Dallas Man To Quit Dry Goods Business

(Capital Journal Special Service) Dallas, Or., Mar. 29.—A. S. Campbell, proprietor of the Campbell dry goods store on Main street, will close out his business here in the near future and move to other parts to reside. Mr. Campbell has been in business in Dallas for a number of years and has one of the biggest stocks of goods for a store of his kind in the Willamette valley. He will also dispose of his residence property on Court street before leaving.

The removal of the Campbell family from Dallas will be greatly regretted by their large circle of friends.

Returned Soldier to Study Law Sergeant Joseph N. Helgeson who returned last week from a two years service in Uncle Sam's army, most of the time of which he spent in France, will take up the study of law next week in the law office of L. D. Brown on Mill street. Sergeant Helgeson had just begun the study of law at the outbreak of the war with Germany and he is in hopes that no more wars will interfere with his work for a time at least. Mr. Helgeson will also have charge of the Dallas office of the Knight Collection Agency of McMinville.

Polk County Circuit Court Meets Soon The regular term of the Polk County circuit court convenes in Dallas on Monday, April 14 with a comparatively light docket. But four jury cases are scheduled to come up for hearing before Circuit Judge Harry H. Belt. One prisoner, Albert Enns of Perrydale, charged with the theft of war saving stamps is now in the county jail awaiting the coming session of the grand jury at which he is expected to plead guilty. Enns made a confession to Deputy Sheriff T. B. Hooker yesterday in which he confessed the theft of other stamps in the Perrydale community and disclosed their whereabouts. The jury list for the coming term was drawn Wednesday by County Clerk Floyd D. Moore and Sheriff Orr is having the summons made out preparatory to their serving.

Captain Toose Expects Discharge in July Captain Walter L. Toose Jr., of this city who for the past year has been in charge of a training camp at Mt. Vernon, Ia., writes Dallas friends that he expects to be discharged about July 1st, and that he will return immediately to Dallas. Captain Toose was one of this city's prominent lawyers at the outbreak of the war and gave up a good practice to enter the service.

Dallas Girl Weds Returned Soldier A pretty home wedding was solemnized at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Clainfield on Oak street Tuesday when their daughter, Leona, became the bride of Uda Burk, a well known Dallas boy. Mr. Burk is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Burk, former Dallas residents now living near Airline, and returned last week from France where he has been a corporal in the ranks of Company L of this city for the past two years. Miss Clainfield is the youngest child of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Clainfield and is a graduate from the Dallas high school. The young couple have a host of friends in this city and surrounding country who wish them all STRENGTHENS KIDNEYS—PURIFIES BLOOD You can't expect weak kidneys to filter the acids and poisons out of your system unless they are given a little help. Don't allow them to become diseased. A little attention now will prevent it. Don't try to cheat nature. As soon as you commence to have backaches, feel nervous and tired, GET BUSY. These are usually warnings that your kidneys are not working properly. Do not delay a minute. Go after the cause of your ailments or you may find yourself in the grip of an incurable disease. GOLD MEDAL Haaren Oil capsules will give almost immediate relief from kidney troubles. GOLD MEDAL Haaren Oil Capsules will do the work. Jelders purchased the Dr. Miller 45-acre tract near town last week; $70 per acre is said to be the price paid. Word was received a few days ago by Mr. and Mrs. John Grassman, that their son Lawrence had arrived from France and was at Camp Mills, N. Y. Steve Schmidt has purchased the N. C. Liston place on North Howell, which was sold to the highest bidder through sealed bids. It is said the price was $2800 for the 40 acres.

Word has been received here that Mrs. John C. Barnes a former resident of Gervais, died at a hospital in Bend, Or. She leaves her husband and two sons and two daughters. Mike Froehweiler and Francis Canard, two more of our soldier boys, who recently returned from France, and have been at Camp Lewis for a few days, arrived in Gervais last Friday for the delight of their relatives and friends. The boys look hale and hearty. Mrs. Eugene Manning has received word from her son, Henry Stafford, who is in the navy and has been in Italy and other foreign ports, saying that he had arrived at Philadelphia and was well.

Mr. and Mrs. George Vogel, who have been spending the winter in southern California, arrived here last week to visit Mrs. Vogel's mother, Mrs. C. S. Strayhorn. Mr. Vogel is now in Seattle on business. Mr. and Mrs. John Roudeau and son, Lester, came up from St. Louis last week and are making some repairs to their home here. They have shipped their household goods to Aberdeen, Wash., where they will reside. Among the list of casualties in the army of occupation in France recently, was that of Richard Kennedy, Jr., who died of pneumonia. He was the son of Rev. Kennedy, formerly of Gervais, and spent several years of his childhood days here. Frank Adelman met with quite a serious accident last Friday afternoon while blasting holes to set out fruit trees. In some unknown manner a spark lodged in his cap box and caused an explosion which burned and mutilated his hands and face badly, no bones were broken, but he came near losing his eyesight. He is reported to be recovering nicely.—Star.

AURORA SCHOOL RECORD

Mrs. Fulkerson, school supervisor, here recently, states that grammar grades of the Aurora school has the best record in penmanship of 52 schools that have reported in Marion county. Every pupil in the room, with two exceptions, have received the "Palmer Button," and the following have received the "Progress Pin": Ivy Burkholder, Aileen Burkholder, Evadna Hurst, Ida Anderson, Aileen Snyder, Marie Johnson, Ethel Kell, Harry Ehlen Harold Muegg. By the end of the term, those named will without doubt be awarded the "Palmer Certificates" for proficiency in penmanship, as taught by the Palmer system. Mrs. Foster is the teacher of the grammar grades.—Observer.
