STAYTON NEWS NOTES Stayton, April 5.—Fred. Hertling, who was across with the Oregon boys, was visiting friends in and about Stayton the past few days. Sunday noon, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Elder, in this place, occurred the marriage of Miss Alta Grace Elder to Conrad P. Nohbert the ceremony being performed by Rev. Warren of the M. E. church, in the presence of only immediate relatives and friends. After a sumptuous wedding dinner the newly weds left for Portland and other points for a short honeymoon. The bride is a popular young lady of Stayton and the groom a prominent farmer of this vicinity, and they will make their home on his farm about a mile west of town, which he has lately been improving for his bride. The young people have a host of friends in and about Stayton who will join your correspondent in congratulations. W. Richardson was up from Salem and spent Sunday with his family. Perry Bressler of Lyons was in town Tuesday on business. J. W. Mayo made a business trip to Albany Monday. Miss Wanda Brown, who is attending U. of O. at Eugene, came home Saturday, bringing with her four girl friends who were entertained the week end at the G. L. Brown home. Mrs. J. T. Caldwell has gone to Mill City where she is employed. Mrs. J. P. Wilber is visiting in Portland. She was accompanied by her grandson, little Jack Hall. Dr. Byrd of Salem was in Stayton Tuesday called in consultation with Dr. Beauchamp in the case of Mrs. G. B. Frank. G. C. Ekman was here from Camp Lewis for an over Sunday visit with friends. He is looking well, and seems to be recovering nicely from the effects of gas he received while overseas. 4-7
