

At the Polk county Sunday school convention held in Monmouth the latter part of last week, several Salem people took important part. Mrs. Leona W. Porter gave the beautiful reading, "The Last Word" by Henry Van Dyke and Mrs. Peterson delighted the assembly with two vocal solos. President Doney of the Willamette university was also one of the principal participants in the convention.

Miss Marie Poppe of San Francisco is visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Poppe, 322 North 21st street.

Mrs. J. A. Bennett state field worker for the Christian women's board of missions, presided today at the First Christian church, at which a detailed study of the missions, both at home and abroad, was taken up. A basket lunch was served at noon after which the business meeting was continued. This evening the mid-week prayer meeting will be held, the subject being, "The Jewish Sabbath and the Lord's day."

Miss Elizabeth Levy is among the Salem music lovers who will attend Maud Powell's concert in Portland this evening.

PTOSIS

This word is pronounced toe-sis, but has nothing to do with the toes. It has, however, a great deal to do with the abdominal muscles.

The majority of women have it to a greater or less degree. It is usually caused by badly designed corsets -- those that constantly press down the abdomen instead of supporting it.

The constant downward pressure stretches the abdominal muscles so that in time they don't contract back again. Then the trouble begins, for unless the cause is removed chronic invalidism commences and all the doctors and medicines extant cannot cure it.

are designed to prevent and correct ptosis. When properly fitted they give perfect support to the abdomen.

We invite you to have a trial fitting in our corset department. There is no charge for it. You will then appreciate what the MODART Corset can do for you.

PICTURE INSPIRED BY HUN BRUTALITY

Acts Of Barbarism Scored In Screen Play "Hearts Of The World."

"Hearts of the World" the creation of that marvelous wizard of the screen, D. W. Griffith, might never have been heard of to the statement of a close personal friend of Mr. Griffith's, had not the Germans introduced the use of poison gas in the war. This net and

BETTER THAN CALOMEL

Thousands Have Discovered Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a Harmless Substitute.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets -- the substitute for calomel -- are a mild but sure laxative, and their effect on the liver is almost instantaneous. They are the result of Dr. Edwards' determination not to treat liver and bowel complaints with calomel. His efforts to banish it brought out these little olive-colored tablets.

These pleasant little tablets do the good that calomel does, but have no bad after effects. They don't injure the teeth like strong liquids or calomel. They take hold of the trouble and quickly correct it. Why cure the liver at the expense of the teeth? Calomel sometimes plays havoc with the gums. So do strong liquids. It is best not to take calomel, but to let Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets take its place.

Most headaches, "dullness" and that lazy feeling come from constipation and a disordered liver. Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets when you feel "foggy" and "heavy." Note how they "clear" clouded brain and how they "perk up" the spirits. 10c and 25c a box. All druggists.

many more or equal barbarism and horror have drawn the hatred of the world upon the Hun and we be to him when the day of final settlement comes and at the peace table he bears his indictment for his crimes.

Just prior to the battle of Ypres Mr. Griffith was in London arranging the premier of "Intolerance." His masterful handling of that subject drew enthusiastic praise from critics throughout the English metropolis and it was not long before he was visited by Lord Beaverbrook, a representative of the British War Office, who wished to persuade him to visualize the story of the war in any way he saw fit. Mr. Griffith feared that unless the United States was drawn into the struggle the picture would be a failure and hesitated to accept the commission, as it might, at the same time, jeopardize the neutrality of his own nation. Then came the first alchemical gas attacks at Ypres; deadly clouds of poison gas were released towards the unsuspecting Canadians; men in whom the sporting instinct lived even in that land of blood and mud, and who would sacrifice their lives rather than take an unfair advantage of their foe. Thousands were struck dead in their tracks while those who survived an immediate death suffered untold tortures. Mr. Griffith at once took up the production of the picture that is now the one outstanding sensation of serendipity. All who have seen this masterpiece agree that "Hearts of the World" is the epic of the present war and that its spirit is what dominates the allies today.

"Hearts of the World" will be presented at the Oregon for three days, commencing tomorrow and every man, woman and child with a drop of patriotic blood in their veins should witness it. The story will serve to increase their faith in their country and the glory of upright valorous manhood.

Miss Margaret Cosper has been appointed to attend the Inland Empire Teachers' association. Miss Cosper's presence there will be very valuable as she is a member of the state text book commission and the text book question will be one of the most weighty problems before the commission.

REV. A. J. VALLERY MAKES STATEMENT

Says Tanlac Has Overcome His Troubles And He Feels Like A New Man.

"I feel that it would be helping others to tell what Tanlac has done for me," said Rev. A. J. Vallery, living at 814 Chelsea ave., Memphis, Tenn.

