CITY NEWS.

The cash business at the tax collection office of Sheriff W. I. Needham was not so large Saturday, the last day as it was Friday. However, the number of people appearing at the window with anxious inquiries was larger, numbering about 400. Quite a number of the larger taxpayers who hate to separate themselves from the tax money sent in checks so as to reach the sheriff's office on the last day. Hence the total amount received in taxes Saturday will not be figured up until these checks are properly listed and credited.

Business continues good at the office of the county recorder, Mrs. Mildred Brooks. Saturday, 15 warranty deeds were filed with considerations running all the way from $1 to $3500.

The school girl or boy who has a knack for writing compositions, now has two chances for a little ready money besides glory. The war savings stamps county committee is offering $25 in several prizes and now the victory liberty loan committee is offering inducements. The rush is to get in on the fifth liberty loan story, as it must be submitted by April 21.

A teachers' institute will be held next Saturday at Silverton. The principal speakers are to be Prof. Huesenbury of Portland, Prof. Yonel of Silverton, Mrs. M. L. Pulkerson, supervisor, and Miss Blanche Hubbs of Silverton. The Scotts Mills school will put on a play.

Petitions for the sale of bonds to build Marion county roads have now been sent to all parts of the county for signatures. The road committee and those who have been active in circulating the petitions will have sort of a preliminary meeting Friday morning of this week at the Commercial club. It is asked that all petitions be brought in by that date, April 11.

Superintendent Churchill is in San Francisco today in attendance upon a meeting of western vocational boards, called together by the federal director.

The first part of the interclass track meet, of Willamette University, which was postponed from last Saturday on account of the inclement weather, will be held this afternoon and tomorrow afternoon. Some of the men who made high records last year will be at the front this season, among them Dimeck, who won four first places; Medler and Nicholls, who won two places each. The hundred-yard dash and other features will be run off this afternoon.

At the People's Chorus tonight at Waller hall there will be a varied program of work that should be very enjoyable to everyone. It is hoped that every member will endeavor to be present and on time. The tenor section is in need of new recruits, and there are a lot of tenors in Salem that need the training of the People's Chorus. Let's get together.

There were about 25 of the Boy Scouts at the street Saturday in the interest of the Scout council fund, and nobody was overlooked in the solicitation unless they were expert dodgers. They succeeded in collecting subscriptions to the amount of about $210, which is very good for a start. They will keep up a quiet canvass during the week on a little different plan with the expectation of rolling up several hundred dollars more before the end of the week.
