Historian Presents Library With Copies Of Latest Work

Among the recent visitors at the state library was Prof. John B. Horner, head of the department of historical research at the Oregon Agricultural college, widely known as the author of "Oregon Literature" and other works. He has just left the library copies of his latest work—a history of Oregon covering the entire period since the accidental discovery of the country, and including besides the political events a survey of Oregon's great men and her literature. This is one of the most valuable additions to our historical literature, for while it is most comprehensive in its scope, it is confined to a few hundred pages of concise narrative—the result of a most exhaustive research on the part of the author and a careful winnowing of all non-essential detail. Hence it is a book without a tedious page—a book that scintillates information regarding all epochs of the state history. It is finely printed and illustrated with a multitude of half-tone cuts. Especially attractive is the section devoted to the biography of Oregon's famous men and women, and the pages of Oregon's choicest literature. Had Prof. Horner produced nothing more than this book he would have established for himself a place among the literati of the state.

ROUND COAST LEAGUE BASES (By United Press.) Thirty-one thousand fans saw the opening games—San Francisco, 12,000; Los Angeles, 8,000; Salt Lake, 7,550; Sacramento, 3,450. The winners: Vernon, San Francisco, Los Angeles, Oakland—all Californians. Home run honor roll: Willie, Oaks, two; Horton, Tigers. Vital statistics: 51 players garnered 64 hits off 12 pitchers, while 8 umpires looked on. Denny Willie with his two homers netted three runs and the Oaks beat the Senators 4 to 2. Two Rainier pitchers—Bowman and Mains—walked five and allowed two hits in the third inning, while the Seals scored six runs. The Seals added five runs later, winning 11 to 5. Babe Horton's home run brought the Vernon Tigers out of the hole in the 7th. Two men romped in before him, making the score 4 to 3. Oh, how cold it was, but Leverenz and Dell shared 22 strikeouts evenly. Los Angeles offered the only bargain bill. The Angels nosed out the Beavers in the lucky 13th, five to four, by busching hits off Lefty James.

Cleburne, Texas, April 9.—The Fort Worth Panthers were vanquished here yesterday by the White Sox second team 10 to 1. Corey allowed the bush longers only six hits, while the Chicagoans landed 17 sweets.

Peoria, Ill., April 9.—Earl Puryear of Tulsa, Okla., and Kid Wolfe of Cleveland fought ten terrific rounds to a draw here last night. There was plenty of action from start to finish but neither boy could score so much as a knock-down.

EUGENE MAY GET BIG PACKING PLANT AND HOG FARM, REPORT

Eugene, Or., April 9.—A packing plant and hog farm will be discussed at a meeting at the Eugene Chamber of Commerce tonight at 8 o'clock according to those behind the plan. W. H. Strickland, who proposes to establish such an industry here if given the proper encouragement will meet with farmers and business men at that time. Under Mr. Strickland's plan, a stock corporation would be organized for the purpose of erecting and running a packing plant in the city with a six hundred or seven hundred acre farm located near Eugene. The initial goal for a minimum pack would be six thousand animals, according to Mr. Strickland.

TELLS DYSPEPTICS WHAT TO EAT

Avoided Indigestion, Sour Acid Stomach, Heartburn, Gas on Stomach, Etc.

Indigestion and practically all forms of stomach trouble, say medical authorities, are due nine times out of ten to an excess of hydrochloric acid in the stomach. Chronic "acid stomach" is exceedingly dangerous and sufferers should do either one of two things. Either they can go on a limited and often disagreeable diet, avoiding foods that disagree with them, that irritate the stomach and lead to excess acid secretion or they can eat as they please in reason and make it a practice to counteract the effect of the harmful acid and prevent the formation of gas, sourness or premature fermentation by the use of a pure, disintegrator magnesium at their meals.

There is probably no better, safer or more reliable stomach antacid than Bisurated Magnesia and it is widely used for this purpose. It has no direct action on the stomach and is not a digestant. But a teaspoonful of the powder or a couple of five-grain tablets taken in a little water with the food will neutralize the excess acidity which may be present and prevent its further formation. This removes the whole cause of the trouble and the meal digests naturally and healthfully without need of peptic pills or artificial digestants.

Get a few ounces of Bisurated Magnesia from any reliable druggist. Ask for either powder or tablets. It never comes as a liquid, milk or citrate and in the bisurated form is not a laxative. Try this plan and eat what you want at your next meal and see if this isn't the best advice you ever had on "what to eat."

Large Audience Enjoys Horace Rahskopf Recital

Waller Hall was filled with a most gratifying audience last evening, attracted by the entertainment features offered by Horace Rahskopf, of the department of public speaking, assisted by Miss Winifred Ayre, Miss Evelyn DeLong, Miss Myrtle Mason and Miss

Liesl Ruby. Mr. Rahskopf, who has been one of the closest students under the direction of Prof. Crowder-Miller, was the winner of the contest for first place on the debating team of the university. That he is possessed of unusual ability and has profited well by his course of study, was brought out last night in his characterization sketches, in which he showed a large range of adaptability. Probably his best interpretation was that of the immortal Mr. Pickwick, which he did to perfection.

Other sketches were from Montgomery, Mark Twain and James Whitcomb Riley—the latter selection being especially effective, and demonstrating the speaker's ability to merge himself in the character of the person he is portraying. Selections were given in excellent form by Miss Eyre and Miss Mason, of the speaking department, and beautiful musical numbers were contributed by Miss Ruby and Miss DeLong. Altogether the evening's program was one of the best ever presented in the hall.