"About three years ago," he continued, "I had a general breakdown that made me very nervous. I had a sour stomach and would spit up undigested food. The pains in my stomach hurt as at times. "Since taking Tanlac I have been relieved of indigestion and those pains are all gone. My kidneys don't trouble me any, I am not nervous like I was and I can sleep fine every night. My strength and energy have been restored and I feel like a new man."

REGULARS CONFIDENT THAT THEY WILL WIN

Declare That Insurgents Will Topple Before Opening Of Congress.

Washington, Mar. 25.--Regulars on both the democratic and republican sides of the house today were confident they will defeat insurgents when the time comes for organization of the next congress.

Insurgency is on the wane according to regular leaders.

Adherents of Speaker Clark, after a canvass of the democratic side of the next house, today declared that the faction which is fighting Clark will have only 28 votes out of nearly 200, when the democratic caucus is held. Insurgents claim 73.

The fight on Clark for minority leader has been made on the grounds that he is opposed to the league of nations, but "old guard" democratic leaders today declared the retiring speaker would take a stand on this question that would be eminently satisfactory to the democratic party.

Clark's friends are also satisfied that there is no likelihood of the administration interfering in the house organization.

On the republican side Representative Mondell, Wyoming, new republican floor leader, makes the flat prediction that the party will be united when the next house convenes.

Others of the regulars call attention to the fact that nothing "invidious" has been said on either side for nearly two weeks. They deny that Chairman Will Hays or anyone outside the house of representatives has interfered to secure party harmony, although it is known that several congressmen wrote him advising him to take a hand.

CARELESS USE OF SOAP SPOILS THE HAIR

Samp should be used very carefully, if you want to keep your hair looking its best. Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle and ruins it.

The best thing for steady use is just ordinary unsulfated coconut oil (which is pure and greaseless), and is better than the most expensive soap or anything else you can use.

One or two teaspoonsful will cleanse the hair and scalp thoroughly. Simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, which rinses out easily, removing every particle of dust, dirt, dandruff and excessive oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves the scalp soft, and the hair fine and silky, bright, lustrous, fluffy and easy to manage.

You can get unsulfated coconut oil at any pharmacy, it's very cheap, and a few ounces will supply every member of the family for months.

SCHOOL GIRL TELLS OTHERS

How They Can Find Relief From Periodic Sufferings.

Nashua, N. H.--"I am nineteen years old and every month for two years I had such pains that I would often faint and have to leave school. I had such pain I did not know what to do with myself and tried so many remedies that were of no use. I read about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound in the newspapers and decided to try it, and that is how I found relief from pain and feel so much better than I use to. When I hear of any girl suffering as I did I tell them how Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound helped me."--DELINA MARTIN, 20 Bowers St., Nashua, N. H.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from native roots and herbs, contains no narcotic or harmful drugs, therefore is a perfectly safe remedy to give your daughter, who suffers from such painful periods as did Miss Martin.

The reason so many girls write Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass., for advice, is because, from their 40 years experience they have a store of knowledge which is invariably helpful.

Oil Industry Made Good On Spur Of War Necessity

Washington, March 25.--No single important industry in the United States ever made such a showing in a single year as did the oil industry under spur of war necessity, according to Director Manning of the bureau of mines.

In 1916, before America entered the war, gasoline production was a little short of fifty million barrels, he reported. In 1917 when this nation entered the war, gasoline production jumped to nearly 68,000,000 barrels.

But in 1918 when the demand from the front for oil became even greater, gasoline production mounted to 85,000,000 barrels.

How this nation sent an ever-increasing flow of gasoline to the allies and friendly countries is shown by export figures.

For 1916, exports were 8,473,102 barrels; 1917, exports 9,901,877 and 1918 exports, 13,312,568.

Becomes Millionaires At "Rag Picking" Business

Washington, March 25.--Now comes the "rag picking" millionaire.

Estimates compiled from government reports on "waste reclamation" in the United States indicate that over four hundred millionaires have been developed from pursuit of "any rags, any bones, any bottles today?"

Rag picking and collection of tin cans, scrap iron, old paper, wire, rubber and discarded metals represent an annual turnover of over $2,000,000,000, according to incomplete estimates.

And all kind of classes are "getting into the rag game" because of its monetary attractions. The waste reclamation service of the commerce department has discovered one Harvard man who gave up a $10,000 a year "rag picking" job to enter war work--and now he's going back to his original work again.

This year is expected to be one of the biggest in the history of the business. More than 200 collection and sorting plants in operation in big cities alone average a turnover of $2,000,000,000 worth of business annually. Here the
