

The American Spirit in Dentistry

Vanity or Common-Sense

Chapter II.

We dentists call our occupation not a business or a craft but a learned "profession." We don't wish to be in the class with merchants or skilled workers.

But what are we? Surely we aren't friars, going around giving free service.

We become dentists not because our fingers itch to pull out other people's teeth—but to make a living.

The trouble is we desire to use our occupation as a means to attain "class-distinction."

We put dignity above common-sense and service. This is un-American. It leads to failure.

There is a natural pride and sense of honor in all healthy men. It is the pride of workmanship. It impels artists, artisans, mechanics, to do their work well. Such pride is good. We can't have too much of it. But there is the pride of caste. That is bad.

Unfortunately, we dentists have too little good pride, and too much bad pride. Too often we hide our inefficiency and sloth behind decorum. As though courtly manners could cure toothache!

Among ourselves we say—"We do these things to attract business."

That's just the point. We don't attract business that way.

Business came to me when I gave up professional vanity. I went out among the people. I spoke their language. I shared their troubles. I lightened their pain and burden. The only pride I felt was in good workmanship. My motto is: Good Service is Good Business.

Under the "E. R. Parker System"—you will find first-rate work in dentistry is done for exceedingly moderate fees.

SOCIETY.

By GERTRUDE ROBISON

As a fitting supplement to the Tillium club dance last evening, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Dams entertained a coterie of friends at an informal party at their home, 1905 1/2 street. Crimson carnations gave a gay note to the lovely decorations. Guests of Mr. and Mrs. Dams included Mr. and Mrs. P. E. Fullerton, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Davis, Mr. and Mrs. John Savage, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Perry and Dr. and Mrs. Olson.

Lieutenant Alfred E. Ball who, after seeing service with the American expeditionary forces, has just received his discharge, was a Salem visitor last week. During his visit he was a guest at the W. W. Fawk residence on North Commercial street and was the inspiration of various social favors. Friday evening he was guest of honor at an informal dinner for which Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Read were hosts at their home on Fairmount Hill. The table was artistically centered with a brilliant bowl of red carnations. The guests were Lieutenant Alfred E. Ball, Miss Grace Fawk and Miss Sarah Rowland, who was down from O. A. C. over the week end as the guest of Miss Fawk.

As a farewell attention to her home guest Mrs. C. Elliott, who left yesterday for her home in Seattle, Mrs. Ralph Johnson was hostess for a delightful card and dancing party Monday night. The daintily shaded lights and beautifully arranged spring flowers formed appropriate decorations for the affair. The handsomely appointed dinner tables were centered with bowls of magnolias. Professor T. S. Roberts, Mrs. J. H. Walker and Mrs. Clifford Ross rendered beautiful piano and violin numbers during the course of the evening. The guest list included Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Walker, Prof. and Mrs. T. S. Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Craig, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Cooper, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Ross, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Spears, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Wise, Mrs. P. C. Elliott, Miss Dorothy Donaldson, Miss Phyllis Walker, Miss Marjorie Grant, Harvey Wells, Richard Ferrell, Seattle; George Nelson and Herbert Scott.

Mrs. Lester Davis was the inspiration of a delightful surprise party Monday night in honor of her birthday. Fourteen intimate friends were responsible for the event and the evening was one of complete enjoyment.

Mr. and Mrs. William Honeyman Bennett were Portland visitors last week. Mrs. Bennett being the guest of Mrs. E. Y. Lansing Jr., while Mr. Bennett was engaged in his activities as state superintendent of banks. Mr. and Mrs. Bennett have returned to their home in Salem.

Notices which will interest all former students of the Oregon Agricultural college are arriving announcing the annual co-ed ball to be held Saturday in the gymnasium. The dance is limited to the girls of the school and is the night when the men do "dateless." The upperclass girls will act as escorts to the freshmen. Competition is now going on to secure dances with girls who best can take the man's part in dancing as much of the success of the dance depends on the sense of direction of the leader of each couple. Miss Lucile Pierce, a junior student, is chairman of the committee for the affair. Dean Mary E. Fewcett and other prominent women of the faculty will act as hostesses. About 500 girls are expected to attend.

The Yeoman lodge will be sponsors for a social evening and informal lunch on this evening at their lodge rooms. All members are requested to be present.

Members of the Tillium club enjoyed a merry dance last evening in the Masonic hall.

LADIES! LOOK YOUNG, DARKEN GRAY HAIR

Use Grandma's Sage Tea And Sulphur Recipe And Nobody Can Tell—Brush It Thru Hair.

Gray hair, however handsome, denotes advancing years. We all know the advantages of a youthful appearance. Your hair is your charm. It makes or mars the face. When it fades turns gray and looks streaked, just a few applications of Sage Tea and Sulphur enhance its appearance a hundred fold.

Don't stay gray! Look young! Either prepare the recipe at home or get from any drug store a bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," which is merely the old time recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients. Thousands of folks recommend this ready to use preparation, because it darkens the hair beautifully, besides, no one can possibly tell, as it darkens so naturally and evenly. You moisten a sponge or soft brush with it, drawing this through the hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; after another application or two, its natural color is restored and it becomes thick, glossy and lustrous, and you appear years younger.

MRS. B. W. SMITH GAINS 35 POUNDS

"I'll Praise Tanlac As Long As I Live," She Says—Was In Bed 10 Long Months

"I'll praise Tanlac the longest day I live for giving me back my health," said Mrs. B. W. Smith, of 3113 Burdett street, Omaha, Neb., recently, when the special Tanlac representative, who had heard of her remarkable recovery, called to ascertain the facts.

