

CITY NEWS.

Prof. Egge, who recently resigned his chair in Willamette university on account of continued ill health, yesterday submitted to a critical operation at a Portland hospital. He came thru the ordeal in good condition, though the operation revealed the fact that his trouble was more serious than the physicians thought; it being a case of cancer of the bowels. It will be necessary to have a supplementary operation next week.

Sergeant-major N. B. Furbrick, who has been stationed with the depot brigade at Camp Lewis, came in yesterday on a 15 day leave and will visit with his parents and friends. He was

SLEEPS FIVE MONTHS

Oakland, Cal., April 4.—Asleep for five months, Mrs. Julia Morton, 30, is still under the influence of the "sleeping sickness." She is now in the Alameda county infirmary, after eleven physicians, who at different times attended her, were unable to bring her out of the stupor. Mrs. Morton is kept alive by forcible feeding of fluids. Physicians admit her case is due to the after effects of influenza.

LATHROP SENTENCED

Spokane, Wash., April 4.—Clinton Lathrop, convicted of murder in the first degree for the shooting of his wife in a quarrel over her divorce action, was today sentenced to life imprisonment at hard labor. Lathrop pleaded insanity. He shot his wife and wounded her little girl. Lathrop took the sentence calmly. He said he thought the conviction was unfair.

LONG STRIKE ENDED

San Francisco, April 4.—A strike of ten weeks' duration ended today when machinists and boiler-makers returned to work in bay shipyards. They won their fight for the 44-hour week and will be granted bonuses in lieu of retroactive pay. San Francisco and Oakland machinists and the San Francisco boilermakers union voted to take the same action.

FIRST OF 20TH BACK

Boston, Mass., April 4.—The first contingent of New England's famous Twenty-sixth division, 5534 shouting, cheering men and officers, arrived today on the transport Mount Vernon.