"Eight years ago," continued Mrs. Smith, "I began suffering from stomach trouble, loss of appetite and nervousness. My head ached so at times it felt like it would jump from my shoulders. Then acute rheumatism got hold of me, and pained me so I could not sleep. My feet, knee joints and elbows would swell terribly and the pain was almost unbearable. Before I took Tanlac I had not been up and about, nor able to go down town for three long years, and was in bed for ten months perfectly helpless. I was under treatment every day for three months, and I tried everything until the bills got so big I dreaded to think of them, but I never got able to be out of bed but very little.

"I suffered until I lost thirty five pounds, and I have gotten back every ounce of it since I began taking Tanlac. Pretty soon after I started on it my appetite came back, and I got so I could eat anything. My nerves got stronger, and my pain commenced to get less. After the second bottle I felt much stronger, and it wasn't long before I could get about the house and do my work. I haven't a pain of any kind now, and my sleep is as sound and restful as a baby. I am full of life and energy and feel fully able to go down town when I please, as I can walk and stay on my feet all day. In fact I can do as much work as I ever could in my life, if not more, and I just feel so happy over what Tanlac has done for me that I want everybody to know about it. I have told lots of people about it already and know many who are taking it on account of what it has done for me."

Tanlac is sold in Hubbard by Hubbard Drug Co., in Mt. Angel by Zen Gooch, in Gervais by John Kelly, in Turner by H. P. Cornelius, in Woodburn by Lyman H. Storey, in Salem by Dr. A. C. will welcome Americans and English," they tell you. "We're waiting for them. We want order, too, but it can never come without either a dictator or else outside help. We have no leaders now that we can follow."

The opinion that a dictator could restore order and enable the working out of a government is quite universal, but no men loom up as possibilities worthy of consideration, except Hindenburg. Hindenburg has never mixed into politics, and men in Berlin who know him well say he would never consent to take over the dictatorship of Germany.

HAWLEY SAYS STRONG

The American people should have a voice in the choosing of our national representatives in the executive council. Further, he illustrated by historic incidents how this nation might be placed in the most embarrassing position through allowing the nations of Europe the jurisdiction over problems that concerned only ourselves, such as the acquiring of property in Mexico by Japanese.

Mr. Hawley did not hesitate to express the fear that the war in France had terminated too soon; and he went further to state his personal belief that this was not the world's last great war. The spirit exhibited in Europe—the evidence of selfishness and intrigue—were almost a prediction that sooner or

UMPIRES ARE NAMED

San Francisco, April 2.—President A. T. Baum announced today that six umpires have signed with the Pacific Coast league for the season of 1919. They are Bill Guthrie, Ed Finney, Red Held, Bill Phyle, Ralph Frary and R. L. Bedford.

With the exception of Bedford, who was with the International league, they all have been in the Coast league for years. Two more umpires are needed and Baum states they will be signed this week. He also stated that the schedule for 1919 will be printed Sunday morning.

later the world would be again embroiled—unless an all-powerful league of nations could be formed. In the meantime, he was pronouncedly in favor of a system of coast defenses and naval bases, so that America could never again be caught in a condition of unpreparedness.

Internal Problems Touched.

Along with his discussion of these questions, Mr. Hawley devoted some minutes to a discussion of the tremendous internal problems that are now before the American people in caring for and assimilating the mass of returned soldiers who persist in collecting in the larger cities instead of scattering over the country as they should. Besides this there is the problem of disposing of hundreds of thousands of women employees who during the war period flocked to the cities and earned big wages, and who were now loath to go back to the ordinary work of shops and homes.

If this condition can be brought about, democratic leaders believe they can get enough votes of dissatisfied republicans to knock out some of the principal schedules proposed, if not defeat the whole bill.

If the bill passes, democrats say, the president will veto it.

Forney and other leaders declare democrats will fail if they hope to defeat a tariff bill on a republican split. Republicans also believe there is no certainty of a presidential veto of a tariff which, they say, business demands.

LESS TALK AND

German colonies and islands would be taken outright by the victorious armies or turned over to mandatories, the president indicated plainly that if the bickering didn't come to results, he would have to lay all the cards on the table to the world. His words drew immediate action and the mandatory proposition went through.

At the conclusion of his first trip to France the president asked how soon a peace could be accomplished, declared that like all gatherings of this kind there must be so much talk.

"Finally," he added, "every one becomes 'talked out' and then we get to results quickly."

Apparently the president, according to all reports, feels that the stage of being "talked out" has been reached.

Paris, April 2.—When the "big four" renewed its sessions today President Wilson was represented as hopeful that the peace work would be greatly speeded up. The president's plain speech to his colleagues late Monday was believed to have resulted in clarifying the situation, making it clear that the people of the various countries expect concrete results from now on. Personal close to Wilson said he is confident that some important questions including disposition of the Saar valley will be settled very shortly. The "big four" yesterday afternoon continued discussion of reparations and responsibility for the war and also conferred with Marshal Foch again regarding the handling of General Hellar's Polish army at Danzig.

Polish Blockade Lifted.

The economic blockade of Poland and Esthonia has been lifted, effective today. Austria also has been granted freedom of some trade restrictions, although the blockade still continues against shipment of war articles into that country.

An international trade commission will be established in Vienna to prevent exportation of goods to Germany.

All countries except Germany, Russia, Hungary and Lithuania are now open to world trade. There was said to be a prospect that Hungary will soon be given economic freedom.

FINANCIAL CONFERENCE ON

Paris, April 2.—Allied financial representatives went to Pont Ste Maxence today to confer with the German financial mission which arrived there yesterday. Soldiers and police are guarding the castle in which the Germans are quartered. The civilians there are unaware of their presence.
